The retreat of Kuropatkin has evision at the front and the reports rethived are meager and incomplete.

The military expert of the Novoe Vremya says the chief question of the moment is whether Kuropatkin will succeed in collecting a his forces from Liao Yang and effecting a retirement to Mukden in view of the flanking position taken up by the Japanese.

"Reinforcements," the paper says, "are undoubtedly arriving at Yental from the north. Our main hope lies in the possible exhaustion of the Japanese after the bloody and unprecedently long and severe fighting which practically continued day and night from Aug. 24 to Sept. 3.

Like his subjects, the emperor has taken Kuropatkin's defeat greatly to heart but the preservation of the army organization has been a great relief and his answer to the battle of Liao Yang will be the mobilization of two more army corps. So far as can be learned the corps. So far as can be learned the emperor shows no disposition to blame Kuropatkin.

The accounts of the battle published in the newspapers here are very incom-plete. Some of the papers evidently have not yet awakened to the full force the disaster, but without exception they try to pur a brave face on the situation. There is not the slightest suggestion of yielding. The cry of the papers is that the war must go on until Russia is victorious, if nor this year, then next year.

On Aug. 31 the shalling commenced at daylight from all sides, but th Russian infantry pressed forward. Late that afternoon the news came that Kuroki was threatening the railroad at Yen Tai and the Russians com-menced to retire, enabling the Japanese oring up two batteries and enniac the Russian forge along the railroad.

During the night the transport moved into Liao Yang.

INNER POSITION ATTACKED.

On Sept. I the Russians retreated from their main position which formed a circle around the city, while the transport crossed the river. At coclock the Japanese succeded in placing two guns in position, and shelled the railroad station, resulting in many casualties. At the same time the Japanese infantry attacked the inner Russian position, but were repuised. In heavy guns and used shimose powder to shell the Russian town. #### AS VIEWED IN LONDON.

Looks Like a Case of War to the Bitter End.

London, Sept. 5 .- Careful inquiries in official and diplomatic quarters here to-day established the fact that no hope prevalls of the termination of the war at this moment as a result of the ser-ies of victories obtained by the Japan ese at Liao Yang. There has been no interchange of official views by the neutral European governments. liscussion has occurred has been entirely personal and has led to no results even to the extent of paving the way to mediation. There is no thought of international intervention, the Associated Press has learned, nor can there be any mediation without the consent of both parties, and Russia, it is stated emphatically, does not flud the momen opportune to accept the good offices of any power, Japan, on the other hand, known to be less discontented with the present situation and would be willing to enter upon peace negotiations in Russia feels, according to statements made in Russian diplomatic circles here, that she cannot afford to accept peace until she has completely vindi cated her military prestige, thereby reassuring her influence in central and tar eastern Asia.

CZAREVITCH RIDDLED. Dismantled Russian Cruiser Presents a Very Sorry Spectacle.

Tsing Tau, Sept. 5, (4 p. m.)-A corespondent of the Associated Press accompanied geveral Italian naval officers upon an inspection today of the disnantled Russian cruiser Czarevitch, which was in the naval fight with Admiral Togo's first off Port Arthur on Aug. 10, after which she sought refuge it this port, where she was subsequentdismantled.

At first sight the Czarevitch seems to be a total wreck, but on further ex-amination this appearance was found to be due to the immense quantities of debris which had not been cleared

The amoke stacks of the battleship are riddled. In one of them is a hole if feet by 12. The bridge of the battle ship is completely wrecked. The large guns were struck repeatedly, but they were not damaged. The Japanese profectiles made two holes below the 'zarevitch's water line, but these were asily stopped up. The finely panelled vood finishings in the officers' quarters were badly splintered. No fires started board the Russian battleship during the engagement.

The general opinion of those who made a close inspection was that the Conrevitch was far from incapacitated. ind that she was capable of inflicting heavy damage upon the enemy had she remained in the fight. She had plenty of ammunition and coal on board. Her electrical steering year was shot away, but the hand and steam gears, with power for the latter, were t damaged.

Russian naval officers, when questioned regarding the reported court martial of Rear Admiral Prince Ouks tomsky for having disobeyed the order not to return to Port Arthur, said that the last order he signalled in the bartie of August 10 was: "Remember the order of the emperor: do not return to

WILL REMAIN IN CHINA.

