

THE DANCING SEASON.

Prof. Christensen Speaks of Re- fining Influences That Ought to Surround It.

Now that the winter has signified its willingness to remain with us, renewed interest in the dancing art is being taken by society folk.

sen's Dancing academy was today approached by the "News" and questioned in regard to the business which the mention of his name suggests.

reasons the Christensens had in moving to their new hall on Pierpont street and one glance at the present suite of parlors and the capacious hall is they could to overcome this element, and raise the standard of the dancing art. If our different amusements committees throughout the city would join in this effort to discountenance cheap and questionable places of amusement, the young people would not be subjected to association with those of a rowdy disposition.
