

LABOR LEADERS CALLED TRAITORS

Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell Charged With Betraying
The Cause of Labor.

QUEER BASIS FOR THE CHARGE

They Had Committed the Horrible Offense of Having Dined With President Eliot of Harvard.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—From the standpoint of the unexpected and sensational, today's session of the American Federation of Labor was the most exciting one yet held. During the heated debate which followed the unexpected introduction of the question of Socialism before the delegates, Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell were charged with being traitors to the cause of labor. These charges and the bitter Socialistic debate which followed were caused by the introduction of the following resolution by Delegate Victor Berger of Milwaukee:

RESOLUTION.

"Whereas, the unprecedented concentration of wealth in the United States and the rapid development of the trusts in almost every branch of industry make it obvious that capitalism will soon reach its culmination point and will have to make room for another phase of civilization; and

"Whereas, it is evident that this nation is destined to take the lead in this grand struggle for better conditions and higher culture; therefore, be it

"Resolved, that we hereby recommend to all organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor to have their members study the economic conditions, to have lectures upon these subjects in their lodge homes and at the meetings set apart for this purpose and to do everything in their power for the enlightenment and the actual advancement of the proletariat."

BATTLE OPENS.

The resolutions committee reported to the convention that it recommended the adoption of the measure with the exception of the clause following the first "Whereas." A Socialist delegate arose and asked why the particular section be expurgated. This opened the floodgates of oratory and vituperation and the battle was not over until an hour and fifteen minutes after the regular time for adjournment. By an overwhelming vote the delegates then passed the resolution as recommended by the committee and expressed their confidence in John Mitchell and Samuel Gompers.

Max Hayes, who championed the Socialistic doctrine in a speech, so aroused the galleries that they cheered him for several minutes. This caused President Gompers to threaten to clear the hall of all visitors if demonstrations of the kind were repeated. The debate became warmer and some of the best speeches of the session were made during its course. Criticisms and recriminations flew thick and fast.

CALLS BERGER LIAR.

Feeling ran so high that John Mitchell rose in the convention and stated that unless Delegate Victor Berger of Milwaukee was able to prove his statement that he (Mitchell) had been a traitor to the workingman, he must stand before the eyes of all present as a convicted liar. Then a motion was made to suspend the rules and allow President Gompers and John Mitchell an opportunity to defend themselves.

The trouble arose over a printed slip distributed to some delegates which charged Mr. Gompers and Mr. Mitchell with dining with President Eliot of Harvard. The article in question said the place at which the meal was eaten was an unfair house, and that President Eliot was the man who called the "scab" a hero. It bore the heading, "Are They Traitors?"

GOMPERS' REPLY.

The reply of President Gompers was the most bitter and impassioned, and the feeling among the delegates was tense. He admitted the attendance upon the dinner but denied every inference drawn therefrom and declared that as long as he was connected with the labor movement he would fight against politics being mixed with unionism.

MITCHELL'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Mitchell made a quiet address.

A WISE-GROCER

"Ah, Mr. Golden Gate, glad to see you. Walk right in," said Mr. Wise. "I don't mind telling you that my best customers won't drink anything but Golden Gate Coffee."

"And—now don't give this away—good coffee brings new, and holds old, trade."

"Yes, you can make regular 30 day shipments so as to keep the coffee fresh. Good plan this packing roasted coffee in aroma-tight tins."

Nothing goes with GOLDEN GATE COFFEE but satisfaction. No prizes—no coupons—no crockery. I send 2 lb. aroma-tight tins. Never sold in bulk.

but was accorded the closest attention. He was loudly applauded when he said that he defied anyone to point to any act of his which might be interpreted as against the interests of the workmen.

CHICAGO TROUBLE.

The trouble between the Chicago Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor has been settled by voting to uphold the decision of the executive board of the latter organization, with the proviso that William Schardt, president of the Chicago Federation, and delegate to the American Federation of Labor, be seated, and a stay of execution of 30 days be allowed during which time President Gompers is directed to go to Chicago and confer with the delegates to the federal committee in an endeavor to adjust the dispute. If no agreement can be reached the suspension of the Chicago Federation will then become permanent. This ruling seated Delegate Schardt, but it upholds the action of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

The question of Japanese exclusion was introduced and caused considerable discussion to emanate from the western delegates. The convention voted unanimously in favor of the exclusion measure as introduced, which provided for the exclusion of Japanese and Koreans on lines similar to the exclusion of Chinese under the existing law.

Not only did the convention vote in favor of excluding these Monks from the mainland, but from every insular possession.

