UNITED ORDER RULES.—Having had frequent enquiries for copies of the "Rules that should be observed by Members of the United Order" since the first edition of the same was all sold, we have lately printed an authorized edition on fine fancy colored paper, on a sheet 12½ by 20 inches, suitable for framing or mounting on a stretcher and hanging up in the houses of the Saints. They can be had at this office, or mailed to any address for 10 cents per copy.

The Relief Society Woman's Mercantile Association

is opening a store for the sale of home manufactures in the building lately occupied by the Woman's Centennial Territorial Fair, known as the Old Constitution Building, opposite Z. C. M. I. store.

We are now ready to receive home-made useful and ornamental articles of all kinds, which we will sell on commission.

Many of our citizens have felt the want of a place devoted exclusively to Utah productions, and now that we are, in accordance with the wishes of President Young, uniting our humble efforts in this direction, we confidently trust that we shall not only have the support of all branches of the Relief Society throughout the valleys of the mountains, but also of our brethren and all others who feel an interest in the future welfare and prosperity of Utah.

Commencing as we do without capital, we wish it distinctly understood that at present we can only sell on commission.

ELIZA R. SNOW, President.
PRISCILLA M. STAINES,
Vice President.
ELIZABETH DAVIS,
Secretary.

THE RAPID popularity gained in this Territory by the OLIVER CHILLED PLOW during the short time it has been introduced here is something marvelous. This splendid plow has distanced all competition, and now stands at the head of the list, unequaled by any implement of the kind ever brought to Utah. With the Oliver Plow FALL PLOWING can be done QUICKLY and EASILY and WITHOUT IRRIGATING, no matter how hard and dry the soil. It is offered on the most favorable terms by Howard Sebree, at the Bain Wagon Depot, one-half block south of Theatre. d268 is an unfailing prescription for a faultless complexion. Sallowness, roughness, sunburn, moth patches, freckles, discoloration, dark spots, unwholesome paleness, tan, pimples, eruptions, redness and every other kind of blemish disappear like magic by the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. A few applications applied with a soft linen cloth will leave the delicate hues of refined beauty and youthful bloom. Its application cannot be detected, and it is absolutely free from all possible harm, warranted purely a vegetable extract from the flowers of Southern France.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 55 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine, partially cloudy.

Opened Business.—Mr. Jasper Conrad has opened business on his own account, opposite the Theatre.

Telegraph Office.—The Deseret Telegraph Company opened an office to-day, at Leeds, Utah, the nearest point to the new mining camp, near that place.

Home From England. — Elders David McKenzie and B. W. Carrington, who have been to Great Britain, on missions, reached this city on Tuesday evening. The last named Elder was accompanied by his wife.

Under Bonds.—Cannon, the alleged partner of Lawrence Walker in a cattle stealing affair, had an examination, before Justice Pyper, yesterday afternoon, and, in default of finding $500 bonds, was committed to jail, to await the action of the grand jury.

On the Way.—By postal card from Elder John Druce, we learn that himself and Elders John G. Midgley, Oliver S. Robinson, Allen S. Rose and Dr. Riggs, missionaries for the east, were at Ogden yesterday, and about to start for New York.

In the South.—Elder Wm. Bramall, prior to starting on his mission east, is on a tour in the southern counties on behalf of the NEWS. He is heartily commended to the bishops, presidents, and people generally in those counties, and any courtesies extended to him on his trip will be correspondingly appreciated at this office.

From Brigham City.— Sheriff John Burt, of Brigham City, is in town, and will probably leave tomorrow for the Temple quarry, where he will remain some time to assist Brother James C. Livingstone, the superintendent. Four others from the same place, are expected to-morrow, to engage in the same work.

Tabernacle Meetings.—We are requested to announce that, in consequence of the inclemency of the weather, the religious services at the Tabernacle, on Sunday afternoons, will be discontinued until further notice. Afternoon services will be held at the various Ward Meeting-houses, as well as in the evening, beginning on next Sunday, November 19th.

Conductors' Excursion.—The excursion party of railroad conductors, which arrived in the city last night, has been visiting the several points of interest in and around Salt Lake to day. The party is large, numbering in the vicinity of a hundred, and includes a number of ladies. They turned out in fine livery carriages, and almost assumed the proportions of a regular procession. We wish them a pleasant time on their trip.

Woman's Exponent for Nov. 15 contains "Women as Managers of Business," "Relief Societies Reports," "Be Consistent," "Refinement," "Aaron's Rod," "Women In Literature," "Temperal Salvation," "Store up Grain," "Woman's Commission House," "Mixed Education," "Music, and Woman as a Musician," "Leap Year," "Prophecy or Vision," "Good English," "Women's Faces," etc.

Whose Mare?—Yesterday, a fellow, supposed to belong to the Tasker horse-stealing gang, was endeavoring to dispose of a mare in the city, at a price far below its intrinsic value. The suspicion being strong that the animal had been stolen, the United States marshal, from whom it can be obtained by the rightful owners, took possession of it. It is a dark bay, roan or buckskin pinto mare, four years old, branded S on the left thigh, three legs white, white face and white on under jaw.

The Grain Question.—A special meeting of the committees on the grain question will be held in the basement-room of the Social Hall, on Friday, November 17th, at 2 o'clock p. m. The officers of Relief Societies in all the Wards of the city, and others interected in the subject, are hereby notified, by order of the board. A punctual attendance is requested.

EMMELINE B. WELLS,
President Central Committee.

