

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

On Wednesday nearly 300 guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. A. H. Edwards, who gave an afternoon tea in honor of her daughter, Miss Helen Hoxrud. The rooms were beautifully decorated, a profusion of sweet peas, red ranunculus and other roses, pink and white sweet peas were effectively used in the decorations and prizes awarded Mrs. Campbell and Miss Louise Sullivan.

Mrs. J. T. Richards entertained at a bridge tea on Wednesday, the decorations being in white and green throughout, and about eight tables being played with prizes awarded at each.

Miss Eudora Daly was one of Wednesday's hostesses, giving a bridge tea in honor of Mrs. J. J. Campbell. Pink and white sweet peas were effectively used in the decorations and prizes awarded Mrs. Campbell and Miss Louise Sullivan.

Mrs. Heber Lee gave a bridge party on Wednesday for Mrs. Louis Critchlow and Mrs. C. O. Whittemore, the red, white and blue being used with pretty effect, in larkspur, bachelor buttons, peonies and ranunculus. On Thursday Mrs. Lee entertained again for Mrs. Critchlow, the entertainment being 500.

The Misses Raul and Olive Parich were hostesses yesterday at a bridge party for Mrs. Evans and Miss McCroary, six tables being played and prizes won by Mrs. W. M. McCrea and Mrs. Royer.

Two pleasant social affairs took place at the post on Wednesday, Mrs. Walter Scott giving a bridge tea in the afternoon and Lieut. and Mrs. McClure a card party in the evening.

Mrs. Maurice Jones entertained at a Kensington on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Jean Bossey of Colorado, the rooms being prettily decorated and about a dozen friends present.

Miss Retta Bellinger entertained at cards on Tuesday night, 50 being the amusement, and the following being present: Misses Allice McMillan, Virginia Beatty, Elsie Parsons, Dorothy Rookledge, Margaret Walker and Gladys McCaughy, and Messrs. Gilbert Anderson, Rex Midgley, Marie Van Cott, Earl Coombs, Clarence Dale and Russell McIntyre.

Mrs. C. E. Post gave a Kensington on Wednesday for Mrs. W. W. Ames of Nebraska and Mrs. Rosamond and Miss Savage of Tennessee, roses were the decorations and about 20 were present.

Mrs. F. B. Stephens was hostess at a luncheon on Tuesday, the guests being seated at five tables, the larger one in the center having for a centerpiece a crystal basket of roses, and suspended over it a smaller basket of Shasta daisies. All the other tables were decorated in the same flowers. Covers were laid for 24.

Mrs. W. S. McCormick gave a children's party on Tuesday for the sixth birthday anniversary of her little granddaughter, Marian, games being the amusement and about 30 entertained.

Miss Ira Bothwell entertained at cards on Tuesday, eight tables being played and prizes won by Mrs. Herman Johnson and Miss Beattie Croxall. The decorations were prettily carried out in yellow.

Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh entertained informally at a Kensington on Tuesday for her sister, Mrs. Wilkinson who leaves shortly to make her home in California.

Miss Margaret Walker was hostess at a pleasant affair on Tuesday in the way of an afternoon tea, the rooms being bright with roses in every hue and the following were present: Misses Allice McMillan, Marguerite Bellinger, Norine Thompson, Lucille Clark, Josephine Well, Margaret Dunn, Gladys McCaughy, Bryan and Grizelle Houston, Dorothy Rookledge, Isabel Schiffer and Margery Jacobs.

Mrs. H. C. Bellinger entertained at luncheon on Tuesday, covers being laid for 12 and bridge following.

On Tuesday Mrs. J. C. Hanchett entertained her bridge club at luncheon, the card contest following.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Morningstar entertained at an elaborate dinner, the table being decorated in roses and the same flowers being all about the rooms. Covers were laid for 12 and afterward music was enjoyed.

This afternoon Mrs. Richard Keyes gives a box party at the Orpheum.

Miss Jean Odell entertained informally at bridge on Tuesday evening for Miss Luvera Snow of Chicago.

One of Monday's affairs was the dancing party given at the Country club in the evening by Miss Dorothy Kinney for her sister, Mrs. Daugherty and Miss Van Wyck, a delightful time being spent by all present.

Another pleasant affair of Monday was the luncheon in honor of Mrs. Susan Y. Gates given by Mrs. W. J. Wain, the rooms and table being beautifully decorated in roses, and about a dozen being entertained.

