

COUNTY CHAIRMEN HUSTLING VOTES

Last Chance to Register Closes
With the Registration Offices
This Evening.

BIG GROWTH IN THE TOTAL

The Books, It Is Claimed, Contain
Names of 40,000 Qualified Voters
In Salt Lake County.

Have you registered yet? If you have not, and this matter has not been called to your attention forcibly by district workers with carriages available to haul you to the polls, then it is because you have escaped the 900 Republican workers, the 300 Democratic workers, and the 600 odd "American" workers, all out in the field in the hope of driving the unregistered vote to the registration offices. There is still a final hour for work this afternoon, and when the offices close tonight the chance to register closes with them.

A great surprise may greet every single voter on the morning after election. And, whoever may win, the surprise will not doubt be equally welcome to all. It will be at the size of the total vote.

Not many elections ago, if Salt Lake county's competing parties split up 20,000 votes between them they thought they were doing well. In the last election they prepared their estimates on the basis of splitting up 20,000 votes. The returns showed nearly 30,000 votes, and woke everybody up to what the many new homes, the pressure for many new homes, the general advancement in civic progress meant to the city. The surprising total may be based on this election by another 10,000 voters.

At least this is what Republican Chairman J. U. Eldredge said this morning, and of all workers in the political field Chairman Eldredge is conceded without contest to be the best informed, and the most careful organizer of his forces for thorough canvasses, and a heavy percentage of voters.

"We registered fully 6,000 voters yesterday," declared Chairman Eldredge, "makes the total number upon the books eligible to vote, nearly 40,000. I should not be surprised to see the vote fall close to the 40,000 mark. The people are interested, and the vote will come out."

WHAT OTHERS ARE DOING.

At none of the other headquarters could accurate information about the registration be secured. Chairman Lloyd of the Democrats said that he had 300 workers out and 50 carriages, and was doing all that could be done to get the voters registered. Accurate reports from the registration offices he however had not received.

"American" Chairman McGinty figured, without a doubt, that the total registration approached 35,000 and that 80 percent of the "American" vote was registered.

Chairman Eldredge had the figures before him as sent in from the district chairman on duty at each registry office, and he declares that the figure of 6,000 registrations yesterday, not counting the results of today's work, is an actual completion, with estimates added for outside centers.

The reading of a local poem on county conditions was the cause of much laughter at the rally.

form of a monster turnout to a Republican rally in the opera house.

Many were turned away, and those who could find accommodations were ferocious in their applause. William Spry from Salt Lake was the chief speaker and his talk was an eulogy of Congressman Howell and his work for the welfare of Utah in Congress. Among the things specifically mentioned were the high congressional record, the work of the Strawberry irrigation project, laws opening the penitentiary doors for anyone seeking to poison the people's food, rural postal service, and an essay on the Salt Lake. Mr. Spry outlined his policy if elected governor and named the measures for which he would stand, including a wage tax for state high schools and the development of irrigation systems, aided by state funds.

B. H. Bower, candidate for the legislature, was the first speaker, and a brief mention of his political and national administrations. Congressman Howell, who followed Candidate Spry, eulogized the Roosevelt administration and the ability to carry it forward. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Young Men's Republican Glee club of Provo.

POWERS AND FERNSTROM.

Richfield Democrats Hear Discussion
Of State and National Issues.

(Special to the "News.")

Richfield, Oct. 28.—At the Richfield opera house last night O. W. Powers and F. S. Fernstrom were the speakers at a well attended Democratic rally. The speakers were introduced by A. J. Poulson, who had charge of local arrangements and worked them up in excellent form. Potted plants, pictures and bunting profusely decorated the hall, and the audience, the largest of the local workers for the visiting speakers.

Mr. Fernstrom took for his subject the national question: "Shall the People Rule?" and the speakers discussed the problems, assailing Candidate Spry and the Republican organ, and declaring that collusion for a financial consideration, existed on the matter of the prohibition and local option campaign.

Judge Powers humorously declared what he declared were the "efforts of Republican leaders to jump sideways to keep their vote together." He contrasted the lives of the two gubernatorial candidates, praised the regular idea of guaranteeing savings bank deposits, and paid his respects to the story of a Democratic-American party defeat.

