BREVITIES.

Motto for the married—never despair.

Hiram Ray, at Rockport, Michigan, tried to cut off his head with a hatchet.

The Canada customs department has prohibited the circulation of indecent papers.

Hungary has a new sect calling itself the Nazarenes. It seems to be similar to the religion of the Shakers, without the shaking.

Only five divorces were granted in Chicago on Monday. The papers regarded it as rather a bad day for "domestic felicities."

A verdict has been rendered against the proprietors of the Metropolitan Hotel, New York, for the value of property stolen therein from a guest.

The London fire brigade recently spent several hours hunting up an aurora borealis which was supposed to be a great fire in the suburbs.

Cactus in Arizona Territory have been discovered which grow forty, and even fifty feet in height, resembling a huge cigar, and bearing a delicious fruit.

Montana is favored with plans for a penitentiary, which if built according to the specifications, will cost $120,000. A nice little sum that to start a home for the "unhappily disreputable."

Coyote is a new town in Colorado. Its inhabitants are said to live in a train of cars, standing on a side track, although they have one tent for the sale of whiskey.

Noble, the inventor of nitro-glycerine, has recently announced a new blasting powder, which he calls dynamite, and states it to be a solid of the same power, less danger, and greater facility for use than nitro-glycerine.

A lady and her daughter do all the work in the printing office in Ossipee, New Hampshire.

England uses 220,000 pounds of paper annually; France 195,000 pounds; and the United States 400,000 pounds.

Florida is successful in raising oranges. In one orchard of about one hundred and fifty trees, three bore an aggregate of 11,900 oranges.

It is estimated that not less than $10,000 a week is paid in Boston to witness indecent stage dancing. Hard times in the Puritan city.

How many fine harts serve as a cover for worthless heads, and how many plaited shirt-bosoms cover a hollow cavern where a heart should be lodged.

A young lady in Boston a few days ago, while waiting at a party, was "backing" in the dance, when her foot caught in her dress, and she fell with great force on the back of her head, becoming instantly insensible. The fall caused four large pins which were fastened in her chignon to pierce her skull and brain.

Boston has started a "Marriage Fund Association," having for its object the giving of a dower to members on their marriage; a premium on the birth of children; and gives essential aid to its members desiring to secure a wife or a husband.

WOMEN DOCTORS.—In Philadelphia, six women physicians return incomes ranging from $2,000 to $10,000 a year. In Orange, New Jersey, there is another, whose annual income ranges between $10,000 and $15,000. In this city, there is one whose income is rarely less than $50,000 a year. Some of these physicians are successful surgeons as well as capable medical practitioners.

SHREWD JUVENILE.—One day, a little girl, about five years old, heard a certain preacher of a certain denomination praying most lustily, tell the roof rang with the strength of his supplications. Turning to her mother, and beckoning the maternal ear to a speaking distance, she whispered: "Mother don't you think if he lived nearer to God he wouldn't have talked so loud?"
