EVENING NEWS.

Monday, - - July 17, 1882.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The regular Sunday services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints were held in the Tabernacle, yesterday afternoon, commencing at 2 p. m.

The choir sang the hymn on the 260th page,

How firm a foundation, ye Saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word.

Prayer was offered by Elder Robt. Patrick.

The choir sang the hymn on the 411th page:

We'll sing, all hail to Jesus' name,
Honor and praise we give.

The Sacrament was administered by the Priesthood of the Eleventh Ward.

Elder R. R. Irvine said he did not stand up because he thought he could instruct the people as well as some of the brethren who were present, but because it was his duty. When he departed for Europe on his mission, over two years and two months ago, he felt truly that "the weak things of the earth" were being called to preach the Gospel; but he went forth amongst the people trusting in God. While there he felt to rejoice in knowing that he was doing the work of God. He never felt better in his life than when he was traveling through the snow, preaching the word of God in his native land—Scotland, and he felt proud that he had been honored by being called on a mission to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the children of men. He advised all who were called on missions to go wherever they might be called.

Elder C. W. Penrose said there is a perfect correspondence between the Church with which we are connected and the doctrines we have embraced and the Church and doctrines established by Christ and His Apostles anciently. Jesus sent his disciples out to preach the Gospel without purse or scrip, and their "hire" was the same as that of the "ox which treadeth out the corn"—it was the food and raiment offered to them by the people to whom they ministered. In these days our Elders are sent out in the same way from the various callings and trades among us, to preach the Gospel. The men whom Jesus sent out were to proclaim the Messiah and to announce that the kingdom of heaven was at hand, and their missions were to all classes, not only to the "common people," but to the priests and teachers of the people, and they went out, as Jesus said, "as sheep among wolves." They were not only to preach, but to heal the sick and bless those who received them. In these times when the same Gospel has been restored, the Elders go out in the same manner as they did anciently, and are indeed as sheep among wolves, the greatest opposition and bitterness being manifested by the preachers of religion, as it was from the scribes and doctors of the Pharisees and other sects in the days of Jesus. When the speaker was first sent to preach the Gospel he went literally without purse or scrip or change of raiment, among people to whom this Gospel was a strange creed, and truly it was like going among so many ravenous wolves. Some might say this hostility was because of belief in plural marriage. Not so. When the speaker first went forth as a missionary plural marriage was not an established principle of the Church. He preached simply the same doctrines as were taught by the early Apostles. We claim that our religion has been revealed from heaven in this age of the world, and this being true it follows that other creeds are incorrect. This naturally creates opposition. The Catholics claim that the principles of their church were handed down directly from the Apostles of old. We proclaim that this Gospel has been revealed directly from heaven, and it follows, if our testimony is correct, that the claims of the Church of Rome are fallacious. So with the other churches. We testify that the Apostleship has been restored in this age of the world. The Roman Catholic Church claims to have held it by succession in a direct line from St. Peter. If our testimony is true then the Church of Rome has no priesthood. The other jangling and contending churches are in the same condition for they all sprang directly or indirectly out of the Church of Rome. The speaker reasoned on this subject, showing that if the Romish Church had not the true priesthood the others had none because they derived what authority they had from that Church, and if the Priesthood had continued, still they had none because the Church of Rome excommunicated them.

Our Elders, like the servants of God in the primitive Church, do not merely testify of the truth and of the revelations of God, but they promise the people that if they will receive their testimony, repent of their sins and obey the principles of the Gospel, they shall receive a testimony for themselves. And we see the results of their preaching in the great number of Saints [illegible] to these mountains annually. And what do they come for? For the things of this earth? No, they come for the fullness of the everlasting Gospel and they are willing to leave father, mother, kindred, houses and lands for the Gospel's sake. In that respect there is a little difference between this dispensation and that of the early Christian Church, for there was no gathering in that day because the Church was to continue but a short time on the earth, the powers of evil were to prevail and to "wear out" the Saints and a great apostasy was to take place. But in the last days, we read, the elect were to be gathered from "the four wind" and the house of the Lord was to be established in the tops of the mountains and all nations were to flow unto it.

The speaker gave an account of the scene described in the second chapter of Acts, when the Apostles having waited as commanded until endowed with power from on high, were all together with one accord, that is agreed, of one heart and mind, in one place. Then their prayers were powerful, they received the endowment, spake in other tongues, and were qualified to preach the gospel. Through the testimony of Peter the hearers were stirred up to faith and in answer to their question, "What shall we do?" Peter commanded them to repent and be baptized for the remission of sins, with the promise that they should receive the Holy Ghost, the same spirit by which he and all the prophets had spoken. Elder Penrose went on to show the nature of true baptism, the order of confirmation by the laying on of hands conferring the Holy Ghost, the effects, fruits and gifts of this Spirit, as enjoyed by the Saints and recorded in the New Testament, from which he made many quotations, giving chapter and verse. This gospel, he said, was the one plan of salvation, and this was the gospel which our Elders were sent out to preach. It was attended by the same spirit as in days of old and produced similar effects. It was this that Bro. Irvine and other servants of God had been preaching, and it would continue to find simple, honest people among all nations, touch their hearts, kindle faith within them, and through obedience they would come to a knowledge of the truth. The speaker referred to the large immigration of the present season and declared that the gathering of the elect was one of the signs of the coming of the Son of man; that it would go on in spite of all opposition, and the way would be prepared for the advent of the Redeemer to reign as King of Kings. He called in the name of the Lord, upon all who had not obeyed the gospel, to repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus for the remission of sins, and promised them the Holy Ghost as the result of obedience, bore a strong testimony to the truth of the latter-day work, and predicted the establishment of Zion and the reign of righteousness and peace.

The choir sang an anthem.

Benediction by Elder G. G. Bywater.

Mr. James O. Neville, the general import and export agent of the Allen Line, and general Dominion shipping agent, of 539 Dorchester street, Montreal, Canada, says: "While on a late exhibition trip to the States, my old foe, the rheumatism, attacked me, and gave me a rough siege. Having read the endorsement of well known people who had used St. Jacobs Oil I determined to give it a trial. In two weeks time I was as well as ever, and fully able to attend to my business."

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from any other undesirable shade to brown or black, as desired. It is easily applied, being in one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.
