Token of Respect.

Among the nations of antiquity, an offering of perfumes was regarded as a token of the most profound respect and homage. At the present time, a present of a box of Dr. Price's exquisite odors would not only be regarded as a token of respect but enjoyed, to the last drop, with the greatest pleasure.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, - - January 7, 1878.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank.
SALT LAKE CITY, January 7, 1878.
Buying at $1.01½. Selling at $1.02½.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Slipped.—This morning the horse of Mr. J. Y. Taggart, piano tuner, slipped and fell on the ice, and came near throwing that gentleman out of the buggy. Luckily he escaped unhurt.

Dep[ar]ture.—Hon. George Q. Cannon left this morning for Washington, to look after the interests of his constituents in Congress. He is accompanied by Mrs. Cannon.

Home Missionaries.—The home missionaries of this Stake called at the late Quarterly Conference, and who have not yet been set apart, are requested to meet at seven o'clock this evening at the house of President A. M. Cannon, in the 14th Ward.

Lectures.—This evening, Father Graves of Provo, will deliver a lecture on "Silk Culture," at the Twentieth Ward School-house, commencing at 7 o'clock.

The lecture will be repeated on Tuesday evening, at the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, and at the 7th Ward Assembly Rooms on Wednesday evening. No charge for admission.

Mortuary.

MOUNT PLEASANT CITY, Sanpete Co., Utah, Jan. 2, 1878.

Sexton's report for the year ending December 31, 1877: Males, 4; females, 9; of these adults 2, children 9.

Disease of death as reported: Diphtheria 3; kick from a cow 1; accident by drowned 1; dropsy 1; old age 2; not reported 1; still born 3.

JOHN H. STOTT, Sexton.

Accidentally Shot.—On Saturday evening, as a street car driver, on the North Ward branch of the railroad was in the act of sitting down, a small pistol in his hip pocket was accidentally discharged, inflicting a somewhat severe flesh wound. The hurt is not dangerous, but it is probably needless to state that the young man is unable to assume a sitting posture for several days to come.

New Song.—We have received a new song and chorus, "Kiss Her Rosy Cheek for Me," published by Sherman, Hyde & Co., of San Francisco. The publishers announce it as a gem. It is elegantly got up, being in very presentable form. Mr. Charles W. Stayner, of this city, is the author of both words and music. He spends an occasional hour in musical production after business hours, as a recreation, and the song under consideration is the result of one of his fanciful flights.

A Helping Hand.—Under the auspices of the Fifteenth Ward Sunday School a subscription has been started for the relief of Mr. Clement Law's three apprentices, who lost all they possessed, excepting "what they stood up in," when the trunk factory was burned. A subscription paper is in the hands of Mr. A. S. Johnson, at Mr. Cutler's commission store, Old Constitution Building, another with Mr. S. H. Reeves, at Z. C. M. I., and a third with Mr. Thomas E. Hull, at Mr. S. P. Teasdel's store.

Artistic Work.—To-day we were shown by Swaner Brothers, jewelers, a handsome walking cane. The staff is of native mountain mahogany, and the massive head is of gold from the mines of Utah. The ornamental chasing on it, done by the firm named, is most elegant, showing the cunning hand of the artist. The cane has been made to the order of Mr. Sowles, of the Howe Sewing Machine agency, who is Canada, we understand, presenting it to his father.

Messrs. Swaner Brothers are enterprising young men.

Territorial Fair.—There was a meeting of the Directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society, on Saturday evening last. Hon. Wilford Woodruff having resigned as a member of the board, William H. Rowe was elected to fill the vacancy thus created.

It was determined to have a fair next October, the necessary committees of preparation were appointed, and a premium list is now being prepared.

Fairs give a healthy stimulus to the material interests of the Territory, and it is to be hoped there will be a full representation of specimens pertaining to agriculture, horticulture, art, mechanics and manufactures.

The meeting of Saturday evening adjourned for one week.

Correspondence.

Interesting from Grouse Creek.

GROUSE CREEK,
December 27, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

The main valley up here branches off into two forks in the shape of a Y; there are some settlers in the main valley and it is settled for five miles up each fork which places us in a rather scattered condition, yet the people are alive to improvement and enterprise. The settlers on the West Fork have built a tidy log school-house, at a cost of $220, and have a day school in running order with an average daily attendance of 15 scholars, and they intend to commence a Sunday School next Sunday. Those of us on the East Fork are making improvements in different ways. We have surveyed a canal which will be cut two feet deep and six feet wide, and all the soil to be thrown on the lower side, which will carry a stream of three feet deep and six wide, with a fall of one inch to the rod. It is to be made about 10 miles long, running on the edge of good farming land from its very commencement. It is to water about 2,500 acres. There is water enough in this valley to water about two-thirds of the farming land.

We had a social dance on Christmas eve for the children and one in the evening for adults. It was conducted by Bishop Samuel Kimball, kept up till a rather late hour. The weather is mild; our first snow storm of any consequence fell Christmas night, about one inch and a half deep, but it is fast disappearing. There is a fair prospect of this valley raising a considerable amount of grain and other produce.

PHILIP PASCHETT.

Progress at Randolph.

RANDOLPH, Jan. 2nd, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

The holidays have passed off with characteristic quietness. On the afternoon of New Year's Day the Sunday school children had a dance in our new meeting house, when they received rewards for attendance and behavior, varying in value according to merit. Those not old enough to receive such honors were remembered with a liberal distribution of candies. A party was had in the evening for the benefit of the Sunday school.

On a recent visit to our ward, President Wm. Budge and counselors organized a Y. M. M. I. Association with Wm. Howard, Jun., president; G. A. Peart and Wm. Rex, counselors; I. M. Baxter, secretary, and Wm. R. Stewart, treasurer. A Deacon's Quorum was also organized.

Our co-operative store, to which has just been added a boot and shoe shop, continues to give general satisfaction to patrons and shareholders.

The day and Sunday schools and Ladie's Relief Society are in good hands and well sustained, the latter institution having rendered efficient aid in fitting out and maintaining our quota of hands on the Logan Temple. Our meetings are spirited and well attended, having frequent visits from the home missionaries who impart to the saints the teachings and spirit suitable to the times.

NORSEMAN.

A VERACIOUS WITNESS.—The Eureka, Nevada Sentinel says: The plaintiff, in a case before a recent term of the District Court, was somewhat disturbed on learning that a certain individual, whose reputation for veracity was none of the best, was to be witness for the defendant. The fellow's capacity for false swearing was notorious, and unless his integrity was shaken plaintiff's case was a "gone goose." He hied himself to a brother litigant, and asked him if he would believe the witness under oath. "No," was the reply; "you know he is a liar." "Yes." "A thief." "Yes." "Disreputable in every particular." "Yes." "Well, I want you to go on the stand and swear to your belief." The friend's countenance became troubled, and he replied: "My dear fellow, I would do you almost any favor, but you see, I have got him employed as a witness for myself next week, and I can't afford to impeach his veracity." The plaintiff sought testimony elsewhere, and the false swearer got his price from both parties
