MAN

IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, "I SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R. R.

IS THE GREAT CONNECTING LINK BETWEEN THE EAST & THE WEST!

its main line runs from Chicago to Council Bluffs, passing through Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Geneseo, Moline, Rock Island, Davenport, West Liberty, Iowa City, Marengo, Brooklyn, Grinnell, Newton, Monroe, Des Moines, Indianola and Council Bluffs; also from Des Moines to Des Moines (the capital of Iowa), Stuart, Atlantic, and Avoca; with branches from Bureau Junction to Peoria; Wilton Junction to Muscatine; Washington to Fairfield, Eldon, Belknap, Centreville, Princeton, Trenton, Gallatin, Cameron, Leavenworth, Atchison, and Kansas City; Kirkwood to Washington to Knoxville; Keokuk to Farmington, Bonaparte, Mediapolis, Fort, Independence, Eldon, Ottumwa, Eddyville, Oskaloosa, Pella, Monroe, and Des Moines; Newton to Monroe; Des Moines to Indianola and Winterset; Atlantic to Lewis and Audubon; and Avoca to Harlan. This is positively the only Railroad, which owns, and operates a through line from Chicago into the State of Kansas.

All through Express Passenger Trains, with Pullman Palace Cars attached, are run each way daily between CHICAGO and PEORIA, KANSAS CITY, COUNCIL BLUFFS, LEAVENWORTH and ATCHISON. Through cars are also run between Milwaukee and Kansas City, via the "Milwaukee and Rock Island Short line."

The "Great Rock Island" is magnificently equipped. Its road bed is simply perfect, and its tracks is laid with steel rails.

What will please you most will be the pleasure of enjoying your meals, while passing over the beautiful prairies of Illinois and Iowa, in one of our magnificent Dining Cars that accompany all Through Express Trains. You get an entire meal, as good as is served in any first-class hotel, for seventy-five cents.

Appreciating the fact that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes (and the immense passenger business of this line warranting it), we are pleased to announce that this Company runs Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars for sleeping purposes, and Palace Dining Cars for eating purposes only. One other great feature of our Palace Cars is a SMOKING SALOON where you can enjoy your "Havana" at all hours of the day.

Magnificent Iron Bridges span the Mississippi and Missouri rivers at all points crossed by this line, and transfers are avoided at Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Leavenworth, and Atchison, connections being made in Union Depots.

THE PRINCIPAL R. R. CONNECTIONS OF THIS GREAT THROUGH LINE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

At CHICAGO, with all diverging lines for the East and South.

SUMMIT STAKE CONFERENCE.

The regular Quarterly Conference of Summit Stake was held in the bowery at Coalville, Saturday, Aug. 6th, 1881, opened by singing, prayer and singing.

President W. W. Cluff said he rejoiced that the Saints in Summit County have the prospect of raising the best crops this season ever raised here; the people are generally in good health, and are more interested in living their religion.

Patriarch Thomas Ball showed that the Saints were gathered from all the various religions throughout the world, and when they arrive here they all become united in in observing certain religious rites and ceremonies.

Elder C. Allen said we have all individually obtained a knowledge of the truth, and we understand principles as we never did before. Our young men are sent to the nations of the earth, and they accomplish what they are sent to do, for God is with them and blesses them.

Singing and benediction.

2 p. m.

Conference opened as usual.

The Bishops of Rockport, Almy, Wanship, Parley's Park, Kamas, Peca and Coalville, reported the condition of their several Wards.

The President of the High Priests' Quorum and the President of the First Elders' Quorum represented their quorums, exhorting them to greater diligence and perseverance.

Patriarch Ball made a brief report of his labors, and expressed himself as being ready to do his duty; some do not appreciate blessings, because easily obtained.

High Councilors John Hortin, Jacob Hoffman and Samuel Faddies briefly expressed their feelings and duties as High Councilors.

The priesthood were invited to meet in the school house at 7 p.m.

Singing. Benediction.

Adjourned to Sunday, 10 a. m.

Sunday, August 7th, 10 a.m.

Conference opened with the usual services.

The Bishops of Hoytsville, Upton, Hennefer, Evanston, and Echo, reported their Wards. High Councilors Thos. L. Allen, Joseph A. Fisher, Richard Birch, John Boyden and Ed. Eldredge, severally bore testimony, and were thankful for the privilege.

Choir sang an anthem. Benediction.

2 p. m.

Conference opened as usual.

Sacrament was administered by Bishops Salmon and Attwood.

Alma Eldredge read the names of 21 Home Missionaries, who, by vote, were sustained.

Thos. Gibbons, Henry Evans, and Andrew Hobson, spoke their feelings.

