

SEEK RECOVERY ON CASH LOANS

John W. Ensign Wants Money From L. H. Dunning & Co.

A. W. SMITH ALSO SUES.

Former Asks Redress in Stock Transaction and Letter on Account of Money Loaned.

John W. Ensign today commenced an action against L. H. Dunning, James T. Fulton and James B. Black, doing business under the firm name of L. H. Dunning & Co., to recover $410 with interest from June 20 last and costs of suit. Ensign claims that on June 17, he borrowed of the defendants the sum of $400, payable on demand with 1 per cent a month interest, for which he pledged as security 200 shares of Yankee Con. stock, that on June 20th Dunning & Co. sold this stock without his consent and without demanding repayment of the $400 borrowed, although plaintiff tendered them $400, the amount of his indebtedness to them. On this day Ensign claims that the stock was worth $1,020, and he is suing for the difference between this amount and the amount of his indebtedness.

A similar action has been commenced against Dunning & Co. by A. W. Smith to recover $225.50 with interest from June 20, 1901, on one count and $224 with interest from June 20, 1901, on another count. Smith claims that on June 20 he borrowed $175 and on June 12 another $175, for each of which he pledged 100 shares of Century Mining stock; that on June 20 he tendered Dunning & Co. $175.50 and $176, the amounts of his loans with interest, but discovered that Dunning & Co. had sold the stock. Between this date and September 1, plaintiff claims that the stock went up to $4 a share, and that suit is to recover $225.50 and $224 with interest from June 20, which is the difference in value between his loan and the collateral pledged.

DEATH OF OGDEN GIRL.

Miss Daisy Fell Passes Away in San Francisco, California.

Shurtliff and Cushman Appointed Jury Commissioners for 1902—Prof. Stewart's Lecture.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Nov. 23.—Miss Daisy Fell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fell of this city, died in San Francisco on Thursday. Her father left for her bedside and arrived there a few hours before she died. He will arrive home with the remains tomorrow.

Miss Fell was a graduate of the High school and the Agricultural College at Logan. She was a talented musician and had a host of friends whom she won by her sunny nature.

JURY COMMISSIONERS.

Judge Rolapp has appointed L. W. Shurtliff and D. M. Cushman as the jury commissioners for 1902. It will be their duty to choose 400 names between now and the first of the year. Heretofore it has been the custom to appoint as jurors those who solicited the position, but Messrs. Shurtliff and Cushman will appoint no man who solicits the appointment.

Stewart Harris, an incorrigible boy, 13 years of age, checked today admitted to the Reform school by Judge Rolapp.

PROF. STEWART'S LECTURE.

Prof. William M. Stewart of the State university will deliver a lecture before the Weber county school teachers this morning. His theme was general school work, and the teachers paid him the closest attention.

LITTLE GIRL ASSAULTED.

Unknown Man Entices a Child Away —Police Working on Case.

There was a lively stir over at police headquarters last night when the report came in that a fendish assault had been made by some unknown wretch upon little Ethel Madsen, the five year old daughter of Eph Madsen, a laborer residing at 464 west Fourth South street.

The dastardly assault was made shortly after dark as the child was returning from a store a short distance away, where she had been sent by her parents. She was fully an hour from the time she left home until she returned. She then related to her parents an account of the crime and was at once sent to the police station and Dr. McCoy was summoned.

Dr. McCoy found that the child had been roughly treated but that the foul wretch had failed in his purpose. Detectives Sheets and Janney went immediately to the place and searched the neighborhood thoroughly but could find no trace of the fiend. They have a fairly good description of the man and propose to make every effort to apprehend him.

CHARLES B. FELT HONORED.

Seventeenth Ward Sunday School Teachers Give Him a Reception.

It was in evidence, last evening, in the Seventeenth ward meeting house, that the residents of that locality do not believe in waiting until a man dies before manifesting appreciation of his worthiness. A large assemblage of the associates and friends of Charles B. Felt assembled last evening and made it clear to him that he had won a prominent place in their esteem, because of his valuable labors, especially devoted to the interest of the ward Sunday school. Teachers, pupils, parents, Apostles John Henry Smith, Bishop Beattie, Joseph Burrows, Stake Superintendent of Sunday schools, vied with each other in recounting the good which had resulted from the wisdom, energy and religious qualities which are characteristic of Mr. Felt. Toasts, sentiments and songs interspersed the speeches. Bouquets were presented, also a handsome album containing a photo of the meeting house, with portraits of nearly all the officers, teachers and members of the Sunday school grouped in front of it, together with a state likeness of each of the officers and teachers.

C. B. Felt has recently been appointed to the office of first assistant in the State superintendency of Sunday schools, which made it necessary for him to be released from the position of superintendent of the Seventeenth ward school. The demonstration last evening showed unmistakably the respect of the people of the ward in being deprived of his valued services in this connection. This sentiment, however, was mingled with congratulations that his field of usefulness is largely expanded.

