PITCHER ANNIS SHUTSOUT HELENA

One of the Best Games of the Season Captured by Salt Lake Team—Boise Wakes Up.

HOW THEY STAND.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Helena	26	13	.667
Salt Lake	24	15	.616
Butte	18	21	.462
Boise	10	29	.256

Althought the Salt Lake team did not succeed in taking all the games in the series of five with Helena, the Skyscrapers did take three out of five, and that is not so bad, especially in view of the fact that the locals scored two shutouts on the Senators and played a remarkably good game in the last of the series.

To Pitcher Annis belongs chief credit for the victory yesterday. He was at his best and had the visitors at his mercy all the time. Not once during the nine innings did he slow up. It made the second shutout for him during the week and the fourth in two weeks. Last week at Boise he scored two shut out games.

The largest crowd of the season witnessed the game, there being 3,500 fans present. Annis was at his very best and this coupled with the fact that every member of the team gave him gilt-edged support, made the game a fine one. All Helena could do with Annis' delivery was four hits, three of them being made by Cahill and the other by Irby. Gordon was also in good form and Salt Lake could do nothing with him until the sixth when Eddie Hammond made a single. Head flew out to Gordon and Lussi hit the ball, but it fell near the home plate and he was thrown out, catcher to first. In the meantime Eddie Hammond had started for second and took all by surprise by running to third, beating the ball on the throw. Kelly came up with a single and Hammond scored the first run of the day.

In the following inning the locals "found" Gordon. Four hits and two errors made the combination that brought in four runs, making Salt Lake's total.

Only once did Helena get a man as far as third but Annis pulled out of the hole. While he did not make a strike-out record he was there all the time with the assists and was in the game every second of the play.

The detailed score follows:

AGED PEDESTRIAN ON HIS LONG WALK

Edward Payson Weston, the 71 years old pedestrian, arrived in Ogden from Morgan Saturday afternoon at 5:45 and left shortly after Sunday midnight on his tramp to San Francisco, following the Southern Pacific and accompanied by a railway velocipede carrying needed supplies. Yesterday he spent in Ogden resting and nursing a wound he received Thursday. While walking along the railroad tracks he stumbled over a spike and fell heavily. A bottle in which he carried his liquid food was shattered and a broken bit of glass pierced through his clothing and cut quite a long gash in his abdomen. The wound was chafed by his clothing and Weston had to rest in Morgan longer than he anticipated.

He stated he was not worrying at all because he was about 300 miles behind his schedule and said he felt certain of reaching the Golden Gate city by July 9. He explained his reason for not going over the Salt Lake Route by saying he could not get the proper supply of fresh food needed, while over the other route he has been provided with the velocipede to carry what he requires.

When he arrived in Ogden Weston appeared fresh and strong and declared that walking did not hurt anybody but on the contrary is a good thing. He has covered 3,001 miles of his long journey and said he expected to make 67 miles during today and an average of 22 miles during the week.

While his hair and moustache are white his skin is tanned a rich brown and he looks the picture of health and vigor. He is five feet seven inches tall and weighs about 135 pounds. He wears heavy soled shoes and his muscles are in splendid condition. He says he has been well received everywhere he has been and has many interesting tales to relate about his noted walks.

THE "MOUSER" IS A BIG SURPRISE

A 40 to 1 Shot Captures First Race—Penn Wins Classy Event from Fast Field.

The Saturday races were on a par with the best programs of the meeting. There were some surprises and the bookies got the best of the bargain. The victory of "The Mouser" in the first race and the win of Penn in the classy juvenile stakes were the main features of the program.

The first race was productive of a distinct surprise to nearly every person at the track. During the week the horse started but was last among the also rans. He opened Saturday at 50 to 1 and closed at 40, 15 and 10 across the board. The animal took the lead on the first jump and made a runaway race of it. Fortunately for the books there was but little wagered on the victor.

Another surprise was in the last race when Yankee Tourist, 10 to 1, galloped home an easy winner.

In the third race, Work Box, a horse that has only won one mile race in his life, upset calculations by winning against a field of better horses on form. The fifth was won by Legatee, heavily played.

The last race was a feature in itself. The field was a speedy one, including La Chata, Sevenfull, Ontario Oregon, Sam F. and Hereafter. Hereafter was the favorite and won by a narrow margin from Sam F. who quit just a bit too soon. A summary of the events follows:

First Race—
The Mouser, 40 to 1, won
Yankee Tourist, 1 to 2 place, second
Friar of Elgin, 3 to 2 show, third.
Second Race—
Altenberg, 11 to 1, won.
St. Joe, 11 to 5 place, second.
Creston, 2 to 5 show, third.
Third Race—
Work Box, 3 to 1, won.
Proteus, 2 to 1 place, second.
Col. White, even show, third.
Fourth Race—
Penn, 7 to 10, won.
Genova, 5 to 1 place, second.
Rey el Tovar, 1 to 2 place, third.
Fifth Race—
Legatee, 4 to 1, won.
Prince of Castile, 3 to 1 place second.
Herman Doyle, even show, third.
Sixth Race—
Hereafter, even, won.
Sam F., 4 to 5 place, second.
Ontario Oregon, 3 to 2 show, third.

