

SOCIAL CHAT

On Monday Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Bassett entertained at a delightful evening party at their home. Bridge being the amusement. The rooms were prettily decorated, and about 30 friends enjoyed the affair.

Mrs. E. C. Parsons gave a theater party on Monday night in honor of the Misses Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee entertained at an informal afternoon affair on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. C. S. Williamson of Denver.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. U. V. Hickey gave a delightful dinner in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Hickey and Dr. E. V. Silver.

Mrs. T. J. Lambert entertained informally on Monday night in honor of her father, Dr. S. B. Young.

Mrs. W. T. Benson entertained informally on Monday in honor of Mrs. C. S. Williamson.

Miss McGrath entertained informally at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Luewitz, her guests enjoying a delightful afternoon.

Mrs. James A. Miner gave a pretty luncheon at the Alta club on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Truman of Michigan. The table was laid in the gold room, and was effectively decorated in autumn flowers and leaves. Covers were laid for 15.

Mrs. Mont Perry gave a charming children's party on Tuesday.

Mrs. James E. Jennings and Mrs. Walter P. Jennings entertained the Sewing club on Thursday.

Mrs. J. M. Dart entertained at a delightful double function on Thursday, the affair comprising a luncheon followed by a literary program. Mrs. W. R. Wightman reading a most interesting paper. About 30 people were present.

Next Monday night the Unity club will open the season with a reception to be given at Unity hall.

Miss Addie Zane entertained the members of the Bridge club at her home on Thursday.

The faculty of Gordon Academy will give a reception at the Academy parlors on next Friday evening.

The post hop last night was the usual pleasant affair, and was enjoyed by a number of people from the city.

Mr. Louis McCormick gave a dinner at the Country club on Thursday night to a few friends.

Thursday was the birthday anniversary of Miss Flossie Molloy, and it was celebrated in a pleasant surprise party, a number of her young friends gathering unexpectedly at her home, and spending an enjoyable evening with games and music.

Mrs. Edmund Wilkes entertained a few friends informally at her home on Tuesday, in honor of Mrs. Morrow.

Yesterday Mrs. Fred Hale entertained informally at an afternoon affair at her home, the rooms being prettily decorated in autumn tints.

The popular Wednesday evening soirees will commence at Christensen's next week.

Mrs. John A. Groeschel entertained her Sewing club on Tuesday.

Miss Beatrice Cheeseman is entertaining a house party at the Walker farm, her guests numbering about a half dozen.

Miss Geddes entertained informally at luncheon at the Country club today.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was that given by Mrs. Luewitz in honor of her sister, Mrs. Addie Zane, who is here from Denver for a short time. The table was charmingly decorated in autumn leaves and flowers, mingled with woodbine, and the place cards were also decorated with the woodbine. Covers were laid for 12, the guests being Mrs. James C. Dick, Mrs. Jack Keith, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Mrs. Louis Cecil Robinson, Mrs. William H. Cunningham, Mrs. Jay T. Harris, Miss Addie Zane, Miss Gertrude McGrath, Miss Jessie Anderson and Miss Katherine Geddes.

Miss Harriet Dunster will hold an art china reception at her residence, 705 east Second South street, assisted by Mrs. A. E. Kimball, Oct. 12 and 13, 1904, at 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Miss Ella Engen and Frank L. Hart were married Monday, the wedding taking place at St. Paul's church with Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating. The affair was a very quiet one and the newly married couple left immediately after the ceremony for Ogden, where they will visit a short time with relatives, before returning here to reside.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Mrs. Henrietta McLaughlin and Dr. McEnery of England, which took place on Wednesday at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, in Washington, D. C. and Mrs. McEnery will visit the fair, and will later come to Salt Lake, where they expect to reside.

Two other far away weddings of interest to many Salt Lake people were those respectively of Mrs. Lulu Mayne and Harry B. Windsor in New York, and Miss Hazel Shonbride and Mr. E. Z. Howard, which took place on Wednesday in San Francisco at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. L. Sheets.

Miss Mabelle Sundburg and Dr. H. Gustavson were married on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple during the day, and a reception following in the evening at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms

Blue Monday

Fels-Naptha doesn't know it—half your washing done just by soaking.

