! THE midnight express for Salt Lake, which onTuesday morning was delayed six bours by the non-arrival of the Union Pacific express, had no sooner Union Pacific express, had no sooner got fairly off than it stopped again for three hours more. The switch near-est the bridge had been carelessly left open, and the engine and train, going at a pretty good speed, jumped upon the ties, the resisting effects of which stopped the train in about fifty feet. A portion of the tender was broken up and the track was isadly demoralized, but otherwise no harm was done.— Ogden Standard.