The reading of a local poem on county conditions was the cause of much laughter at the rally.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

Residence of W. W. Rivers Broken
Into and Jewelry Stolen by Thieves.

Another daylight robbery occurred yesterday afternoon sometime before 6 o'clock when the residence of W. W. Rivers was broken into and a number of pieces of jewelry carried away. The Rivers residence is at 347 Third East street. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Rivers went down town shopping and while she was gone, thieves cut the screen from a rear window, broke the glass, raised the sash and crawled in to the house. The place was ransacked from top to bottom and not a place where valuables might be secreted was left untouched.

Contents of cupboards, drawers, bookcases and closets were scattered all about the house. Rings and watches turned topsy turvy and the place looked like "moving day" when Mrs. Rivers returned at 6 o'clock.

Neighbors stated they saw someone moving about in the house about 5 o'clock but thinking it was a member of the family thought nothing about the matter further. The police were notified and officers were detailed on the case.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 33-34 Main street, $3.50 per year.

CARROLL GETS 50 DAYS.

First Charged With Grand Larceny
He Pleads to Lesser Charge.

Attaches of Judge Dill's court are suffering from ennui these days. Yesterday morning there were no state cases, and in the afternoon there were only a few drunks and a vag to deal with. The morning only one man occupied the dock, and that was John Carroll, charged with grand larceny. It was alleged that he stole a watch from A. L. Folger. The case was called on for trial, but finally disposed of this morning.

Carroll was permitted to plead guilty to the charge of petty larceny, and the complaint charged to the more serious offense was dismissed. By arrangement with the prosecution the man was sentenced to 50 days in the county jail, and for that period his address will be Hotel de Emery on West Second South street.

DANIELS FILES ANSWER.

Denies Charges Made by His Wife in Divorce Action.

George Daniels has filed answer and cross complaint to his wife's suit against him for divorce in the third district court. Mr. Daniels in his cross complaint sets up that his wife is not a fit person to have the custody of their 2-year-old child, Verne, and asks for the custody of the child.

Mrs. Daniels in her complaint charged Daniels with cursing and swearing at her and following a course of cruel and inhuman treatment toward her, including about the year 1906, which was 18 months after their marriage, in knocking his wife down and dragging her across the kitchen floor by the hair of her head. On May 7 of the same year, Mrs. Daniels, alleged, he beat her again.

Daniel claims his wife deserted him June 7, 1906, and although he has made overtures for her to return to him, she refused to do so. He denies the mistreatment charged by his wife.

SUIT WAS NOT CONTESTED.

Simon Bamberger Settles With Engineer's Widow for Entire Amount.

Judgment by stipulation for $5,000 was entered in the third district court yesterday in the case of Annie E. Sanders against the Salt Lake & Ogden Railroad company. Mrs. Sanders filed suit for damages for the death of her husband, George Sanders, who was killed in a collision on the line on the night of July 1, 1908.

Simon Bamberger, president of the Salt Lake & Ogden, chose not to fight the case, but agreed to pay the amount asked for by Mrs. Sanders. Ever since the accident happened, Mr. Bamberger has shown the greatest solicitude for the widow and orphans of the dead engineer, and has all along expressed his intention of providing for the widow and the children of the dead engineer.

No attempt was made to defeat the suit, and judgment for the entire amount was agreed to and so entered by the court.

Besides a widow, Engineer Sanders left five children, three of whom are minors. The children are as follows: Norman, Edna W., Horace F., John W., and Bessie Sanders.

HUSBAND IS INSANE.

Helena Wallenstein Files Suit in District Court for Divorce.

Helena Wallenstein today filed suit in the third district court for divorce from the United States. The complaint sets forth that the couple were married at San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 25, 1900, and that on Oct. 13, 1903, her husband was duly adjudged insane by the superior court of Alameda county, Cal., and was committed by order of that court to the state mental hospital at Agnews, where he still remains.

The court is asked to appoint a guardian and item to care for the interests of the defendant. A decree of divorce is asked for, and for just and equitable relief.

JURY STILL INCOMPLETE.