Mrs. L. B. McCormick was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Monday in honor of Mrs. Daugherty and Miss Van Wyck, the table having for a centerpiece a crystal vase of red peonies and the following being present to meet the guests of honor: Mrs. A. H. Bird, Mrs. W. G. Flier, Mrs. Edward Ferry, Mrs. A. V. Callaghan, Mrs. Frank Zedger, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Miss Kinney, Miss Judge, the Misses McCormick and Miss McGinnis.

Monday was the birthday anniversary of Misses Esther and Edna Duxan, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Duxan who gave a card party in celebration of the event, 10 tables being played. The rooms were decorated in the national colors and prizes awarded the winners.

Miss Margaret Werner entertained at a delightful afternoon party on Tuesday in honor of her guest, Miss June Whittemore.

The Women's Republican club will meet Monday at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. John C. Cutler, 738 South West Temple. A feature of the occasion will be a paper by Mrs. George Sutherland.

Mrs. T. C. Bailey and Miss Edna Bailey entertained on Thursday at a large tea, about 150 being present.

were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were used with artistic effect throughout the rooms and punch was served on the veranda. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. R. G. Schuller, Mrs. Carl Scheid, and Mrs. J. R. Walker, assisted by Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mary Smalley, Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Raybould. Punch was served on the broad veranda by Miss Allice Maclean. The guests were received at the door by little Miss Esther Daugherty.

Mrs. George Steiner was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The patriotic colors were some have returned, after six weeks spent in the east.

Miss Eva Roberts of Chicago will be the guest of Miss Gladys McCaughy next week.

Mrs. Frances Wilkinson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh, will leave next week for her home in Los Angeles.

Miss Louise Osborne and Miss Adelaide Jacobson will leave Wednesday for Pioche, where they will spend six weeks.

Miss Maybelle Crowley and Miss Kathryn Wall left Monday to spend the summer with Mrs. Wall at Los Angeles and the beaches.

Miss Margaret Dunn left Wednesday evening for Omaha, where she will spend several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Buckingham.

Miss Julia Cleland of Fremont, Neb., is here to spend a month with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Cleland.

Kean Miller has returned from an

LADY ALICE LOWTHER.

Lady Alice Lowther, the beautiful wife of the recently appointed British ambassador to Turkey, will leave Tangier with her distinguished husband in July to go to Constantinople on his new mission. Lady Lowther was Miss Alice Blight of Philadelphia, daughter of the millionaire of that name, and she met her husband at Newport. Sir Gerald Lowther was then secretary to the British embassy at Washington, and the wedding was one of the most fashionable ever celebrated in this country. Sir Gerald succeeds Sir Nicholas F. O'Connor as the British ambassador to Turkey.

used in the decorations, red roses, Shasta daisies and bachelor buttons being used with blue for-gotten-nots. Mrs. F. A. Hale, Mrs. Will Ellerbeck, Mrs. F. B. Stephens and Mrs. Marian Officer assisted. Prizes were won at each table by Mrs. J. W. Delano, Mrs. Sam Porter, Mrs. T. Roy Brown, Mrs. F. A. Hale, Mrs. Fred Denn, Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mrs. J. C. Dick and Mrs. Breeden.

Mrs. W. L. Snyder gave a bridge tea on Thursday, in honor of Mrs. LeCompte of Park City, the rooms being bright with flags, bunting and flowers in the national colors. Tea and coffee were served by Mrs. H. P. Henderson and Mrs. LeCompte, assisted by Miss Mount, Miss Snyder and Miss Cora Snyder. Prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Rookledge, Mrs. George Black, Mrs. Ezra Thompson, Mrs. E. A. Greenwood, Mrs. Rober Hendricks of Salem, Ore.; Mrs. G. O. Whittemore, Mrs. W. H. Doscher, Miss Rilla Snyder and Miss Curtis of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. J. W. Currie was hostess at a bridge party on Thursday, assisted by Mrs. Cherry, Miss Harman, and Miss Violet Currie. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. C. Cutler and Mrs. M. A. Peters.

Judge and Mrs. O. W. Powers gave a delightful lawn party at their home on Thursday evening, in honor of their guest, Miss Margaret Field of Chicago, about 40 young people being entertained. The lawn and verandas were lighted with electric globes and the walls hung with baskets of flowers. A feature of the evening was the music furnished by the Hawaiian band.

Mrs. Harry Clark entertained at a luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Jennie Pottinger and Mrs. James Kervin, who are in the city for a short stay, the decorations being in the red, white and blue, and covers laid for 14.

