In the 15th Ward, this city, September 13, 1881, of pneumonia and typhoid fever, SARAH ELIZABETH, daughter of Robert C. and Louisa V. Beck; aged 2 years, 4 months and 11 days.

At Green Ranch in Potato Valley, of Epilepsy and Neuralgia, DAVID BARCLAY ADAMS, he was the son of James and Margaret Barclay Adams, born at Carron Iron Works, in Stirlingshire, Scotland, May 4th, A. D. 1814, died August 4th, A. D. 1881, being 67 years, 4 months old. He with a part of his family were on their way from Escalante to the ranch. He had eaten a hearty breakfast, was well as usual excepting the neuralgia in his face, had been walking quite a distance when he got in to ride, sat down on the seat and straightening back, his daughter looked at him and seeing something was the matter spoke to him; he was dead without a struggle or a word. So pass the righteous, peacefully away. He was a faithful and consistent Latter-day Saint. He came to the valleys in 1852; went immediately to Cedar City to labor in the Iron Works. Was the first man to produce good iron in the Territory. He leaves a large family and many friends.
