

CONFERENCE ON VREELAND BILL

Chairman Fowler Challenges the New Apostle of Finance And Currency.

MAKES FLAT CONTRADICTION.

Author of Bill Said First Nat'l Bank of Atlanta Approved It, and Fowler Showed Was No Such Bank.

Washington, May 15.—The Vreeland bill, as amended by the senate, went to the house at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon and immediately was called up by Mr. Burrows (Ohio), who moved to suspend the rules, disagree to the amendments and ask a conference.

In the opinion of Mr. Williams, the majority leader, the bill as amended by the senate was infinitely worse than the original bill. He urged his colleagues to vote against the motion to disagree to the senate amendments, saying that if the motion was lost the bill would have to go to the banking committee. The Democrats applauded Mr. Fowler (N. J.) when he read a letter containing a statement by Mr. Vreeland of Atlanta, that the First National Bank of Atlanta, a bank with $1,000,000 capital, supported the Vreeland bill. The letter was from Mr. McCord of Atlanta, who denied that there was any First National bank in that city, nor was there any bank in the state with a greater capital than $500,000.

Referring further to Mr. Vreeland's statement that he had 40 other such banks, Mr. Fowler said:

"I challenge this new apostle of finance and currency from the hopyards and haystacks of Cattaraugus county to file in the Record tomorrow those letters."

Mr. Williams inquired if it were not true that a minority bill was specifically designated by number in the rules, and also if Mr. Burton did not know that the Williams bill contained a clerical error to correct which no opportunity was afforded.

"It was," replied Mr. Burton, "a bill that you had until the month of March to perfect."

Democratic leaders greeted his statement that he had no doubt if Mr. Williams had explained the error to the house a chance would have been given to perfect it.

"I ask that now," demanded Mr. Williams, "but Mr. Burton said he came too late, and he proceeded to hold Mr. Williams up to ridicule for advancing such an excuse."

The vote resulted: Yeas, 150; nays, 147. "Present," 6, and the bill was sent to conference.

The speaker announced the names of Messrs. Vreeland (N. Y.), Burton (Ohio), Weeks (Mass.), Republicans and Glass (Va.) and Judd (La.), Democrats, as the members on the part of the house.

IT REACHED THE SPOT.

Mr. E. Humphrey, who owns a large general store at Omega, O., and is president of the Adams County Telephone Co., as well as of the Home Telephone Co. of Pike County, O., says of Dr. King's New Discovery: "It saved my life once. REV. GEO. CLARK COX DEPOSED FROM PRIESTHOOD

Boston, May 15.—Rev. George Clarke Cox of Cambridge, formerly pastor of an Episcopal church in Cincinnati, has been formally deposed from the priesthood by Bishop Vincent of southern Ohio. At the time of the trial of Rev. Almon S. Crapney of Rochester, N. Y., who was convicted of holding religious views not countenanced by the Episcopal church, Rev. Mr. Cox expressed sympathy with the Rochester program, and endorsed some of its statements. An effort was made to present Mr. Cox on trial but was not successful.

Last year Rev. Cox came to Cambridge, but has not been in charge of any parish there. Recently he decided that there was little respect of a reconciliation of his views with all the doctrines of the creed, and he accordingly notified Bishop Vincent that he could not conscientiously continue as a clergyman of the church.

BAD ATTACK OF DYSENTERY CURED.

"An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he would be confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told to keep it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured." Says M. J. Leach, druggist of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by all druggists.

TOUCHING STORY OF CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN

London, May 15.—In the Nation today John Redmond tells a touching story of the late Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's determination on behalf of home rule for Ireland. The last time he visited the house of commons Sir Henry told Mr. Redmond that it was his wish to pen himself to sleep, up the approaching home rule debate. The next day the premier was stricken with the illness that eventually proved fatal. The debate was fixed for Feb. 17 and as Mr. Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, also was indisposed, Mr. Redmond asked Mr. Asquith, as acting leader in the house to postpone the debate. Mr. Asquith declined, but Sir Henry, hearing of this, sent word that unless the debate was postponed he had made up his mind, whatever the cost, to leave his bed and go to the house of commons and participate in the discussion. Thereupon, Mr. Redmond says, Mr. Asquith yielded and postponed the debate to March 20.

ARABS INFLECT LOSS ON FRENCH FORCES

Algiers, May 15.—The French force under Gen. Veyr lost 13 men killed and 65 wounded during a fierce engagement yesterday with the fanatical Arabs. The engagement lasted the greater part of the day and Boudouille, the stronghold of Mula Haszen was bombarded. Three officers are among the French killed. The Arab losses are described as heavy.

