MR. RYAN IS WANTED.

The Ex-Superintendent of Waterworks Indicted on a Charge of Embezzlement.

And now it is an indictment of the waterworks which is about to come against him. One day last week eight indictments were returned by the grand jury of the third district against him for the embezzlement of public money.

A HOUSE OF TROUBLE.

The Family of Judge Charles W. Hall Under a Storm of Abuse.

The home of Justice of the Peace Hall is at present under a heavy storm of abuse. That gentleman, it is said, is a man of high character and high ability, but his home life is a scene of constant strife.

Fire at the Guards House.

About 8 o'clock this morning a fire was discovered on the third floor of the Guards House. The fire department had to be called before the blaze was completely under control.

A Pleasant Excursion.

R. A. Commissioner Strickland, after a month's absence, returned to the city today. He has covered a good deal of ground during his absence, having spent some time in Chicago and looking at the World's Fair.

TODAY'S COUNTY COURT.

The Proposed Union Railroad to the South of Big Cottonwood Canyon.

Very little business was transacted by the County court at its meeting this forenoon. Probate Judge Rice presided, and Sebastian Calmes and Martin were also present.

The result of the election, which is expected to be a close one, will be decided by the voters. The election will be held on November 3rd, and the results will be decided by the voters.

Details of the scheme have been given in the columns of the News.

Editor's Notice.

The Ninth edition of the News will be published on November 10th.
