

THE EVENING NEWS.

Monday, February 7, 1870.

our wives and children to a level with your civilization; to be forced to countenance infidelity in our midst, and have your professional artists advertise their deeds of murder among us to swarm, as you do, with pimps and harlots and their parasites, to have gambling, drunkenness, and all the pestiferous effects of debauchery; to be involved in debt and crime, forced upon us to despise ourselves, to be despised by our wives, children and friends, and to be despised and cursed of God, in time and in eternity. This you offer us and your religion to boot. It is true you tell us you will "ban" it, but your bans are a myth; you would open the flood gates of crime and debauchery, infidelity, drunkenness and gambling, and practically tie them up with a strand of spider's web. You cannot stop them. If you would you have not the power. If you have, and prefer purity, honor, and a clear conscience, and our motto to-day is, as ever has been, and I hope ever will be, the kingdom of God or nothing.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—Elders E. L. Sloan and John Taylor addressed the congregation in the morning.

In the afternoon, Elder Theodore Curtis, a returned missionary, from Bishop Harrington, from American Fork, and Elder Walford Woodruff occupied the time.

THEATRICAL.—On Saturday night "The Duke's Motto" was repeated successfully, the various characters being again well sustained and the prominent scenes being excellently arranged and played.

This evening Mr. Graham takes his benefit, as we have before announced. An eccentric comedian Mr. Graham has made himself deservedly very popular. "Victims," the piece first presented this evening, has been played here before, but it is a good while since, and it is one of those comedies that could be repeated frequently without growing tedious. It has some very laughable scenes, among which that one where Joshua presents the strong-minded Miss Crane with a pair of pants, perhaps the most amusing.

The song by Mr. Harris after the comedy, "Carpenter's Song," is a laughable thing, and is new here.

The farce is also new, and will include in the cast Mr. Graham, Mrs. M. A. Rourke and Mrs. DeBar. The bill throughout is an excellent comedy, and an appropriate one.

Professor Careless is underlined for a benefit on Wednesday night.

LECTURES.—We understand that the 10th Ward in this city commenced its lecture season about two or three weeks since, and intend to give weekly lectures through the winter. At the 10th Ward School-house, tomorrow Tuesday evening, Elder James McKnight is to deliver a lecture upon "The Pacific Railroad, and its effects."

We would be gratified at hearing of every Ward following the example of the 10th and 10th Wards in this respect, and thus open up a source of intelligence and benefit for the citizens. There are number of brethren in this city, who, upon a little solicitation, would get themselves ready to occupy a short time now and again upon some topic that would edify their fellows, and thus help on the cause of knowledge and truth. We are ever ready and willing to give publicity to the same, if their respective committees will only notify us of when, where and what these free lectures are to be.

WE ARE GLAD TO HEAR IT.—The wires brought us the following dispatch this morning:

New York, 7.
The Mormon mission is being pushed forward with all the energy possessed by its leaders in the vicinity of Freehold, Fairbairn, Center City and Hempstead, on Long Island, during the earlier part of the week, favorable accounts of Gen. Burton's work were given, out-door meetings for preaching were held three times a day. More preachers have been sent to the mission from Utah, and are looked for today. Elders and priests are travelling and preaching in every village and town situated within a circuit of seventy miles of Freeport. At Williamsburg, yesterday, Elder Jackson, from Utah, preached to a large congregation.

NOTICE.—All members of the 2nd Quorum of Seventies are requested to report their names and places of residence to R. R. Anderson, President Young's office, before the 1st of March, 1870.

MICHIGAN.—We have received a communication from Elders W. H. Lee and G. D. Grant, from which we learn that they have been preaching in the States of New York and Michigan, and expect to gather a few saints from those parts in the spring. At the date of writing—January 23d—they were both well and were then at Kalamazoo, Michigan.

FIRE.—Last evening, between seven and eight o'clock, the residents of the 2nd Ward were startled by the unusual alarm of "fire." Immediately there was a rush in the direction whence the cry proceeded, and a double house, the residence of an old couple named Rickard. It was found that the bed and other articles in the house were in flames. Brother Rickard and his wife were nowhere to be found; but measures were immediately taken to extinguish the flames, and, with great difficulty, a portion of the roof and the bare walls of the building were saved; but every article of furniture in the dwelling was consumed. This is a very unfortunate event for the poor old people, and the Female Relief Society of the Ward, to which we are informed Mrs. Rickard belongs, will have a fine opportunity for the exercise of their humane exertions.