Ten jurors have been accepted by both sides in the State Maxwell murder case, now on trial before Judge Armstrong. The defense this morning exercised its seventh and eighth peremptory challenge, and excused William Irvine and Albert Glover, who were both passed by the state. In the case of Mr. Glover it developed that he was a resident of Bingham Junction, and admitted having some prejudice against foreigners, of whom there are large numbers in his district. Mr. Glover said, however, that he could lay aside his prejudice when the life of a man was at stake. He was excused by the attorneys for the defense.

The jurors accepted so far are as follows: John Burton, Hubert Savage, Thomas Murnighan, John Lester, Neil Malmstrom, Carl A. Erickson, Walter L. Pickard, Jr., Charles W. Huhl, L. A. Amaden, N. J. Thornduff.

SHEPHERD DENIED WRIT.

Word from Washington states that the United States Supreme court has refused the petition of Richard B. Shepherd of Salt Lake for a writ of certiorari for a review of his case before the circuit court of appeals. Shepherd was convicted on a charge of sending prohibited matter through the mails, and sentenced by Judge Marshall to 13 months in the government prison at Leavenworth.

Shepherd appealed to the circuit court, and then to Washington. The action of the supreme appellate court brings his case to a close and sentence must be carried out as imposed.

OCTOBER TERM COMPLETE.

With the completion of today's hearings, the October term of the Utah supreme court will come to an end. The last case on the calendar is that of Albert Smith against John Duncan, on appeal from the decision of Judge Booth of the Fourth district. After the hearing is completed the judges will retire into chambers to take up the work before them.

THE PEELS IN COURT.

Ina Rae Peel has filed suit in the third district court for divorce from her husband, James N. Peel, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Peel says it is worth while to sue and sue for her to continue to live with James, as he persists in cursing and abusing her, and calling her vile and indecent names. Mrs. Peel also claims the husband has been violent and violent since the 1st of January, 1904, although her husband is alleged to have an earning capacity of from $70 to $100 per month. She asks for divorce from top to bottom, costs of suit and the restoration of her maiden name of Ina Rae Wilson.

ANOTHER NATION SAVER.

Illinois Woman Informs County Clerk Of Impending Destructions.

County Clerk J. U. Eldredge, Jr., was this morning in receipt of the following highly interesting communication:

Metropolis Ills Oct 29 1908.

I am anxious to inform you of what is the cause of all these destructions that have come over this world and in the cities such as earthquakes and fire and the people do not know why.

I am a teacher from God and God wants me to do the odd fellow and the masons and the grand army men vote to them a but me for every city that speaks against my business God will send destruction on it, you please give that to the gentlemen and ladies to tell them to rise to the occasion and tell them to rise to the occasion and tell them to rise to the occasion.

My name is W. B. Tuttle, chief traveling auditor for the Rio Grande, left last evening for his headquarters in Denver after a short stay in this city and Ogden. Mr. Tuttle is one of the west's best known railroaders. His duties, now, are to skip frisks from town to town along the Gould system and go over all files and accounts. Any opinions he formed regarding affairs here were not given out but what he told of Utah and her leading cities were told by "Cap" to everyone he met. His visits, he declared to an acquaintance, are more of a pleasure each time he comes west. Although a Denver booster from the word "go," the railroader has a place in his heart for Utah and her cities.

SUPT. DAVIS HOME.

Supt. J. M. Davis of the Oregon Short Line, who was married while on the coast, returned home this morning after an extended trip along the coast and through the southern portion of the United States. The wedding made the business trip of the Oregon Short Line's superintendent a honeymoon. Mr. Davis went into consultation and conference with W. H. Bancroft, vice president and general manager of the O. S. L. and other officials and was closeted with them during the greater portion of the morning. Upon appearing at his desk he was the center of a big bunch of railroad boys who were eager to tender congratulations.

FUGITIVE CAUGHT HERE.

Russell Valaro, a fugitive from justice charged with attempted murder, was arrested in Provo by Sheriff Harmon of Utah county and was taken to the city jail by Sheriff Harmon and Police Officer Mitchell of Omaha this afternoon. Valaro will be taken to Nebraska or trial in Omaha as requested by the federal government. His papers are honored by Gov. Cutler.

TRIES TO DIG OUT OF JAIL.