Counselor Ward E. Pack, had enjoyed himself very much in hearing the remarks during this Conference. It requires gread independence, to observe, and keep the commandments of God, and fulfil the duties required of us. We have been gathered from our homes and friends in distant countries. Many of the Saints were driven from their homes. Some are astride of the fence and don't know on which side they may fall. It is necessary for us to do all the good we can and assist those who are weak in the faith, and teach and instruct the young in correct principles, that they may know for themselves that this is the plan of salvation, and that we are assisting in building up righteousness on the earth; we are desirous of doing good to all, that the living and dead may be administered for.

He read a report of receipts, $993.95, and disbursements, $1,400.30, on the Stake House, between March 1st and August 6, 1881.

Alma Eldredge presented the general authorities of the Church, who were unanimously sustained.

Thomas Bullock presented the authorities of the Stake, who were also unanimously sustained.

W. W. Cluff said we have heard reports from all the Wards and Councils, and we learn that the people are well, they have good prospects, and are enjoying three of the greatest blessings of life. Our new superintendent of schools takes great interest in schools and will visit the several school districts. We want you to sustain him in his duties. We want each Bishop to make a correct statistical report of his Ward, and send the same to our clerk by the 10th of September, so that he can compile the same correctly to send to the First Presidency.

The Priesthood will meet Saturday, September 3d, at 11 a.m., at Wanship.

A special meeting in Peca, Sunday, September 4th, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Louisa Roundy, of Wanship, was voted for as President of the Primary Association.

Conference adjourned for three months.

Choir sang an anthem

Benediction by Alma Eldredge.

THOMAS BULLOCK, Clerk of Stake.

Hand to Hand Encounter With an Enterprising Burglar.

The following from the Minneapolis Tribune, will be read with interest:

Probably the most peculiar burglary in the criminal history of this country occured shortly before midnight, Friday, in the peaceful home of Benjamin F. Shuart, assistant pastor of Plymouth Church, on the bluff west of Thomas Lowry's residence. Mr. Shuart was sleeping in a room on the east side of the house, just off the sitting room, and at 11.30 o'clock was awakened by a crash of glass in the dining-room, situated just of the sitting-room, and was further startled by hearing a voller of oaths of the most shocking character. At first he imagined that some drunken man had entered the house and so informed his startled wife, but this theory was soon dispelled when a swaggering form entered the dining-room and a strange voice yelled out, "I'm a burglar and I want money." By this time the position of the intruder was defined, and the peaceful clergyman picked up a heavy old-fashioned chair and banged away at the burglar with good effect. The two men clinched and then followed one of the most terrific hand-to-hand combats the writer has ever heard of. Around the room, hugging the wall, went the two men and at last settled near a window in the sitting room where Mr. Shuart called to his wife for help. She grasped a five-pound Indian club and made for the combatants, dealing two heavy blows, but unfortunately they fell on the head of the preacher instead of on that of the burglar, and she was compelled to desist. All was dark as pitch and the uneven battle continued. Finally the burglar got the preacher in a corner and kept banging away with a pair of brass knuckles until the preacher was compelled to ask for quarter. The burglar then let up on his victim, pulled a match and made a light in the student's lamp on the table of the sitting-room, and proceeded to ransack things. Meanwhile Mrs. Shuart went out in the yard and vainly called for help, and at this moment the hired girl came down stairs and the burglar, unsuccessful in his hunt for booty, started to leave the house, meeting Mrs. Shuart and tearing her night-gown into shreds, going off with muttered curses. Twice during the hunt for valuables the burglars back was turned, and Mr. Shuart, armed with a small pocket-knife, was about to use it, but didn't. And so the burglar departed unmolested and without anything to show for his exploit save a bloody head. Mr. Shuart tore off the burglar's mask during the struggle, and is positive he can recognize the man again. A Tribune reporter called at the house yesterday, and a sight met his eyes never to be forgotten. On three sides of the sitting-room the walls and doors and the floor were spattered thickly with blood, showing plainly that a terrible struggle must have taken place. Mr. Shuart is badly hurt about the head, his left eye is cut terribly, and he presents a sorry appearance indeed. He says the burglar evinced no fear, and from the start was noisy and careless. Had the preacher thought to again seize the club, that burglar would now be resting from all future attempts of a like character. But in the excitement and suffering great pain from his wounds, Mr. Shuart was not in condition for sober thought and decisive action. It will be several weeks before the reverend gentleman will be presentable for pulpit duty. Mrs. Shuart is suffering from nervousness and a kick received from the burglar on her left side. Such another piece of work has scarcely been heard of in this country. The burglar evidently knew the premises he entered and expected to find in the mild man of the gospel a piece of putty. Could he be found to-day, that burglar would no doubt be free to confess his surprise at the warm reception he received from a messenger of peace.