The convention then voted favorably upon a proposition calling upon President Gompers to appoint a committee of three to draw up a petition on the question that might at an early date be presented to Congress. The plan adopted also called for the circulation of this petition in every organization affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, that signatures might be obtained. These signed papers are then to be returned to the executive council and combined into one monster petition to Congress.

The convention also went on record as being unanimously in favor of the universal adoption of the advisory initiative and the advisory referendum.

Delegate Fitzpatrick of Chicago, one of the leaders of the fight in the matter of the central body of that city against the American Federation, took the floor and flatly denied the statements of President Gompers regarding certain fair and unfair houses. Gompers made reply that the attackers of the policy of the official organ virtually accused the leaders of selling out to the enemy and that in doing so they were playing into their hands. After much more debate of this character, indulged in by many delegates, the matter was put before the convention, which voted to support the managers of the paper.

COLORADO SITUATION.

The following sentiments regarding the Colorado situation were introduced by Delegate Victor Berger and referred by a vote of the convention to the executive council for their action.

"Resolved, that the twenty-fourth convention of the American Federation of Labor hereby expresses its satisfaction and gratification over the defeat of that capitalistic tyrant, Gov. Peabody of Colorado, for his failure to justify, and, finally, be it

"Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to President Meyer of the Western Federation of Miners and to the chairman of the game leaders of the so-called Citizens' alliance in the Cripple Creek district."

A resolution to substitute the industrial system for the system of trade unionism now in existence in labor organizations was lost. The vote stood 113 to 12. The latter vote indicates the strength of the Socialists in the convention.

Action of far-reaching importance was taken on the report of a special committee on the demand by the Typographical union for an eight-hour day. The convention voted unanimously to endorse the demand and pledged itself to aid the movement financially by levying an assessment on each of the millions of members if such a course should become necessary. The Typographical union has set January, 1905, as the time when the eight-hour day will be demanded by that organization, Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Fort Worth, Tex., invited the delegates to hold their next session in the respective cities.

A LOVING HUSBAND.

Gets Mad at His Wife and Hangs Himself.

New York, Nov. 21.—Dissatisfied with his wife's housekeeping and finally growing himself into a towering rage, because dinner was not ready at the moment he arrived home, John P. Siegler, a furrier, hanged himself at his home in the Bronx.

Mrs. Siegler told the coroner that she tried hard to conduct the household to please her husband, but he was never satisfied. She said he attempted to poison himself two months ago, and later tried to kill both by putting poison in the tea.

MISSOURI SENATORSHIP.

President is Taking no Part in Fight for It.

Washington, Nov. 21.—The following statement was given out at the White House today:

"Any statement that the president is taking any part whatever in the Missouri senatorial contest, directly or indirectly, for or against any candidate, has no foundation whatever in fact. The president will not interfere in the slightest degree in the contest."

KERENS NOT IN RACE.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 21.—R. C. Kerens of St. Louis, who was in the city today, said: "I am in the race for United States senator to succeed Senator Cockrell to stay. I have not been a candidate for any office before and I believe that my services to my party entitle me to this one."

JUDGE SWAYNE CASE.

Investigation of Impachment Charges Resumed.

Washington, Nov. 21.—A sub-committee of the house judiciary committee today resumed the investigation of the impeachment charges against Judge Charles Swayne, of the Northern district of Florida. Representative Gillies of California, a member of the committee, was unable to attend. The committee, however, decided to go ahead with the investigation and Chas. T. Forbes, a clerk in the land office, was called as a witness. He testified that Judge Swayne regarding a timber trespass case in Florida, in which he alleged that Judge Swayne had exacted the fine a second time from the trespassers.

that J. N. Stripling told him (Stockton) he could get anything he wanted in the way of reclusiveness if he would stop the prosecution against Judge Swayne. This occurred 10 years ago.

Ellis P. Davis of Marion, Fla., testified in regard to an attempt to settle the Hoskins case which was pending before Judge Swayne for $500.

A FOOD PRESERVATIVE.

Anything Dipped Into It Keeps Fresh for Months.

Berlin, Nov. 21.—The war department is experimenting in German Southwest Africa and China with a new food preservative, a sort of jelly. Sauces, soups, preserved meat or butter is dipped in this melted jelly, which dries and forms a skin impervious to air. When peeled off months later it leaves the food as fresh as when prepared. The imperial health office finds that the substance of meat or other foods is not affected by the preservative, which would permit of foreign food being imported in a preserved state. It costs the war department about one cent for each pound of meat.

BRECKINRIDGE'S FUNERAL.