Shaighal, Sept. 5.- The crews of the Russian cruiser Askeid and the torpedo boat destroyer Grosovol, which took refuge here after the naval battle Port Arthur of August 10 and which subsequently were dismantied, will remain in China until the close of the war. They will be divided and sent to Tien Tsin, Chefoo, Hankow, Shaighai and Foochow, the treaty ports where there are Russian consulates.

It has now been learned that the Askold had an unusual supply of amnunition on board when she came into this port. This amounted to 180 rounds for each of her large guns and a plentiful supply for her small guns,

IMPERIAL UKASE.

Meets With Favor in Russian Pro-And Anti-Jewish Press.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 5, 3:40 p. m --The imperial ukase, extending the rights of residence and to engage in commerclai and industrial pursuits to the nigher class of educated Jews meets with favor both in the pro and anti-Jewish press. The Navosta as spokes-man for the Jews, halls it together, with the speech of Prince John Obolensky, governor general of Finland, declaring that it is the purpose of Russia not to destroy Pinnish rights, as meeting in a tranquilizing style the two burning questions—the treatment of the Jews and the frontier problem. It says the ukase ends the intricate and vexatious restrictions against the Jews in-troduced by Gen, Ignatieff, when minister of the interior 1882 and concluding with expressing the hope that it will be followed by the removal of the restrictions, which have cut off the Jews form higher education.

The Novoe Vremya, anti-Jewish, in calling attention to the opening words of the ukase, "having found it just to introduce certain changes prior to a general revision of the laws affecting Jews," says it shows the privilege now conferred are but the commencement of the removal of various restrictions on the Jewish race and expresses the hope that the Jews in their turn will demonstrate their ability to gradually assimilate themselves with the native population and not make the privileges conferred on them the means of op-pressing the common people, adding: Persons who enjoy authority among the Jews should exert all their influin converting their co-religionists into worthy citizens."

of Meklenburg-Schwerin, whose betrothal to the Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany was announced last night, is a tall slight girl, light haired and brown eyed. Although she could scarcely be called pretty, she has a vivid complexion and is of spiritely demeanor. The only time she and the crown prince had been seen together in night was a few steriling. public was a few evenings ago. The crown prince had called on her and her mother at the Kaiserhof hotel, just be-fore they left for home. After talking with them for an hour the crown prince took them to the station in an automobile and found that the train lid not start for an hour. He then asked them to drive around the city and with them went through the principal streets which started the first talk of an engagement. It is impossiie to say whether it is a love match not. Strong dynastic reasons for the marriage exist. Only once during the last century, in the case of Frederick III has a Prussian king taken wife except from a German princely house. The emperor desires to bring the Cumberland, Danish and Nether ands courts into closer relations with the grand court. The Duchess Cecilian brother the grand duke of Mekelburg-Schwerkin, married this June the Princess Alexandria, second daughter of the Duke of Cumberland, a sister of the

Significant Resolutions to Pass at

Congress at Leeds, England. Leeds, Eng., Sept. 5 .- The thirty-seventh annual trades union congress opened here today under the presidency of Richard Bell, M. P., general secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants and chairman of the preliminary committee on the trades union congress. Nearly 500 delegates, ## representing a million and a half of working people, were present.

Politicians are much interested in the decision of the congress on a resolution regarding parliamentary representa-tion, which will be introduced by the poller makers and iron ship builders

The resolution follows: "That this congress is strictly of the opinion that the time has arrived for all trade unionists to be represented at the rades union congress and upon the labor representation committee in or-der that the forces of trade unionism can become more closely combined for political action, to remedy the injus-tices labor is now suffering from."

HERRERA THE FAVORITE. Odds in Butte Today Are 10 to 7 On the Mexican.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 5.—Aurelio Her-era and Battling Nelson weighed in at 10 o'clock this morning for their 30 round bout at the arena of the Mon-tana Athletic club. Each made the weight easily, the Mexican being a tri-dle under 130 pounds. Both appeared to be in the pink of condition

The betting here is still 10 to 7 on Herrera and thousands of dollars will change hands on the fight. Butte sports are backing the Mexican, while there s plenty of Nelson money from outside.

Wells might easily have been nearer the head of the cclumn had it not been for his card to the public avowing that he would not enter into a fight for the nomina-

Meanwhile Democrats all over the state are looking this way and are becoming more or less jubilant over what they expect will be the most important and hopeful convention the party has held in years.

LARGELY FOR MOYLE. That is the Complexion of the Cache County Delegation.

