FLOATING FRAGMENTS.
 The streets of Salt Lake City are

Dyer has received St. Nicholas for March.

The Teapot Store, First South Street, was burglarized this morning.

The High Council will meet at seven o'clock to-night at the Council Chamber.

President William Budge, of Bear Lake, is in town. He came from the north on Saturday.

The Twelfth Ward officiated in the administration of the sacrament, at the Assembly Hall, yesterday afternoon.

Spring has just stepped into this valley and broken the back of winter, whose reign is evidently over.

Those who are not satisfied with the muddy spectacle presented by Salt Lake streets, can change the scene by going to see the Streets of New York to-night.

The Alta California said: Lee with's Specialty Company has made a great hit at the Bush Street Theatre. "Standing room only" is the nightly slogan displayed at the doors. The entertainment is undoubtedly the best in the line that has ever been given in the city.

A tramp, name unknown, met with a serious and probably fatal accident on the 23rd, in the round house at Rawlins. He was sitting, probably asleep, with his legs hanging over the edge of one of the pits, when one of the engines "backed up" and striking the unfortunate man, cut off both legs just below the knees.

A branch of the Sioux Indians have been engaged in stampeding and running off cattle in the northern portion of Wyoming, near Fort Hall, Kearney. The depredations are becoming so numerous as to prompt the Secretary of War to issue orders that unless they are stopped at once, the military will lend assistance to put a stop to the depredations, and punish those who are guilty. —Rawlins Journal.

The Union Pacific will build a new hospital at Denver. A site has been selected in the city limits, near the junction of the Denver Pacific and Kansas Pacific roads, and material for the immediate construction of the necessary buildings is being purchased. There have been 50 acres purchased at the point named. It is expected that the new hospital will be in a condition to receive patients some time late in May next.

A man who rooms at a certain restaurant, reports that he lost two hundred and seven dollars from his pocket-book. He states that when he came from his couch, yesterday morning, he felt his pocket-book under his pillow where he had placed it, the night before, on retiring to bed. He kept the matter until he returned breakfast at the house where he boards. He says he sent a young girl to his room for the book. She returned with it and handed it to him, but it was empty. —Ogden Herald, Saturday.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Priesthood Meeting.—The regular meeting of the Priesthood will convene in the Assembly Hall, on Saturday, March 4th, at 11 a. m. WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Committee.—The boy John Nash, who attempted to shoot and named "Ogden," on Saturday, has been committed to jail, to await the action of the grand jury, in default of $500 bonds.

Theatrical Benefit.—To-night the complimentary benefit of Mr. Geo. C. Stanley comes off at the Theatre. The place to be presented is "Streets of New York." The Sixth Infantry band will perform selections.

Seventies Meeting.—The Seventies will please take notice that their meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Council Chamber.

Legislature.—In the Council this afternoon, remonstrances were received from citizens of Platte County, protesting against the passage of the bill to change Probate Judges, and against changing the county seat of Platte County.

The bill for the protection of the industry was read and was being amended as we go to press.

The U. & W. Railroad.—It appears from the following, from the Franklin Chief, that the railroad referred to is not a dead issue, as has been generally supposed of late.

"The Utah & Wyoming Railroad will be laid with steel rails weighing six pounds to the yard, or nine tons of rails per mile. Mr. J. D. Jones, manager, has returned from New York, and is now at his home in Ogden."

A Rampant Female.—This afternoon a colored woman named Josie, made the splitters fly around Shingleton's saloon, on First South Street. Drink had turned her into a temporary crank, and she entered into a window-smashing campaign. The police finally got after her, she showed fight, having procured a hammer with which to end the career of officer Phillips. She was finally securely placed in the city jail.

BURGARS POILED.

G. F. CULMER'S STORE ENTERED BY BURGARS, WHO MAKE AN INFERENTIAL ATTEMPT TO DEMOLISH THE SAFE.

About four o'clock this morning, Mr. Charles Auer, of the firm of Auer & Murphy, First South Street, heard a peculiar report, like a heavy thud, in the vicinity of the premises. He seized a pistol and a light and went to the rear, but seeing no person around, he concluded that the noise had been caused by the fall of a barrel.

When Mr. G. F. Culmer, proprietor of the Teapot store, near Auer & Murphy's place, opened his premises this morning, the cause of the peculiar noise was explained. The place had been entered by burglars. The objective point aimed at by the robbers was the safe, into the door of which they bored a small hole, near the lock. Into this aperture they placed nitro-glycerine, using some putty as tamping.