Ellen Dixon, a woman who was arrested last night for drunkenness, was anxious to get out of jail as soon as she found out where she had been placed. She tore an iron bunk to pieces last night and with parts of it began digging at the wall in the drunk house. She removed 16 bricks from the walls and was almost through her job when interrupted.

BUSINESS NOTES.

The transfer is recorded of a lot at the corner of Sixth South and State streets to the Royal laundry company for $4,950. The company is proposing to erect there a laundry building to cost $15,000.

A. J. Colt, the retired secretary of the Utah Implement-Vehicle company, is in Indianapolis where he holds a position with the Rock Island Power company.

Construction will begin on the new bottling works of the W. J. Lemp Brewing company, at Eighth South and Third West streets as soon as Architect G. T. Norton arrives in this city, which will be brick and frame, 45x60 feet with iron cornice, and will cost $9,000.

George T. Odell returned last evening from a 20 days' business trip in the east, as far as Chicago. He found business conditions there less satisfactory than in this part of the country, and is waiting for orders which are slow in coming—quite a contrast to 18 months ago, when orders were so heavy that manufacturers did just about as they liked in filling them.

Today's local bank clearings amounted to $72,662.66 as against $65,887.69 the same day last year. This is the second consecutive day that this year's clearings have exceeded last year's; the first time this has happened in many a month.

Frank J. Elan, general western agent of the Otis Elevator company has removed his headquarters from Denver to this city, which will be the distributing point for all of this part of the country.

LATE LOCALS.

Prof. Stephens expected to be in this part of the city tomorrow night, as his young friend Noel Pratt is slowly improving since Monday night.

Conditions of Noel Pratt—Noel Pratt is slowly but apparently sure improving. He is yet somewhat delirious but a chance for his recovery is set in last Monday night, and strong hopes are entertained for his permanent recovery.

In Search of a Delegate—Governor Cutler is in receipt of a request to appoint delegates to the Harbors congress to be held at Washington, D. C. Dec. 9 to 11. The governor is endeavoring to find some one interested in deep sea waterways who would like to attend the convention as a delegate.

Pedersen Recital Tonight—At the theater this evening the bill will be the testimonial rendered Arthur Pedersen-Evrey by his Salt Lake musical friends. A very attractive program will be rendered. As this will be the only opportunity of hearing young Mr. Evrey before his return to New York and especially as he and Mr. Weihe will appear in a violin duo, the concert will be a warm response on the part of the public.

PEACE PROSPECTS IN BALKANS BETTER

Because of Turkey Ceasing Military Preparations Bulgaria Will Release 75,000.

RESULT OF AN ULTIMATUM.

Identical Notes from Great Britain, France and Russia, Supported by Germany and Italy, Presented.

Paris, Oct. 28.—It was learned here authoritatively today that the Bulgarian government, in view of the cessation of military preparations on the part of Turkey and acting upon the advice of the powers, has decided to release tomorrow the 75,000 reservists who have been held to the colors. It is hoped that this measure will reduce the tension between Sofia and Constantinople.

ULTIMATUM PRESENTED.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 28.—The decision of Bulgaria to disband its reserves and make a financial compensation to Turkey was brought about by the presentation of what was practically an ultimatum by Great Britain, France and Russia, who were supported by Germany and Italy.

Identical notes from the first named three powers were presented to the Bulgarian government. They demanded the disbandment of the Bulgarian reserves within three days and the promise to send delegates to Constantinople to negotiate the question of financial compensation for Turkey. It was made clear that on compliance with these demands depended all hope for the recognition of Bulgarian independence. In reply to these communications the Bulgarian government signified its willingness to conform to the demands therein set forth.

PRIVATE MIKE BEECHAM.

Soldier Who Ran Amuck in Philippines Gets Life Imprisonment.

Manila, Oct. 28.—Private Mike Beecham of the First cavalry, who ran amuck at Camp Stotsenburg last May and killed four of his comrades, was sentenced to life imprisonment today by the court before which he appeared. The court took the view that the crime was unprecedented and the result of a sudden fit of anger. Under the Spanish law, therefore, the court held that the punishment in the case did not warrant the infliction of the death penalty.

Beecham will appeal from this sentence, although the supreme court, to which his appeal must be directed, has the power to substitute the death penalty.
