

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice will be taken of communications unless they are accompanied by the name of the contributor, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—Last night "Lucille" was presented. It is a beautiful play, and illustrates the depth and tenacity of woman's love, embodying within it much honest sentiment and many feeling. Miss Scheller's impersonation of Lucille was very fine. She has the power of throwing her whole soul into her impersonation, and identifying herself with her characters in a manner that seizes the feelings of an audience, and wins their sympathies in such characters as the one she sustained last night. The support was very good. The farce of the "Two Puffblows" went splendidly.

To-morrow there will be two "gala-day performances." In the afternoon "Under the Gaslight" will be revived, with its kaleidoscopic attractions. In the evening "Enoch Arden" leads the bill, followed by the "Star Spangled Banner" to be sung by Miss Scheller, Miss O'Connell, Mr. Harris and the full company. The farce of "Two Puffblows for Good Nature" with Mr. Margatta as Romeo Jaffer Jenkins, concludes the performance. We expect crowded houses.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The Committee of Arrangements for the 4th of July respectfully suggest to the merchants, business men and others in the city, that business places be closed to-morrow, to enable all to participate in the celebration of our nation's birthday.

R. T. BURTON, ISAAC GROSS, A. W. HARRIS, W. L. HENRY, A. L. CHETLAIN, H. S. BEATTIE, H. W. VAISBITT, Committee.

CINDERELLA.—We understand that this great spectacular and operatic piece is under preparation at the Theatre, to be produced with a splendor that will surpass anything ever presented on our boards. From what we have learned it will require a run of several houses to reimburse the management for the expense involved in getting it up. Such enterprise is worthy of the most liberal encouragement.

PROGRESSING.—Hon. Joseph A. Young returned last night from Echo Canyon, and heinously on this morning that the work on the railroad is progressing finely, over half of the distance from the head of Echo to the mouth of Weber is located, and more than the distance located is taken in contracts.

NO PAPER.—To-morrow being the anniversary of the national birthday, there will be no issue of the NEWS, Type, clock, and everybody, but the reporters, will make a holiday of it. They, fortunate souls, have the privilege of being occupied in dignified labor, while the great mass are frittering away their time in pleasure and enjoyment. Isn't that a philosophical way of looking at the matter?

THE POST OFFICE.—Postmaster Street informs us, for the benefit of the public, that the Post Office will be opened from 9 to 10 a.m., to-morrow morning, the 3rd.

Two splendid performances at the Theatre to-morrow.

DUTY OF THE DAY.

To be sung to-morrow in the New Tabernacle by James M. Hardie, Esq.

TUNE—MARSEILLAISE.

Ye patriot hosts awake; assailing,
Too long you've slumbered in the past;
No longer stoop to hirelings railing,
Or waive your right as in the past!
Or waive your right as in the past!
Shall cunning schemers, mischief framing,
With venal press, a heartless band,
Arouse your foes throughout the land,
While silence reigns and liberty lies waning!

CHORUS.
Arouse! arouse! to-day! and Territorial sway,
Shall soon, shall soon have passed away,
In Deseret the free!
Rejoice, rejoice, all hearts are one,
For Deseret the free!

Or shall we still see manhood yielding
While hosts of youth crowd now our land!
Say shall we feel our birthright pleading
To give them aid, and aid each hand!
To give them aid, and aid each hand!
While changes stealing, unseen ending
Corrupted place held by the traitorous hand

Now waste, demoralize our land,
While kings and tyrants, joyous reeling!
CHORUS.
Arouse! arouse! to-day! and Territorial sway,
Shall soon, shall soon have passed away,
In Deseret the free!
Rejoice, rejoice, all hearts are one,
For Deseret the free!

'Tis time; time now, awake to daring,
Secure what myriads bid you seek,
Your fathers, sire, who yet are caring
Not for themselves, but sons to speak,
Not for themselves, but sons to speak,
No coward cringing slaves; demanding
As freedom men, a powerful band;
Who wish a State to grace their land,
So peace and liberty have standing!

CHORUS.
Arouse! arouse! to-day! that Territorial sway
Shall soon, shall soon be passed away,
And Deseret be free!
Hurrah, hurrah, shout, shout, hurrah,
For Deseret the free!

Salt Lake City, July 3, 1909.