Miss Elinor Stewart gave a luncheon on Thursday for six friends, the table being decorated in the season's flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keyser entertained at a delightful bridge party last night in honor of their guests, George and Harold Weston of New York.

Mrs. Heber Lee was hostess at two pleasant afternoon affairs this week given in honor of Mrs. Louis Critchlow, both being card parties. The decorations were carried out in the natural colors with a variety of flowers.

Mrs. J. T. Richards entertained this week at cards, the rooms being prettily decorated and prizes awarded at each table.

Mrs. H. N. Mayo was hostess yesterday at a bridge tea in honor of her guest, Mrs. Nelson Story of New York. The rooms were bright with a profusion of flowers, and a number of friends assisted.

Mrs. George Steiner entertained at a second bridge tea yesterday, about the same number as on the previous day.

Yesterday Mrs. D. C. Jackling gave a farewell tea for Mrs. L. L. Downing, who leaves next week to make her home in Iowa.

Walter Rivers of Los Angeles is here spending a few weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans and two children will probably return this week after their eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Morrison and son are at home for the summer at 529 and Third South.

Mrs. John W. Pike is here from Los

A kiss, a hug and baby slips off his mother's lap into a bowl of clean, warm water.

There he finds a Sponge and a Cake of Ivory Soap.

Mother squeezes the sponge and water runs all over baby's arms, his body, his legs and his little pink toes.

Then she takes the soap, does something with it and baby is covered with a soft creamy lather that takes all the dirt away and leaves his skin as smooth as satin.

Ivory Soap
99 1/2 Per Cent. Pure.

with Mrs. Magum at her home on M street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McGurran left Tuesday evening for the northwest to be away some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Greenwald are visiting relatives in Baltimore for a short time. They will not be home for some three weeks yet.

Mrs. P. O. Perkins and little daughter, Betty, will leave Wednesday for Logan to spend the summer with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bransford, who have spent several weeks at their ranch in Idaho, will return the first of next week.

PRINCESS PATRICIA.

The Princess Patricia is a favorite niece of King Edward of England and considered one of the most beautiful members of royalty in all Europe. She is very artistic by nature, and the recent portrait of her exhibited at the last salon has excited widespread admiration. She is now being prominently mentioned in foreign dispatches because of her name being rumored as the possible bride of the new King, Manuel of Portugal. Princess Patricia's full name is the Princess Victoria Patricia Helene Elizabeth, and she was born on March 17, 1888, in the royal palace of Buckingham. She is the third daughter of Prince Arthur, Duke of Connaught, brother of King Edward.

Mrs. William McCaskell will return this month, after an extended visit in Canada and the east.

Miss Bell Dunbar is spending a few weeks with friends at Sierra Madre, Cal.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Hosmer of West Jordan are visiting Dr. Hosmer's parents in Michigan.

Mrs. Kervin and her daughter, Miss Hope, are at home at the Whitehall.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Beeman have returned after several weeks spent in the east, to be away some weeks.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin and her daughter, Miss Hope Kervin, have taken apartments at Whitehall for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Little returned yesterday morning from their wedding trip and are at home for the present with Mrs. Little's mother, Mrs. Louis Martin.

Captain and Mrs. Brian S. Wells of the Twenty-ninth sailed from Manila June 15, and will come directly here to be with Mrs. Wells' mother, Mrs. T. W. Jennings, Lieutenant and Mrs. Will H. Point also sailed at that time, and will doubtless visit here on their way east.

Mrs. James Hogle and Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, who have spent several weeks in London with Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Bidwell, are now in Paris, where they will remain some time.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Tyndale have as their guest Dr. Tyndale's father, who is on his way to Iowa.

Mrs. George R. Raymond and daughter Doris left this week for Denver to spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Halman will leave the middle of July for Portland, where they will visit their son. Later they will go to Seattle.

Mrs. J. W. Currie entertained at a second bridge affair on Thursday.

Next Monday the Clover Club will meet with Miss Hattie Coombs, and each member will bring something original in a literary way to the meeting.

On July 24th the Clover club will leave for Brighton for a ten days' stay.

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. H. Tanner was celebrated on Wednesday night in a delightful party at her home, the tables being set with music and games and about 20 guests enjoyed the affair.

Mrs. James H. Moyle and her children are at the Moyle country place for the summer.

Mrs. W. P. Edwards of New York is here to spend the summer with her son, H. C. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence F. Hammel are now at home at 424 east Second South street.