"THE TRANS-ATLANTIC."—This is the title of a new weekly magazine, published at Philadelphia, at four dollars per annum. It consists, wholly, of choice selections from foreign literature. Each number contains thirty-two pages, stitched in a neat wrapper, and, except on the latter, it is entirely free from advertisements. It is sold at ten cents a number, and can be obtained at Dwyer's News Depot, East Temple St.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.—We understand that a bill passed the House, on Saturday, giving the suffrage to the women of Utah.

MEETING AGAINST ANNEXATION.—The bill recently presented by Senator Trumbull for the annexation to Idaho Territory of all that portion of Utah north of the 41st degree of latitude has called forth a remonstrance from the citizens of Farmington, who held a mass meeting on the 3rd inst., on the subject. Hon. H. C. Haight was elected chairman of the meeting, Jacob Miller, Secretary. Speeches were made by the Chairman, also by Col. Stayner, Job Welling and Thomas S. Smith, Esq., setting forth the objections, to the measure proposed by the bill. These objections were subsequently embodied in a memorial to Congress, which in less than half an hour was signed by 27 of the citizens. The following is a copy of the MEMORIAL.

To the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled:—Whereas a memorial has been presented to the United States Senate, purporting to be from the inhabitants of Utah, asking for that portion of Utah Territory lying north of latitude 41, to be attached to Idaho. Your memorialists would therefore respectfully remonstrate against said petition, and against any action of Congress tending to the division of the Territory in the manner indicated therein.

We removed to and settled this Territory and reclaimed its deserts expressly for the purpose of living under its laws and institutions, which extend freedom of faith and every constitutional right, with low taxes and a wise and judicious expenditure of the same, both in county and Territorial administrations. And we do most heartily protest against being transferred like serfs of semi-barbarous lands from a Territorial government of our choice to that of our golden browed neighbors.

The laws of Idaho are particularly adapted to a mining community, while those of Utah are strictly in accordance with our agricultural habits.

The inhabitants of Davis, Morgan, Weber, Box Elder, Cache and Rich counties are substantially farmers and are heart and soul in concert and action with the residue of the people of Utah, to which they belong, and to transfer them without their consent to another jurisdiction by legislative power, would be an arbitrary act totally unbecoming the legislators of a free and constitutional government.

The last annual message of the acting governor declares Utah to be free from debt, which statement in fact is only a repetition of the statements of his predecessors for years, and we have every reason to believe that this change would increase our taxes more than double, and burden us with a debt that we had no hand in creating, and extend over us laws which we have had no voice in enacting, and cause us to associate with a people whom we like very well as neighbors but not as rulers.

We sincerely doubt whether any man who has reclaimed an acre of desert land in this Territory or intends to remain a permanent resident desires this change. Your favorable action on this is earnestly solicited and as in duty bound your memorialists will ever pray.

MAN PROPOSES BUT GOD DISPOSES.—We find the following item going the rounds of our exchanges, no doubt, published for the consolation of the Saints.

"The Committee on Territories of the House of Representatives will report a bill authorizing the President to send enough of the army to Utah to enforce the laws against polygamy, and, if sufficient force could not be spared from other duty, then that he shall except into the service a sufficient number of volunteers to accomplish that purpose; and the property of convicted Mormons, or those who have fled from the Territory, can be leased or sold for the temporary relief of such of their families as are left destitute by breaking up the Mormon system."

That's how it is to be done; We feel thankful we have been told before hand, for we at any rate have become acquainted with the intention, if we never have to endure the realization thereof.

When very young we used to be amused with the story of a certain Simple Simon who among other exploits endeavored to catch birds by putting a little salt on their tails; we fancy the framers of the bills to entrap the people of Utah, will be just as successful in catching "Mormons" by their legislation, as Simon was in catching birds with his salt. As the old saying runs "those who live the longest will see the most," but we have no hesitation in stating our opinion that those who expect to lease or purchase the homes of "convicted" or absent "Mormons," will show greater simplicity than ever Simon manifested, and if they live to the age of Methuselah they will be disappointed in the realization of such hopes.