This engagement was preceded May 15, by a battle in the vicinity of Beni Ouzin, which also lasted all day. The French force was composed of infantry, cavalry and artillery and it drove the Arabs in the direction of Boudouille.

FORGER OF CHECKS UNDER ARREST

F. H. Tayler Worked States of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Wisconsin, Texas and Missouri.

HOTEL KEEPERS CHIEF PREY.

In Each New Town Had a New Name—Checks Ranged from $50 To $75 Each.

Chicago, May 15.—After six months' traveling about the country, during which it is alleged he passed more than 150 worthless checks, aggregating $10,000, Frank H. Tyler, 25 years of age, of Western Springs, Ills., was arrested yesterday.

In his wanderings Tyler has covered a good part of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Wisconsin, Texas and Missouri. Hotel keepers were his chief prey, and he left a trail of forged paper behind him.

Outside of Chicago, where the greater number of the forged checks were passed, Tyler represented himself as a traveling salesman to the unsuspecting country landlord. In nearly every town he visited he had a new name.

The amount of the forged checks ranged from $50 to $75, and in most instances were passed upon hotel keepers in payment of his bill.

It is charged by the detectives that Tyler would write letters to himself, addressed to towns that he visited, and enclosing the fraudulent checks in these letters. Upon the arrival at a hotel he would ask if there was any mail for him, and the clerk or landlady would hand over the letter which Tyler himself had written. He would open the missive, letting the check drop out on the counter to attract the attention of the man behind the register. It is said, most of the checks and drafts were drawn on the Hanover National bank of New York, and the Western Trust & Savings bank of Davenport. The latter refuses to tell how he obtained possession of the blank checks, but the police say he stole them from Chicago lithographing firms.

JAMES J. HILL THINKS CROP OUTLOOK HOPEFUL

New York, March 16.—James J. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern, who delivered an address on Thursday before the convention of governors in Washington, returned to this city yesterday. He referred hopefully to the crop outlook in the northwest, saying: "Everyone is looking forward hopefully to the time when business conditions will resume normal aspects. The crop outlook is good. In some parts of the west the conditions are the most promising in years. In the northwest the seeding is just being finished, but the conditions under which it has been done are the best in years." Mr. Hill did not care to discuss the LIFE SAVING WORK.

In Past Year Society Rescued 578 Persons from Drowning.

New York, May 15.—The annual report of the American Life Saving society shows the society has 329 life saving stations, manned by 4,200 men. They rescued during the past 12 months 578 persons from drowning. In this state the most efficient work was done in this city and along Long Island waters.

In this city 165 life saving stations were established and equipped, 28 planted along the Long Island shore, 10 at Albany and Troy; eight along the Hudson and seven in other cities. About 400 persons were rescued in this state.

AN ART SCANDAL.

New York, May 15.—An art scandal began early this month with the withdrawal of three paintings from the Corcoran Art gallery at Washington, D. C., led to the arrest of William Clausen, an east Thirty-fifth street art dealer today.

The pictures withdrawn were part of the collection of 50 presented to William Clausen by the Corcoran Art gallery. They were withdrawn by the donor after much gossip attacking their authenticity.

Clausen was arrested on an order granted by Supreme Court Justice Davis in a suit brought by Evans to recover $6,650 paid for the three paintings. Bail was fixed at $2,500. Clausen maintains that the paintings are genuine.

TO QUIET RUSSIAN FEARS.

St. Petersburg, May 15.—To quiet Russian apprehensions in the matter of the mobilization of Turkish troops in Armenia, Turkey has invited Russia to send two members of the general staff of the army through the village of Erzerum to satisfy themselves that the ports have no hostile intentions against Russia. The present alarm at the ports is due to the despatch of a few days ago of several companies of the Caucasian field artillery to Kars and the report that Russia purposes to hold the regular summer maneuvers in the vicinity of the Turkish frontier.

REMARKABLE CARRYING POWER OF A TORNADO

Waldo, Ark., May 15.—A remarkable example of the carrying power of a tornado was evidenced when a number of papers dated at Gilliam, La., 100 miles south of Waldo, were picked up on the streets here.

Gilliam was visited by a tornado on Wednesday which virtually wiped the town off the map, wrecking all buildings of any consequence and on the evening of the tornado a shower of boxes, small trunks and rubbish fell at Waldo. The following morning amidst the rubbish, the papers from Gilliam, Louisiana, of a check dated at Gilliam, which had been paid, and an invoice of goods that had been received at Gilliam by a merchant, were found and the papers from the storm which wrecked the little village in Louisiana, passed over this place, though so high as to do no damage.