Fels-Naptha Philadelphia

the city, the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. William Bayly, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser left this week for California, where they will spend the coming month.

Miss Edith Maguire of Provo is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Tracy.

Mrs. J. O. Reber has gone to St. Louis to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fine P. Ernst.

Mrs. Rachel Miller is home from Trail, British Columbia, where she spent some time with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Pete and daughter, Mrs. Joseph E. Doty, left on Wednesday for Chicago and St. Louis.

Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. Thomas Davis have returned to New York after spending a short time with their parents.

NEW SOUTHERN BEAUTY—KENTUCKY GIRL TAKES PALM.

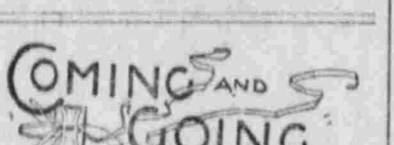

Miss Lee Floyd of Louisville has been declared by a convention of photographers to be the most beautiful girl in the south. Miss Floyd is a brunette of charming figure.

Wednesday night, when Miss Edith Pauline Crane and George Elmer Walker were married at the home of the bride's parents. The decorations were both elaborate and beautiful. The bride entered the parlor at 7:30 o'clock, to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. A. A. Kerr. At the conclusion of the service the bride and groom were seated at the head of the table, and the friends of the young couple showered good wishes upon them. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with yoke and bertha of real lace. A long tulle veil was fastened with white roses, and a shower bouquet of the same flowers was carried. The Rev. Elmer I. Goshen officiated, while Miss May Crane acted as bridesmaid, and Walter Saunders as best man. The couple went directly to their new home, 77 east Second South street, after the wedding reception.

The engagement of J. Walcott Thompson of this city and Miss May Bishop of New Haven is announced, the wedding to take place in November.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Snarr to Mr. Leroy West took place on Wednesday at the Salt Lake Temple, and in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Snarr, 405 west Sixth South street, a reception was tendered the happy couple, a host of the young people's friends being present. The evening was spent most delightfully, and the young couple were the recipients of many valuable presents. Delicious refreshments were served and musical numbers added greatly to the evening's enjoyment. The house was beautifully decorated and the bride was handsomely gowned and carried bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. West will remain for some time in Salt Lake, after which they will make their home in Lewisville, Ida.

The wedding of Miss Laura Smith and Thomas E. Vissing, Jr., took place last Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 230 west Seventh South street. The rooms were beautifully decorated and at 8 p. m. the ceremony was performed by Bishop Seddon of the Fifth ward, while Mrs. Brinton, sister of the bride, played the "Wedding March." A most elaborate supper was served by Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Glenn, and a delightful evening was spent with music, songs and dancing. A striking feature of the evening was a song composed by the groom, E. Vissing, in honor of his son's wedding, which was most appropriate for the occasion. The young couple will be at home to their friends at 558 south Second West street. Many beautiful presents were shown, and among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Vissing, Mr. Tiddwell, grandfather of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Brinton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Vissing, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Vissing, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Midgley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hogan, Mrs. Mary Glenn, Mrs. A. Bettinger, Mrs. Louise Anderson, Miss Pearl Smith, Mr. Thomas Smith, Mr. Jacob Bettinger, and Mr. John Francis.

Miss Nellie Grant of 2355 south Eighth East street, Forest Dale, is entertaining Mrs. Nelly Bromley-Thomas of Chicago, during conference.

Mrs. N. N. Olsen, of Frisco, Utah, is in the city on her way to visit the world's fair at St. Louis.

Mrs. Samuel Adams of Denver, is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan.

Miss Katherine Dougall of Springfield is in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Hartham of Los Angeles, is in ente, Judge and Mrs. Robert Harkness.

Mrs. Luewitz is in the city visiting relatives. She will be the guest of honor at a party this week given by Miss McGrath.

Isaac and Dan Alexander are back after a month passed at St. Louis.

Miss L. C. Taylor has returned from the east. While there she visited Kansas City, St. Louis and world's fair.

Mrs. J. C. Hooper has returned from a four months' stay abroad. Miss Ruth Copp, who returned with her, is visiting friends in Burlington, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Butler have returned from the fair and are again at home on 8 street.

Charles Read and his daughter Miss Emily Read, and Mrs. Callahan have gone to San Francisco for a 10 days' visit.

