HIS MONEY DISAPPEARED. Abraham Hursaker, a Stockman, Sustains a Heavy Loss.

Special Correspondence. Brigham City, Boxelder Co., Dec. 19.-Five hundred dollars in gold coin was taken from the premises of Abraham Hunsaker, a well known stockman, liv-ing near Brigham City. Mr. Hunsaker has been in the habit of keeping good sized sums of money secreted on his premises and this time someone else found out where it was kept. It is not known who took the money, but a man by the name of Fred Parsons, a miner has been working for Mr. Hunsaker for some time and Sunday night suddenly disappeared and has not shown up since, so he is suspected of having gotten away with the money although nothing definite is known.

A complaint was filed today with the justice of the peace in and for Box-elder precinct, charging J. H. Clark with obtaining money under false pre-tenses, by taking from the State 2,000 head of sheep upon which W. S. Mc-Cornick holds a mortgage. In his an-swer, also filed today, Mr. Clark pleads not guilty.

That after his death the title was adjudicated by the then probate court of Salt Lake county by a judgment duly made and entered whereby it was decreed that the heirs of the said Thomasset. Stayner, deceased, were entitled to said deceased are unknown. That so far as the names of the heirs of the said deceased are known to the plaintiffs, they are as follows: Thomas J. Stayner, Flizabeth S. T. Wadham, then Elizabeth Stayner, Arthur Stayner and Charles W. Stayner, and plainting verily believe that there are other persons who claim to have an interest in the title to the above described premi-ses by virtue of being heirs of the said Thomas C. Stayner, deceased, but plain-tiffs cannot insert the names of such persons in said complaint because they are unknown to them. That such in-terest, if any they have, is by virtue of their being heirs of the said Thomas C. Stayner, deceased,

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the sumomns in this action be served on said unknown per-sons by publication once a week for five successive weeks in the Deseret PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP NOTICES.