ELDERS HOLD REUNION.

Sixth Quorum Have Enjoyable Time At Sixteenth Ward Meeting House.

The Sixth quorum of Elders held a reunion last night at the Sixteenth ward meeting house. President Joseph F. Smith was in attendance, together with the presidency of the Stake and Bishopric of the ward. There were about sixty people present including the ladies and the evening was spent most enjoyably. The evening began with a song by the guests and a happy speech of welcome by Pres. Alfred Winn. This was followed by a dunt by Elder W. G. Bywater and wife and a few remarks by Pres. August M. Cannon.
The speaker took occasion to compliment the Sixth quorum of Elders, remarking upon the improvement it had made since Elder Winn was made president, until now it is one of the best quorums in the Stake. There was a song by the Abingdon Mill quartet and while the company was partaking of refreshment a photograph furnished the amusement.

President Smith made a few remarks which were highly appreciated. He spoke of the calling of the Elders and defined the functions of the Priesthood.
After the singing of the doxology the gathering came to a close with the benediction pronounced by Elder C. W.
Penrose.

Dyspepsia

What's the use of a good cook if there's a bad stomach, —a stomach too weak properly to digest what is taken into it?

The owner of such a stomach experiences distress after eating, nausea between meals, and is troubled with belching and fits of nervous headache —he's dyspeptic and miserable.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia and have suffered almost everything. I have tried many different remedies, but could get no relief until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. After the use of this medicine I could eat without distress, and today I am as well as ever, but I always keep Hood's Sarsaparilla on hand." Mrs.
J. A. Crowell, Cambridge, N. Y.

"My stomach was weak. Reading how much good Hood's Sarsaparilla had done other people, I was encouraged to try it.
My stomach soon grew stronger and now I can eat almost anything. My husband and I take Hood's for our blood in spring with good results." Mrs. A. J. Greeley, East North Yarmouth, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Cure dyspepsia, strengthen and tone all the digestive organs, and build up the whole system.

CRESCUS PASSES THROUGH UTAH

King of All Trotters Not a Handsome Specimen of Horseflesh, But Like the Singed Feline of the Story Books He Has Marvelous Action.

Salt Lake had the honor of a ten-minute visit of Crescus, king of the trotting turf today. The famous animal is now speeding on his way to Sacramento, Cal., where he will delight thousands of the race loving public by his magnificent bursts of speed. His owner, George H. Ketcham, will enter Crescus in the races at the end of next month. The great horse travels in great style. A Wells-Fargo palace car has been fitted up for his majesty with all the latest equipment for equine comfort and Mr. Ketcham thinks it none too good for him. The horse is directly in charge of Trainer Tim Murnan, although Mr. Ketcham was also on the train. It is to be regretted that the horse could not be seen on a local track. It was Mr.
Ketcham's intention to remain here for at least four days if some of the local horsemen would arrange for a race meet. This was thought of, but those who had the matter in charge finally abandoned the project. Crescus is seven years of age, a native of Ohio and has won over $100,000 in cash prizes. His owner has refused $125,000 spot cash for him. This is his last season on the racing track. The above picture was taken specially for the "News" in Denver a few days ago by Photographer H. H. Backwater and shows the famous animal just before he was harnessed for the latest trotting exhibition ever seen in Denver.

His record that day was 2:05. His fastest burst of speed is 2:02. It will take no argument to prove that he can make more claim to speed than beauty.
The man who holds the strap is Trainer Murnan.

PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING

Conrad Krebs, a prominent hop grower from Oregon, is at the Knutsford hotel. He says hop growing is the source of one of the largest revenues to the state, and the average annual output is about 20,000 bales, a bale weighing 200 pounds each. This year's price, 10 1/2 cents is due to the heavy English crop. Prices of hops are changeable, more so than many other crops.

JUVENILE.

P. C. Downey, of San Francisco, who has been looking over the old fields near Dillon, Mont., and Kommerer, Wyo., says there is every indication that the quantity of gold being found at those places. "It is of special value as a lubricant," he said, "and will last on machinery much longer than the best eastern product."

And it is no exaggeration to claim that the city has over 400,000 inhabitants.
New houses are being built as fast as the city has all the time, and what we are to do with the crowded streets is a problem which is being solved by the city fathers. Landlords are arbitrary, and frequently notify tenants that their rents are to be advanced because their landlord is getting rich. This is a big thing for San Francisco. Mr. Gilmore, literary and railroad editor of the San Francisco Bulletin, who is registered at the Knutsford hotel, Mr. Gilmore thinks the great Harrison combines will be a great thing for San Francisco, as any combination means a decrease of rates.

perous city," remarked Mr. Gilmore,