Miss Mildred Ott is home from San-taquin for a few days' visit with her parents.

Mrs. Albert Seaton left Wednesday night for her home in Idaho, after a pleasant visit with her friend, Mrs. B. T. Young.

Samuel Newhouse returned Thursday after an absence of several months in the East and Europe. Mrs. Newhouse may be here this month.

Mrs. J. D. Adams left Thursday for the east, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. H. G. McMillan will return from the east the latter part of the month. Miss Letta McMillan will remain in Virginia and New Jersey visiting friends till Christmas.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Fred Pinkerton have returned from the east. They visited St. Louis, Chicago and Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dern are home from a summer spent at Mercur.

Miss Clara Deal has returned from a two months' visit with friends in the east.

Mrs. Edgar S. Darling has returned from Detroit.

Miss Kirkpatrick and Miss Mose Kirkpatrick are here from San Francisco and are guests at the Marshall home on Fifth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parsons will be in Colorado for the next two months.

Mrs. J. J. McMillan has returned from a delightful eastern trip, during which she visited the fair at St. Louis and also spent some time with friends in Denver.

ODDEN.

At the home of the bride's parents on Adams avenue Tuesday evening, Miss Neta Gale, a charming young lady, was married to Fred Graves. The ring ceremony was performed by Bishop Engen in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The parlors were prettily decorated for the occasion with roses, carnations and asters. The bride was attired in a beautiful silk gown. The bride and groom are both well known in Ogden. They received many elegant presents. An elaborate wedding supper was served.

Miss Ruby Jones has gone to Oakland, Cal., to spend a few weeks visiting with her sister, Mrs. Cora Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carr, Mesdames Whitaker and Flygar returned home this week from a delightful trip to the world's fair.

A grand complimentary ball was given Thursday evening at the Kiesel hall in honor of Miss Celeste Conroy, who leaves soon for Berlin to study instrumental music.

Miss Florence Roberts, one of the most popular actresses on the American stage, will appear with a strong company at the Grand Opera House in two strong scenic productions, "Tea of the L'Herminette," Monday evening, and "The Adventure of Lady Traill," Tuesday evening. These will be two of the best attractions of the season and should be well patronized by the theater going people.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hurst, on Adams avenue, Tuesday afternoon, Miss Minerva Clausen, a popular young lady of Salt Lake City, was wedded to Leo H. Hurst, Rev. J. E. Carver officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by only the relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Hurst left Wednesday for Kemmerer, Wyo., when they will make their future home.

Mrs. John Lindstrom entertained the ladies of the Aid society of the Lutheran church at her cosy home on 18th street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rolapp returned Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rolapp returned home this week from a pleasant trip

Miss Mae E. Johnson, one of Ogden's charming young ladies was married this week to Willard R. Martin of San Francisco.

Tuesday evening the Women of Woodcraft gave a most successful and pleasant card party at their hall, complimentary to Mrs. Borwood. High five was the pleasure of the evening, the prizes being won by Miss Ethel Leach and H. L. Hall.

A reunion of the Belnap family was held Wednesday at the old homestead in Hooper. The day's festivities were participated in by over 250 people. Feasting, singing, speech-making and dancing were the pleasures enjoyed by all.

The last opportunity afforded the peo-

PEACE WITH VATICAN.

Queen Helena of Italy

It is said that the birth of a son to Queen Helena of Italy is likely to result in bringing about peace between the pope and the king of Italy. If it should, Queen Helena, already much beloved of the people, will become immensely more popular.

ple to hear Miss Nannie Touring sing previous to her departure for London to renew her studies, was last evening, when she appeared in concert at the Ogden Tabernacle with Prof. Squire Coop, Prof. Charles Kent, Miss Pearl Snyder, Miss Celeste Conway and others. An excellent program was carried out. The concert was given for the benefit of the second ward.

Mrs. A. P. Bigelow entertained the Coterie club at her home Tuesday afternoon. A very interesting and pleasant program was carried out.

PR OVO.