SERIOUS TROUBLE ON PARIS RACE TRACK

Paris, June 20.—An occurrence unprecedented in the French turf almost prevented the running of the Grand steeplechase of Paris today at the Autell course. The meeting was disorganized by a serious riot, several persons being injured.

Many arrests were made. Inspired and aided, it is said, by Pataud and other revolutionary labor leaders, 40 militant members of the stable boys' union, armed with revolvers, ambushed the vans conveying the horses from Maisons Lafitte, their running quarters. Among the victims were several American horses. Meanwhile, owing to the delay in calling the events, the greatest confusion prevailed at the race track.

It was a long time before the cause of the non-appearance of the horses became known, but finally a magistrate and a force of police set off in automobiles to the scene of the trouble, where they put the stable boys to flight and rescued the racers.

It seemed at first as though the meeting would have to be abandoned, and President Falliores, who always is present on the occasion of the Grand steeplechase, was advised by telephone not to come. Eventually, however, the call was given for the first race. This was more than two hours after the scheduled time and the crowds, already exasperated from waiting, became violent when a single horse presented itself for a walkover in the first event. Jockey and horse were forced to beat a hasty retreat to paddock, as the crowd swarmed on the track and refused to permit the jockey to take his mount over the course.

The second event was for army officers riding their own horses. For some reason or other the crowds became frenzied when several officers centered in. The officers were pelted with missiles and two were severely injured. The barriers guarding the course were broken down and hundreds of men invaded the track, several of them being ridden down and injured by the wildly excited horses.

About the same time the booths and hedges were set on fire, but fortunately reinforcements of police troops and firemen who had been hastily summoned arrived in time to clear the track and extinguish the flames. The police arrested a large number and the remainder of the program was carried out in comparative quiet.

The Grand steeplechase, which was worth $28,600, was won by E. Veil Pichard's Saint Caradeo, with G. G. Asheton-Smith's Jerry M. second and M. Champion's Mademoiselle Boniface third. W. K. Vanderbilt's Herkimer won the Prix d'Issy, a hurdle race at one mile and three-quarters.

Maisons LaFitte, France, June 21.—At a meeting tonight attended by delegates, from the General Federation of Labor, the Stable Boys' union voted to strike next Sunday with the Grand Prix de Paris as the feature of the racing program. One of the speakers announced that 30,000 workmen would co-operate in the strike and that the Grand Prix would be converted into an "obstacle race."

It is stated that the leaders in the movement have in mind an even more effective plan of stopping the meeting, unless the trainers accede to their demands. It is estimated that the incident at Autell today caused a loss of $300,000 to the betting machines.

KEEN RIVALRY IS SHOWN IN NAVY

Want Challenge Cups for Rowing, Sailing and Athletics—Louisiana Has Many Trophies.

Washington, June 21.—Keen is the rivalry in the navy for the honor of winning one or more of the many challenge cups and trophies presented to the contested for in boat rowing, sailing and athletics. The battleship Louisiana holds the majority of the challenge trophies and owns outright a number of others. The boat crew of picked men of the Louisiana has beaten every crew that has opposed it, capturing 17 handsome trophies. Sixteen of these trophies are of silver, ranging from six to 16 inches high, all handsomely designed and engraved. The most highly prized of all the navy's trophies, now held by the Louisiana, is the battenburg cup of solid gold which stands about 26 inches high. It is a challenge cup and was presented by the enlisted men of the British second cruiser squadron which visited the United States in 1906, under command of Prince Louis of Battenburg. It is contested for every three months by boats from ships of the Atlantic fleet and the ship winning the cup must defend when challenged.

If a ship of the British navy is present when the race is rowed, an invitation may be extended to enter the race or pull the winner. In the event of a British ship winning the race, her name must be inscribed on the cup and then the trophy is returned to the commander-in-chief of the United States fleet and held by him until again won by one of the ships of the fleet.

The race for this cup is with a 12-oared cutter for three miles. The British cruiser Argyll defeated crews in 1907, but the Louisiana's crew successfully defended the cup twice in Australia and once at Gibraltar against British crews.

The trophies belonging to the Louisiana are the Callao cup, offered by the Callao Rowing club and presented to the Louisiana's crew by the president of Peru after a race in which there were four Peruvian entrants and two Americans; the Chinese cup, presented by the Chinese government during the visit to Amoy; the Thompson cup, presented by Col. R. M. Thompson to be pulled for by the champion boat crews of the American and Japanese fleets at Yokohama in 1908; the American cup for gigs, presented by the Chinese government; the Seattle cup for deck crews; the Seattle cup for marine crews, and the Seattle cup for engineer crews, and the Seattle cup for picked crews, all presented by the city of Seattle, the San Diego, sailing launch cup, and the San Diego marine crew cup, both presented by the city of San Diego, Cal.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 21.—"There will be racing next winter at Juarez, across the Rio Grande from El Paso, and the Mexican government has appropriated $250,000 to be distributed in purses.

This statement was made yesterday by Col. Charles F. Hunt, who is interested in the project.

"The Juarez race track will be doing business before Christmas," he continued. "Young Terrarsa, son of one of the federal officials, is head of the enterprise."

Col. Hunt said he believed the Tia Juna race track project had been abandoned.

New York, June 21.—Jerome D. Travers, the national amateur golf champion, who returned from England yesterday, told why he did not get past the first round in the amateur championship of Great Britain at Muirfield.