Largest in Kentucky Since Those of Clay and Senator Beck.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 21.—The funeral of Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, held here today, was the largest since the funeral of Henry Clay and Senator James R. Beck. Leading citizens from all over the Blue Grass region and lawyers and prominent men of other cities were present. All the local civic bodies, Confederate comrades, Fayette county bar and other societies to which the deceased belonged, attended and formed a procession which escorted the body to the cemetery. City offices and all business houses suspended business during the funeral hour.

GERMAN AND AMERICA.

The Novoe Vremya Says They Have Changed Positions.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 21.—The Novoe Vremya today, discussing the recent speeches of President Roosevelt, Secy. of the Navy Morton and Chancellor von Buelow, argues that the United States and Germany are reversing their roles, the former now being in favor of increasing armament and the latter being ambitious to take part in the peaceful councils of nations.

THE SICILIAN PRINCE

Lies Hard and Fast on the Shore of Long Island.

New York, Nov. 21.—The steamer Sicilian Prince of the Prince line, which went ashore four miles east of the Life saving station at Long Beach, L. I., at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, now lies hard on the beach.

This morning the steamer moved two lengths in shore. The sea increased steadily, and the tug which had been endeavoring to float the steamer, abandoned the attempt for the time being.

Soon after the tug steamed away the liner swung half around and now lies with her broadside exposed to the sea. All the steamer passengers who had been on the Sicilian Prince since she ran into the mud bank yesterday, were taken off today and brought up to this city in tugs.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

Man Says He Was Implicated in A Murder.

Bakersfield, Cal., Nov. 21.—A middle aged man walked into the county jail today and gave himself up to the police authorities saying that he was implicated in a murder that was committed in North Carolina 15 years ago.

He gave the name of William Crutchfield and stated that the murder took place at Winston, N. C., and that he and three other boys were the guilty parties. He said that he was released after a preliminary examination; that his conscience has been troubling him ever since, and that he wants to be sent back to Winston to tell all he knows.

BAD SITUATION IN MACEDONIA.

Various Elements of the Christian Population Are Fighting One Against the Other.

London, Nov. 22.—The Standard today prints a long letter from Constantinople dealing with the situation in Macedonia. The writer says there has been a remarkable change in the last six months. Formerly it was a question of protecting the Christian population against violence, but now it has become one of intervention between various Christian elements. Since the policing of Macedonia has been taken out of Turkey's hands, the correspondent says, there have been recurring conflicts between rival nationalities, Bulgars, Serbs and Greeks, accompanied by barbarities quite as bad as those with which the Turks were formerly reproached. The truth is, according to the Standard's correspondent, each of these Christian elements wants independence, and their hatred of each other exceeds their detestation of the Turks. The Austro-Russian reform scheme, therefore, has not hastened the solution of the Macedonian problem or brought autonomy any nearer.

A serious state of unrest continues in Armenia, where killing and looting prevail, according to a letter received in London today by the Bible Lands Missionary Aid society from Dr. Reynolds, of the American board of foreign missions. Writing from Van, Oct. 26, Dr. Reynolds says:

"Both the political and economical conditions are very unsatisfactory. Poverty has greatly increased, business is pretty much at a standstill, and to crown all the revolutionaries are so much in evidence that the people are in constant fear lest another massacre be precipitated. At the beginning of September, Van was brought to the very verge of massacre, and more recently an important village has been looted and burned with 30 or more persons killed. So you see the prospects for the winter are far from bright."

The latest mails bring communications to the Bible Lands society from missionaries in Macedonia, confirming the reports of distress there.

PROGRAM OF REFORM.

Vienna, Nov. 21.—The government today issued an official report of the working of the Austro-Russian consular reports. The period since January last shows that the condition of the provinces has greatly improved, the Bulgarian government's measures against the revolutionary movement having largely contributed to the success of the reforms. Up till August 6, on about 80 per cent of the total number of fugitives had been repatriated, while the financial condition of the provinces was again satisfactory, showing a surplus of $10,000,000, which is sufficient to cover the expenses of the troops maintained there in normal times.

The revolutionary conditions of the provinces in recent years necessitated a large increase of the military forces and a consequent disorganization of finances.

The report remarks that the fund given Inspector-General Hilmi Pasha for the rebuilding of houses is still quite insufficient.

Tremendous Rainfall at Tacoma.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 21.—The severe storm of the past two days caused this morning. The local weather bureau reports a total rainfall of 5.97 inches in 48 hours up to eight o'clock this morning. It is unprecedented in the records of the local office.