The social event of the week, was the opening session of the Sorosis club, held at the home of the president, Mrs. Rob. Irvine, last Wednesday afternoon. It was the first social event given at the elegant new home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvine and everything was artistically arranged, the decorations being fall leaves and flowers. The president gave the opening address, which was full of suggestive ideas, and encouraging sentiments. Miss Alice Reynolds gave an interesting account of the meeting of the federation of clubs, held in St. Louis last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Taylor have returned from their eastern trip, and report having had a most pleasant trip. While away they visited St. Louis, Chicago, New York and Boston.

Mrs. Searle and Mrs. Sam Schwab left Provo Tuesday afternoon for an extended trip throughout the east. They will first visit St. Louis, then Washington, Philadelphia, Niagara and New York.

The Ladies Democratic club, held a pleasant social at their club rooms (over the State bank). An interesting program was arranged for the first part of the evening, the different subjects were given by Mr. Rydall, Mr. Morgan and Miss Alice Reynolds.

Mrs. W. J. Beattie and daughter Hazel of Salt Lake City will be the guests

Constipation and many other infantile disorders are the results of improper feeding. Give your baby Mellin's Food and see how quickly infantile troubles disappear. Send for our book "The Care & Feeding of Infants" and we will send it with a sample of Mellin's Food free of charge.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

A DRESSY BETWEEN-SEASONS COAT.

There is a smart snappiness to this little coat, developed in one of the off-color white chiffon cloths, with lace, buttons and embroidery for trimming and the revers faced with amethyst velvet. The coat is of the looser shape all around, the velvet faced revers opening over a little plain vest that fits the figure, and the sleeve, a loose puff, is surmounted with a frilled cape suggestion that has the decorated lace for trimming.

spending a few days in Salt Lake city.

Mr. Geo. S. Taylor spent Monday visiting his parents in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Beggard visited the B. Y. university Tuesday, and was delighted with a bright, intelligent crowd of students she met there. Tuesday evening College hall was well filled, to listen to her reading of Adam Bede.

Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry is in Salt Lake City, the guest of Mrs. W. J. Beattie.

The Mystic club met at the kindergarten rooms of the B. Y. University Thursday afternoon. The president, Miss Bertie Walsh, presiding. Miss Nellie Clyde gave an interesting paper, and it was decided to keep a class record of the interesting events, both social and educational of each member of the club.

The Sunshine club met with the secretary, Miss Margaret Dusenberry, last Monday afternoon. The club was called to order by the president, Lall Irvine, after which the secretary read the minutes, which were as follows: "The Sunshine club met at the home of Annie Taylor, Sept. 26, 1904. The rest of the time was taken up by the election of officers, after which the meeting adjourned to their several places of abode." The members all under ten years old, and the meeting was conducted in a very creditable knowledge of parliamentary law.

Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Keeler are visiting friends in Salt Lake City.

President and Mrs. Holbrook are conference visitors at the capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooley of Kanab spent Monday and Tuesday in Provo, the guests of their daughter.

Mrs. S. S. Chipman spent Tuesday in Provo visiting her family.

LOGAN.

Logan, Oct. 7.—One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was the card party given by Mrs. W. S. Langton at the home on Thursday afternoon. The rooms were made very attractive with decorations of sweet peas and asters. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Langton being assisted by Miss Lulu Carpenter. Those who were present were: Mesdames Capt. Byr, Mayor Robinson, President Kerr, A. H. Fleming, W. B. Preston, Jr., G. H. Champ, H. Bullen, P. E. Keeler, E. P. Bacon, W. Y. Croxall, J. A. Jensen.

SALT LAKE CITY'S EXCLUSIVE FURRIER

I. C. GLOSZ

270 Main 270 Main

You will be surprised at the values in this

Sale of FURS

"REMARKABLE" is the expression of everybody who stops to consider what this Glosz Fur-Selling really means.

Tho' every bit of winter is ahead of us, the prices at which we've marked these furs mean a tremendous saving.

Selling as we buy, and manufacture bring about these extraordinary Fur opportunities.

We do superior repairing and remodeling of furs at prices well worth considering, where satisfaction and economy are an object. Our work possesses that apparent yet indefinable something which is always characteristic of the best workmanship and denotes a thorough familiarity or knack of how to obtain the most satisfactory results.

Goods called for and estimates furnished.

Garments made to order a specialty.

Any small deposit secures your furs at these sale prices and delivered whenever called for.

I. C. GLOSZ

270 Main 270 Main