Miss Norma MacCung of Spokane is here visiting for a time with Miss Alice Lyne.

Dr. La Motte left Monday evening for Portland and Seattle for a short trip.

Miss Minnie C. Stevenson has returned after an extended eastern trip.

H. C. Edwards left Tuesday evening for a short business trip to Omaha.

Mrs. A. L. Young will spend the 4th with relatives at Bingham.

Miss Mary Halloran, who has spent a year abroad, has arrived in New York, where she will remain a few weeks visiting friends. Mrs. Woodward and children, who were with her, have returned here.

Mrs. Jack Keith and little daughter, Catherine, who returned Monday, after spending the winter in California left Tuesday for Evanston, where they will spend a few weeks with Mrs. Keith's mother, Mrs. Elyth.

Miss Leigh Whittemore of Los Angeles is the guest of Miss Vera Edwards for a week or two. Miss June Whittemore is visiting Miss Margaret Werner.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Snyder of Pittsburg are here to spend a week with Mrs. Snyder's sister, Mrs. E. A. Greenwood.

Mrs. S. W. Morrison returned Thursday evening after an extended stay in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Ott are now at home at apartment M in the Vivian flats.

Mrs. Arthur Davies of Ely, Nev., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Groo.

Mrs. Russell L. Tracy will leave Tuesday to join Mr. Tracy and their son, Russell, to enjoy a trip of 10 days through Yellowstone park.

Tuesday afternoon next a select card party will be given by Miss Virginia Elmer and Miss Maude Wheeler at the home of the latter.

Twelve hundred bath rooms at Saltair ready today.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Mrs. A. C. Bartlett of Fairburg, Ill., is visiting her father, O. R. McDowell of this city.

William Moyes and family have returned from an extensive eastern visit. George Moyes, who has been a student at the Chicago university, accompanied them home.

W. P. Hart and family left Tuesday morning for a trip through southern California and will be gone about three weeks.

Miss Ruth McKinnon has gone to Bingham canyon for an extended visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Spencer were down from Spencer, Idaho, for a few days this week, looking after their property.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Van Meter of Chicago, who have been the guests of Mrs. Van Meter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bigelow, for the past three weeks, have returned to their Chicago home.

Dr. William Watson and family have returned to Ogden for a short visit, after spending several years in Chicago.

L. B. Spencer, the civil engineer, is in Ogden on a short visit from Nevada.

City Attorney and Mrs. James Davine and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hosok have moved to the canyon for the summer. They have established a camp at Peery's.

Mrs. T. A. Larson of Montello, Nev., was an Ogden visitor during the past week.

Mrs. Clarence Clark of Ogden visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Downs, Sr., in Evanston, Wyo., during the past week.

Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson and children of Salt Lake visited Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McBride in the city during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Eccles have returned from a delightful trip to New York and other points east.

Miss Mayme McDermott, who has been teaching school in Bozeman, Mont., during the past winter, is the guest of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John McDermott, at the Healy House.

Mrs. H. J. Cary and children of Ogden visited with the William Badens at Evanston during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Fornoff and children have returned to Ogden after a short visit with friends in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tyree, who have been visiting in Ogden for some time past, have gone to Denver, where they will make their future home.

Miss Mildred Hanson of Salt Lake is the guest of Miss Clara Peterson during the present week.

Mrs. Ellen Andrews of Evanston was an Ogden visitor during the past week.

Thomas G. Ball, of Wasatch, Utah, was wedded to Miss Evelyn Turner, of Evanston, Wyo., at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. D. D. Phalen, at 301 Wilson avenue, June 25. The ceremonies were conducted by Judge Howell. A dainty luncheon was served among a profusion of roses and ferns. The bride and groom have gone east for their honeymoon.

Samuel Knighten and Miss Hazel Leavitt were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride on Twelfth street, President C. F. Middleton presiding. The contracting parties are popular young people of Ogden and their friends extend them kind congratulations. The marriage was witnessed by only the intimate friends and relatives, but there were fully 100 people who sat at the formal board in the evening. A sumptuous banquet was served and the dining room was elaborately decorated with roses and carnations. Many costly and expensive presents were brought to the happy young couple and they were much appreciated by them. The newly married couple will make their home in Ogden.

The Most Powerful
CLEARANCE SALE
in 44 Years

It Starts
Monday July 6th
At AUERBACH'S

The Most Powerful
CLEARANCE SALE
in 44 Years

PROVO.