TO THE MUSICALLY INCLINED,

And to those desirous of Learning Music!

Mrs. WHITE, of Rochester,

TEACHES ROBINSON'S American Method for the Piano-forte, which is so far superior to the old method of teaching the Piano-forte, Melodeon or Organ that its full importance can scarcely be estimated. It is a century ahead of all other methods for the Piano—Pupils acquiring a knowledge of Music in an almost incredibly short time.

References to and letters of recommendations from the most eminent Professors of Music in the East.

Mrs. WHITE is stopping at the TOWNSEND

HOUSE for a limited time, where she can be found, and full particulars learned. Private tuition given. d28-1f

PATRICK LYNCH,

d10-3 Clerk U. S. 3d District Court, Utah.

[Special to the Deseret Evening News.]

By Telegraph.

Washington, 7.—Senate.—Wilson introduced a bill vacating certain offices in Georgia, and empowering the constitutional convention to fill the same. Sumner called the attention of the Senate to the fact that the President had not returned the Equal Rights bill for the District of Columbia; and now asked leave to introduce a bill similar. A point was raised whether the bill, not having been returned, was not law. After considerable discussion, the bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

House.—The bill to repeal the cotton tax was considered, and an amendment, exempting the cotton still in the hands of producers, was lost. A long debate ensued.

The Speaker presented a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, transmitting a report of the special

Commissioner of Revenue; also, a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, relative to the surveying and bringing into market of the lands of Alaska.

A bill to facilitate the payment of soldiers' bounties came up; and for an extra number of clerks to prepare the papers necessary to secure the payment of bounties, which passed.

Pike reported back the bill authorizing the sale of such ironclad vessels as are not required by the interests of the service; and stated that the bill applied to four ironclads now laid up. After debate, the bill passed.

The Senate joint resolution passed, authorizing Admiral Thatcher to accept a decoration from the King of the Sandwich Islands.

Schenck, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill to compel the payment of taxes on distilled spirits, when withdrawn from bonded warehouses, which passed.

The House went into a Committee of the Whole.

Washington, 7.—The report of Senator Howard, on the case of Secretary Stanton, presented to-day, covers over a hundred sheets of foolscap. The report cites the circumstances of removal, and then quotes the Tenure of Office bill, to show that Congress intended to prevent such a removal, except for misconduct or legal disqualification, mutual dislike, or difference of opinion, not being a sufficient cause. It says the President by using the power of suspension which, created by the law, exists only under the Tenure of Office bill, recognizes the binding force of the law; therefore the Committee do not propose to discuss the constitutionality of the law, but only to examine the reasons upon which the President relies to justify his action. The report then reviews the President's action, relative to the reconstructed measures of Congress, and shows that the whole course of his conduct has been in violent antagonism to the will of the nation expressed through Congress. Stanton on the other hand, showed a faithful execution of these acts, and had good reason to believe that if he resigned, the President would fill the vacancy with an enemy to the congressional plan of reconstruction, and thus thwart the execution of those statutes. He therefore refused to consent when the President requested him to resign.

The report declares the President's doctrine is not only a step towards tyranny, but is the issuance of tyranny.

It then proceeds to pay a warm tribute to Secretary Stanton; and concludes by submitting a resolution, refusing to concur in the President's suspension.

Washington, 7.—The Senate, after a long debate, passed the bill to repeal the cotton tax, amended so as to confine the exemption to a year.

The 1868 statement of the public debt shows a total of $250,812,566,010, being an increase of $50,000,000, in the debt bearing coin interest, and a decrease of $51,000,000 in the debt bearing currency interest. The increase of the total debt
