Headache?

If it does, you should try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Why not do so. They will relieve the pain in just a few minutes. Ask your druggist There are 45,000 druggists in the U.S. Ask any of them. A package of 25 doses costs 25 cents. One tablet usually stops a headache. They relieve pain without leaving any disagreeable after-effects -isn't that what you want? 'My son Frank Snyder has used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for a long time. He never had anything to help him so much for headache. year ago he came home, and I was down sick with such a dreadful nerv-ous headache. He gave me one of the Anti-Pain Pills, and after while I took another and was entirely relieved. I always keep them in the house now, and gave many away to others suffering with headache." MRS. LOUISE LEWELLYN,

COLORADO CATCHING COLD FEET ALREADY? Boulder, Sept. 19 .--- While a contract

Boulder, Sept. 19,—While a contract has been signed for a football game between the universities of Colorado and Utah, in Salt Lake City, Nov. 14, there is considerable doubt as to whether the teams will meet. Ath-letic relations between the two uni-versities have been strained since the financial trouble over the track meet here last spring, when Colorado re-fused to give Utah expenses, alleging that illegible men were-played. The contract for the football game had already been signed at that time. Nothing has been heard by the Colorado management regarding a cancellation of the game, but auch action would hardly be a surprise. It would leave a gap in the schedule from Nov. 3, election day, when Colo-rado college comes to Boulder, to Nov. 21, the date for the Denver university game.

WHITE WINGS LOOSE TO THE OCCIDENTALS

The Occidentals won a ragged contest with the White Wings on Walker's field Saturday. The score was 14 to 5. The details follow; anc, by scores of 4.6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-3, and Beals C. Wright disposed of John G. Parke, three sets to two, by scores of 8-10, 3-6, 6, 4, 7-5, 6-2. The American did not open encour-agingly. With Larned exceedingly nervous, and Wright unable to get in-to his swing, the British players took game after game, both winning the initial sets. But Larned steadied down to his usual resourceful game and carried off the next three sets, the match and the grand contest, although there were brief periods when Ritchle looked dangerous. In the meantime Wright had lost his second set, and the score, five games to three shots gave him a lift, and from that time he improved steadly, and not only took the set, but the next two also, ending the game in grand style. Larned made 55 places and on op-ponent's misplays scored 34 nets, 39 outs and two double faults. Ritchle made 25 places and on op-ponent's misplays scored at nets, 34 outs and three double faults. Parke had 59 places and so op-ponent's misplays 56 nets, 34 outs and three double faults. FEARS REALIZED. Dr. L. C. Hailburton, the noted English statistician, was discussing in New York the statistics of marriagemarriage statistics are his specialty. 'The last statistics," he said, "show us one pleasant change, one grand us one pleasant change, one grand improvement. Aged men of wealth are no longer marrying beautiful, mer-cenary young women as frequently as they used. In fact, these hideous murriages, are becoming, in this coun-try, so rare that the newspapers don't hesitate to comment very forcibly upon them. I approve of these cruel com-ments. They keep such mockries of marriage down."

THE SUMMARY.

ments. They keep such indextices of marriage down." Dr. Hallburton smiled graimly. "In a little town in Heris last month," he said, "a millionaire of 79 years married a young and pretty mil-liner of 22. The local paper printed the next day this editorial paragraph on the mailter.

next day this editorial paragraph on the matter: "Six months ago, when Mr. Blank's venerable wife died, his children and grandchildren feared that he would go cragy over the sad bereavement. Their fears now come true," for me still." Gans has nothing but words of praise for his conqueror. "The Battler is a wonderful fighter," without a weakness; I know for I have battled with him enough rounds to find this out. I have hit him on every spot above the belt, and hard enough to stiff-fen the ordinary fighter out cold. But that Dane only kept coming. It is dis-couraging to fight such a man as he is. Not alone because he is constantly hit-ting you, but because you constantly have that feeling of being overcome by something you cannot understand. You are working well, hitting him just where you aim; your jabs are true to the spot and you see his heaf toek hack and snap from side to side-and still on he comes. I tell you if ever a man had a yellow sreak Nelson is the fellow to show it up in a long fight. He is enough to take away the heart of the gamest man that ever donned a glove and all because he apparently cannot be hurt." Gans said that when he gots to Chi-cago he will appear before a wealthy club and his end of the purso will be $2,500.
