BECK TUNNEL ON TOBOGGAN

Apparently Brokers Are of Opinion the Usual Dividend is Not Forthcoming.

DIRECTORS MEET TOMORROW.

Uncle Sam Consolidated and May Day Advance—Closing Quotations.

There was plenty of enthusiasm about the floor of the Salt Lake Stock and Mining exchange during today's early call.

Contrary to the performance of Beck Tunnel, Uncle Sam Consolidated and May Day advanced.

The listed stocks attracted so much attention that the unlisted issues were almost lost sight of.

TITLE BEING DEBATED

Western Says Administratrix of Milner Estate Can't Hold Coal Lands. Arguments were made today in the Federal court, before Judge Marshall, in the case of the United States against the estate of S. B. Milner. The matter came before the court in the form of a demurrer to the complaint, which is a civil one rather than criminal. The argument in behalf of the defendant was made by Atty. Allan Sanford while special counsel Fred R. Maynard appeared for the plaintiff.

MINING DEED FILED

Special Correspondence. Provo, Sept. 16.—L. J. Milner, et al., have transferred by mining deed to the Triple Link Mining and Milling company, properties in American Park canyon.

BACK FROM IDAHO

Judge C. B. Diehl and Party Return From Fishing Trip. Judge C. B. Diehl of the criminal division of the city court, Dr. Richards and Justice Dana T. Smith returned this morning from a 16 days fishing and hunting trip on the Snake river. The party camped at a Porter's ranch and had most enjoyable times during the week. It is alleged in the complaint filed against Kilpatrick today that he spends his money for liquor and retuses to provide for the home.

ADDRESS TO TEACHERS

Heads of Departments Talk to Institute Held at Lafayette School. The teachers of the primary grades, from first to fourth inclusive, met this afternoon in the LaFayette school in institute work. The assembly was addressed by W. A. Wetzel, musical supervisor, Miss Johanna, supervisor of physical education; Miss Rosalie Pollock of the primary department; and Mr. Fairbanks, supervisor of art. The classes in the first four grades were dismissed at 3:30 to permit the teachers to attend.

PETITION DENIED

The petition of A. J. Crozier, seeking the disbarment of George T. Bean, formerly of Richfield, but now of Nevada, was denied by the supreme court today.

JUDGE EXONERATED

The supreme court today denied the petition of E. Z. Walton, attorney for L. P. Lund, for a writ of certiorari. The petition alleges that in the case of L. P. Lund against Elin Jover, Mrs. Jover's death was guilty of irregular practices.

ENTER UTAH FIELD

The Firemen's Insurance company of Newark, N. J., filed certified copies of its articles of incorporation, annual statements, etc., with the secretary of state today to do business in Utah.

WEALTH NOT BOUNTIFUL

A petition in bankruptcy was today filed in the federal court by Thomas Neath, a merchant of Bountiful, Davis county, Utah. He schedules his liabilities at $1,775.92 with assets of $719.30. Of the last named amount $40 is claimed as being exempt from execution.

APPEAL IS TAKEN

Judge Marshall today fixed the appeal bond of defendant in the case of Pettigrew against Hyde, in the sum of $25,000 when the matter came up in the federal court. This case was decided by his honor a week ago, the verdict being in favor of plaintiff, from which judgment defendant appeals.

MAYOR EXERCISES VETO

Mayor J. S. Brantford has vetoed the appropriation made by the council for Robert Kilpatrick, 433 Sixth avenue, placing at his disposal $100 out of the city funds for building a retaining wall in front of his premises to offset the cut made when the sidewalk was laid in that section of the city. He vetoes the council's action for the reason that the petitioner did not ask the city to do the work and for the further reason that no legal responsibility is shown as regards the city.

ARRESTED BY SHERIFF

J. P. Kilpatrick was arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Ed Emery on a warrant charging him with failing to provide for his wife and children. The time Kilpatrick was arrested, his four little children and their mother were waiting in their cheerless home for the return of the father with the money he had earned as a scavenger during the week. It is alleged in the complaint filed against Kilpatrick today that he spends his money for liquor and retuses to provide for the home.

WORK BEING FINISHED

The finishing touches are being put on the street railway improvements at the intersection of First, Second and Main streets. The grand union layout (switch) is installed and asphalt laid on top of the two lower corners. These are being laid today and within a day or two the working force will be called off and taken to complete the work on the intersections further south. The layouts being installed at Third Main street and Pacesiders represent a cost of $25,000 for the steel itself. When in service any number of cars can be going in four directions without causing a jam.
