A Curious Statistical Fact.

There are in France five millions six hundred and seventy-one thousand smokers of tobacco.

The consumption of each smoker is annually, upon an average, nine pounds and a half, English weight, which, at one dollar a pound, amounts to $33,874,500. This large sum is exclusive of the cost of the snuff and chewing-tobacco, the retail sale of which, as well as of the smoking tobacco, constitutes a monopoly and belongs to the French government.

Of every fifteen smokers it is computed that eight smoke the pipe, five cigars, and two cigarettes.

The whole annual consumption of cigarettes for France is estimated at 294 thousand millions, or 805 millions every day, 33 millions every hour, 559,000 every minute, and 9,323 every second.

Finally all these cigarettes, being placed end to end, would extend the length of 2,057,930 kilometres, that is to say 514 times the circumference of our globe.

LOUIS A. BERTRAND.

JUDGE EMERSON AT HOME.—The following we find in eastern papers—

"On the 4th of August, at Battle Creek, I attended a meeting on the Fair Grounds, in the afternoon, addressed by George W. Julian, of Indiana, and others, at which some 1200 persons were present, and in the evening the large Opera House in the town was well filled. The closing speech was made by Judge Emerson, of the United States Court, in Salt Lake City, Utah, who is at home for a few weeks with his family in Battle Creek, and made an able and excellent address, carrying great weight, both by the clearness of its argument, its high moral ground and fine frankness of statement."—G. D. S. in Woman's Journal.

Here is an extract of the address as reported—

"He did not care by what name they called the right to vote, but whatever right he possessed, that, also, his wife had. This was the bed-rock, the ground-work of all liberty, that all persons are equal and endowed with the same inalienable rights and privileges. Might does not make right. If but one woman wanted to vote, she ought to, because it is her right to do whatever a man does. Shall we deprive the Adventists or any other non-combatants of the right to the ballot because they rarely exercise it? Give woman the ballot for the future good of the race. Then we shall have a nobler manhood and womanhood."—Eagle.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—A sense of duty impels me to say that Dr. C. W. Higgins' medicines have done for me what no other physician's have been able to do. I have suffered for eighteen terrible years with the worst form of epileptic fits and have been treated by the most eminent physicians of Europe, but without relief; I have also had the advice of some of the local physicians in this City, but until eight weeks ago, when Dr. C. W. Higgins tried his new and wonderful method of treatment, I had given up in despair, having been subject to these fits every six or nine days for eighteen years, and since Dr. H. took my case in hand I have not had a symptom of them, and I wish to make known far and near to every one afflicted with this awful malady the physician that cures.