Logan, Cache Co., Sept. 3 .- The Demcratic county convention passed off this afternoon without a hitch or a jar. Hon. Moses Thatcher was made temporary chairman and responded with one of his characteristic speeches. which was well received and roundly applauded. F. K. Nebeker was made permanent chairman. In his speech he thought that the seeds of disintegration now bearing fruit in the Republican ranks was a mark of divine justice and evidenced success for the Democratic ticket all along the line this fall. The convention then proceeded to business and named the following delegates to the state convention: Samuel Oldham, Bradley, A. B. Ruse, Thomas Griffin, Robert Render, I. C. Thoresen, C. F. Olsen, J. H. Edwards, A. J. Barber, Wesley Pacques, H. G. Hayball, J. M. Blair, Edw. Hansen, Moses Thatcher, Edwin Peak, L. S. Cardon, F. K. Nebeker, C. H. Hart, George W. Adams, W. L. As soon as this work was completed a motion was made to adjourn, thus shutting off any effort to have the delegation instructed to work for either candidate for secretary of state. The complexion of the delegation on the gubernatorial nomination is thought to be largely for Moyle.

ANOTHER KING INTERVIEW. Tells Washington Newspaper

Parker Has Many Western Friends,

"The Post quoted me as to political conditions in Utah the other day with extreme mildness," said ex-Congressman William H. King of Salt Lake at the Raleigh. "I am here to declare my vellef in the most emphatic way that our state is going to record itself on the side of Democracy. The Republicans are badly torn up by factional strife, and they have named a man for governor who will note create any enthusiasm for the ticket, because he is scarcely known to the voters. The Democrats of Utah are thoroughly anited, and will put up an aggressive ampaign.

"An impression seems to prevail in the east that Judge Parker has but a seble following in the Western States. Never was there a greater error. Not only is he well known, but he is regarded as an ideal candidate, and as the centest progresses, it will be seen that his strength will be manifested in every western state. Our section is not wholly inhabited by the 'hurrah boys, 'whoop-'em-up' style of citizen. We have sober-minded, thoughtful men who admit the qualities of prudence

MUSIC AND SERMON.

Former by Prof. McClellan, Latter by Elder Penrose at Tabernacle. There were two organ recitals yes-erday in the Tabernacle, one at 11:30 a. m. and the other at 4 p. m., the former being arranged specially for the entertainment of visiting Knights Templar. Both were largely attended and much enjoyed and at the close Prof. McClellan was the recipient of many compliments.

At the afternoon recital Elder Charles W. Penrose made a short address, holding spellbound his auditors for a period of ball an hour. Elder Penrose explained away many of the misconceptions concerning "Mormonism" and assured those present that they had nothing to car from the people of Utah, who were God fearing, law abiding class of citizens. The speaker invited an investigation of the "Mormon" religio nd expressed the conviction that those who would do so with an honest heart would be brought to a knowledge of its divinity. The program rendered at the recital was as follows.

"The Lost Chord" ... (a) Communion in G. (requested) ...... Batiste "Canzonetta" ..... Godard (c) Old Melody .... . C. W. Penrose ermon C. W. Penrose

M. I. CONVENTION.

Young People of Granite Stake Meet In Conference.

The Young Men's and Young Ladjes' Mutual Improvement associations of Grantle stake held their convention yesterday in the stake tabernacle, officers' meetings being held in the morning and afternoon, and a general con-joint session in the evening. The ses-sions were well attended and much en-joyed and the program rendered was of a most interesting character and pertained particularly to the work of the young people the coming winter. The evening meeting was addressed by Mrs. Mattie H. Tingey, Miss Sarah Edding-ton, Elder Nephi L. Morris and Presi-dent John R. Winder, all of whom offered words of encouragement to the young people and pointed out how they could be successful in the conduct of their associations.

PLENTY OF KNIGHTS.

City Crowded Both Yesterdey and Today-Special Organ Recitals.

The Knights Templar crowded in yesterday, train after train, and filled the hotels to overflowing, while the street car ompany did a big business carrying sightseers over town. There were two organ recitals in the Tabernacic to please the visitors, and the galleries were entirely filled at the regular Saturday afternoon recital. The visiting Masons were all delighted with the Taberbacle organ, and reports of its excellence are being carried all over the United States.

The most notable organization to reach the city yesterday, was the Oriental Commandery of Cleveland, with 140 people. They put up at the Knutsford, and went over the Lucin cut-off in the evening. There will now be no more westbound knights; but in 10 days there will be an eastward stream of them coming this way and the experiences of the past 10 days
