BREVITIES.

Paris has subscribed about $8,000 for a statue to Voltaire.

One thousand fallen women are at the St. Lazare Prison, near Paris.

Cork trees are now raised in Florida from seeds procured from Portugal.

An Ohio man has named his five sons Fremont, Lincoln, Grant, Sheridan and Sherman. Is he a polygamist?

In Switzerland one who kills another is liable for the debts of the murdered man.

A large number of ornamental trees are being set out on the Thames embankment.

A Parisian makes a living by selling street dust, which he makes into knife-cleaning bricks.

A wag proposes to publish a new paper, to be called the Comet, with an original tale every week.

One hundred and twenty applications for velocipede patents have been placed on file at Washington.

Thirty-second street, New York, has a school in which the art of trimming the nails, a la Paris, is taught.

The daughter of an ex-President of a Wall street bank is clerk in a Broadway millinery establishment.

The milk of a certain cow in Cynthia, Ky., a veracious sheet says, on being lightly stirred, changes into butter.

Bismarck receives $18,000 a year as Chancellor of the North-German Confederation, and a similar salary as Prussian Foreign Minister.

The Fifth Avenue Jewish Synagogue, in New York, cost $855,000. Besides selling for $100,000, the seats are subject to a tax of five per cent.

Of the 322 students in Dartmouth College, N. H., 135 are expectant saints, and the balance—hopeless sinners—are climbing the pulpit stairs.

Five of the most skillful and determined detectives of the Paris police are intrusted with the special task of watching over the Prince Imperial.

A pick-pocket in New Orleans stole a portemonnaie containing a few dollars, from a lady's pocket, and, by accident dropped in its place a valuable diamond ring.

A monkey in the Paris garden of plants got hold of the queue of one of Burlington's mandarins, the other day, and made him howl with anguish.

Toads are sold in Paris at the rate of fifty cents a dozen. This animal is used for protection of vineyards and gardens from the ravages of insects that escape the pursuit of the birds.

Mrs. Grant could not be persuaded to be present at the inauguration of her son. She objected to being stared at by fifty thousand people, and having her appearance reported in the newspapers.

A revivalist, encountering an African, asked him, "My good man, have you found the Lord?"

Sambo replied in a surprised manner, "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?"

Twenty-nine thousand volumes were added last year to the Printed Book Department of the British Museum. The Museum library is now by far the finest in the world, and every year adds to its value.

A man in Milwaukee was imprisoned for cruelly beating his wife. Poking his nose through the cell bars, he ejaculated:

"I thank God I'm not locked up for any mean, dirty crime like getting drunk."

The leader of the war party in Athens is young Queen Olga, who, by her beauty and winning ways, has acquired great popularity, and constantly avails herself of her influence to stimulate the hatred of the Greeks against the Turks.

A very curious accident occurred on the railroad between Mergapora and Sahegonge. The noise of the engine frightened a herd of seventy elephants. One of them, instead of running away, threw himself on the rails in order to stop the monster that had such a powerful voice and huge red eyes. It was not too late to let off the steam, but the shock was so great that it threw the train off the track.

Fortunately it was a freight train. The engineer and fireman had the presence of mind to jump to the ground, but the brakeman, remaining at his post, had his leg broken.

The elephants ended by becoming accustomed to the steam, and doubtless took some lessons in the power of the locomotive.

CHARGE OF THE DRESS BRIGADE.

Half a league, half a league, half a league forward,

Right through the mire and dirt, Much to its beauty's hurt, Trailed the rich silken skirt, Half a league rearward.

Half a yard, half a yard, half a yard fully—

Hirsute and woolly, Into the liquid air— Rose up the pile of hair, From other heads sundried; While seated upon it Rode the brave bonnet— Rode, though it wondered, Curled to the right of it, Curled to the left of it, Curled to the rear of it, Curled that were plundered.

What though men shout "Oh, fie! Fortunes you've squandered;" Theirs not to make reply, Theirs but to draw or die, "Charge!" to the clerk they cry—"Charge by the hundred!"

OUR NEW

Adapted to the use of COAL and WOOD.
They combine great weight, distributed to the best advantage, with beauty of design and perfection of manufacture.
Charter Oak Cooking Stoves were first introduced to the public in the year 1852, and at once took the lead, and have ever since grown in favor, until there are now a GREATER NUMBER SOLD DAILY than any Stove in the market. Over ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND are in daily use, and we offer every stove as reference, wherever it may be found. When our new patterns were made, all recent improvements were united, and we confidently offer the
NEW CHARTER OAK AS THE
Heaviest, Best Constructed, Most Uniform and Quickest Baking Stove in the market.
The Charter Oak is the cheapest first-class Stove ever made. Twenty-eight sizes, with and without Extension Top, for WOOD and COAL.