Wanted to Know.—The whereabouts of Sarah Ann Auger, aged about 45 years, who is supposed to have come to Utah about eleven years ago. She was the wife of Jabez Auger, who was a boot maker by trade. Any information concerning her will be gladly received by her brothers Mathew Cosgrove, No. 21 Thorn Street, Sanderson, St. Miles Platting, Manchester, England, or by Peter Later, Harrisville, Weber County, Utah.—Ogden Junction, Nov. 15.

Theatre. — To-morrow evening, the eminent English actor, Mr. Geo. Rignold will appear at the Theatre as "Claude Melnotte" in the "Lady of Lyons," and "William" in Black Eyed Susan." Miss Colebrook appears as "Pauline."

The engagement of Mr. Rignold extends to Saturday evening, including a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. R. is an actor who has risen to fame recently, having played his specialty of "Henry the Fifth" in the East in a manner to win golden opinions from all sorts of people, a play, however, which could not be presented here under existing circumstances.

The Laying.—The laying of the five courses of rock that were to be set upon the walls of the Temple this season is nearly completed. When this is done, the work of laying will be closed for this year, but it is intended to continue the quarrying of rock as long as the weather will permit and the cutting without cessation, until the completion of the building.

A Gloomy Picture. — A gentleman of Newcastle, Indiana, a professor of music, writes to a gentleman in this city, and draws a gloomy picture of the general outlook in the United States—

"We are waiting anxiously the result of the election. I wish it was decided so people could talk something besides politics, and do something besides bet and quarrel and call hard names.

"We had one man shot here on Tuesday, at the polls. He called the man who shot him a 'd——d rebel,' although the man had fought in the last war in the union army, was wounded, and gets a pension. They had to remove him from the jail by night, as the mob threatened to lynch him. All who do not support the present administration and vote the republican ticket are termed rebels, no matter how good soldiers they were in the Union army during the last war.

"This might be a good, beautiful and prosperous country, but it is in a fearful state now. There will surely be another war by and by, worse than the last. It will not be North against South and vice versa, but it will be family against family, brother against brother, and wives and husbands against each other. The gutters of our streets will by and by be made to run with human blood, or I am greatly deceived. I never observed the deep and heartfelt hatred existing between the Republicans and Democrats as much as I have the last year. It wants but a few leading voices on either side to utter the war cry. How strange, and this is called the country and age of civilization.'

The great Prophet of the 19th century, who was instrumental in ushering in the last dispensation, Joseph Smith, not only predicted, nearly forty-four years ago, the war of the rebellion, between the northern and southern States, but also prophesied of a later, more terrible and bloody war, when city would be arrayed against city, county against county, State against State, until every man's hand should be against his neighbor, and those who would not take up arms would have to flee to the place of location of the Saints for safety. The predictions of the Prophet Joseph, so far as they have been fulfilled, have taken place with as great accuracy as if the revelations had been given after the events had occurred, and so will those the fulfilment of which relates still to the future. Those which have had their fulfilment are before the world to-day, to be pondered upon and considered, and they are hard facts for those who are unbelievers in the true character of the mission of Joseph Smith, and as time rolls on such facts will multiply and become more apparent to the wise who seek to understand the "signs of the times," which are pregnant with events of the greatest magnitude, not only in this country, but in all the world, for the "Father has commenced to work a work among all nations," and he will accomplish it, for who can stay his hand?

CORRESPONDENCE.

Emigrated — Baptisms — Believers — Non-believers.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA,
Nov. 10, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

On the 20th of last April, I left Salt Lake City on a mission to the United States, with headquarters at this place. My health being poor and the weather stormy the first month after my arrival, I did little more during that time than cultivate an acquaintance with my surroundings. I found a few scattering Saints, and a small branch in each of the townships of Boomer and Calhoun, the former presided over by Elder Wm. Cusworth, the latter by Elder Ezra Vincent.

On the 20th of June, four church members, with family, friends and children to make a party of fourteen persons, left the Calhoun Branch for Utah, leaving only Elder Vincent and wife.

On the 23rd May, Elder Jos. G. Young, who had previously been laboring in Missouri and Illinois, came to my assistance and labored with me until the 10th of August. At that date his health had been poor for sometime. Having been released with the privilege of returning home, he felt to do so, and left for Utah on the above date. He was a pleasant companion and carried a good influence with him among the people.

On the 29th of Sept., I met Elder Eli H. Pierce, on his way home from Pennsylvania, where he had been successfully laboring about eleven months. Learning something of the condition of the work here, he very kindly proffered to remain and assist me about a month. Subsequently, President Young, by letter, directed him to continue with me the ensuing winter, an arrangement very satisfactory to myself.

Since my arrival here there have been eleven first and three re-baptisms, total fourteen. Twelve church members have moved to Utah, making, with family, friends and children, who went with them, a total of 25.

Elders Nicholas Smith and Zebedee Coltrin, jun., have been visiting friends and laboring in Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana. They occasionally report progress, and appear to be laboring zealously for the spread of truth.

This section of country contains many old time Saints, from Europe and Nauvo, whose faith measurably failed them when they had accomplished this much of the journey to Utah. It is also the common receptacle of those who, from various causes, became dissatisfied with Utah and have returned to seek an element more congenial with their natures.

I doubt whether there is another spot on earth, under the ever-varying shadow of sectarianChristianity where such a variety of religious elements intermingle. Here are those who try to think they are infidelt, deists, atheists. Here may may be found all the muddled theories of spiritualism, the various ites who have apostatized from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and every shade of fragmentary Christianity. All these varieties, with few exceptions, have one spirit in common — that of doubt and uncertainty. They are universally skeptical on the subject of religion, often doubting the truth of what they outwardly profess to believe.