A fuse was attached, and lighted, and an explosion which damaged the lock and started some portions of the safe, being the result. Luckily the injury was not sufficient to open it, so that the burglars were foiled.

The combination of the lock being displaced by the explosion, it could only be opened this morning by breaking the door into fragments, this being the only loss sustained by Mr. Culmer, which will probably be covered by $50.

The burglars entered by a small window in a high position in the glass windows in the rear. In descending from it they stepped upon a table, upon which are the plates of bare feet. After gaining the interior the robbers opened an east window and door, by which latter way they left the premises. They were evidently hungry, as they opened several sardine boxes and a jelly can and consumed the contents.

PERISHED IN THE SNOW.

About 35 miles from Taylor, Apache County, A. T., at a place called Phoenix Park, Brother James Hamer, a young man who was in the employ of Nelson Beebe, went out hunting on the 13th of January, in company with Daniel Camp. After an unsuccessful trip they decided to return home. It was snowing at the time and the two, in hopes of finding some turkeys, took different paths around a hill, agreeing to meet in the valley beyond. Camp arrived at the point they were to meet at but Hamer did not, and the former returned to Phoenix. A number of men started out to hunt for Hamer, and after several days' search, failed to find him. More help was got from Taylor and the hunt for the missing man was kept up without ceasing for thirty-eight days, but no trace of him has been discovered.

William Beebe, one of the searchers, returned to Taylor on the night of the 18th inst., it having been concluded to abandon the search until the snow leaves the ground. The efforts made to recover Brother Hamer have been very praiseworthy, the boys having endured considerable hardship, traveling about upon pack animals, over the hard crusted snow.

James Hamer was 22 years of age, and has four brothers and one sister living in the vicinity of Provo, Utah. The family emigrated from Pennsylvania to Utah about five years ago.

We are indebted for these details to Brother Lorenz H. Hatch.

The Howlers Howling.—Last night an anti-Mormon meeting was held in the M. E. Church. It was characterized of such gathering in general. The Rev. McNeice was the first speaker. He appeared to be fired up with the spirit of his religion, being slanderous, abusive and even vulgar, even devoting a portion of his remarks to the subject of carrots.

Governor Murray let off some rhetorical fire-crackers about the stars and stripes, and also talked in the spirit of bitterness, like a man with a disordered spleen. He evinced an overplus of words and a dearth of ideas that was not at all entertaining.

Ex-Judge Boreman, principally conspicuous for his indignities, was exceedingly personal and abusive. The little red-haired man with such expressions as "white-haired villain," etc. Nobody, however, pays much attention to this sort of nonentity.

General Bane was more baneful than ever before. This peculiarly pompous individual was appointed by the Government to look after land office business, but devotes a very large portion of his time to abusing people that are much better than himself.

An explanation was made to the effect that it was thought at first advisable to confine the voting upon some crusade resolutions identical to the "Mormons," to members of the Anti-Polygamy Society. It was decided, however, to accord the privilege of voting to the whole meeting. The motion, on the adoption of the resolution was carried. When the contrary vote was called, about half a dozen negatives responded. This enraged some of the large-souled, magnanimous minded liberals to such a degree that some of them called for the opposition voters to be "put out." One of the latter, a young fellow, remarked that if that was going to be done now was the time to start in. But the bawling business was not resorted to.

It is a curiosity to note the political status of the four speakers at this anti-Mormon "pow-wow." First—McNeice, sectarian preacher and reputed Federal office seeker. Second—Ed H. Murray, Federal office holder. Third—Jacob S. Boreman, ex-Federal office holder. Fourth—M. M. Bane, Federal office holder.

A CARD.

The undersigned desires to express his heartfelt thanks to those friends who kindly rendered assistance, and for their many expressions of sympathy and condolence in his late bereavement.

JOHN NEWMAN.

IN MEMORIAM OF ELIZABETH ANN WHITNEY.

ONE WHOM WE LOVE.

One, who has passed to the realms of the blest! One, whose frail body has found a sweet rest! One, who was truly a Latter-day Saint, One, who pressed onward, and never grew faint! One, who was faithful by night and by day, One, who in secret, was given to pray; One, who was ever so faithful and true; One, who gave blessings to me and to you! One, who was ever so cheerful and gay; One, who to spirits all starving, gave food! One, so sincere in her friendship and love, One, thro' long years, this sweet friendship did prove! One, tho' a woman, no envy was there, One, tho' a woman, her treasures she'd share! One, tho' a woman, no back-wounding vice, One, tho' a woman, yet childlike and true; One, many's the blessing she gave me and you! One, who had nothing but blessings for all, One, who responded to every call! One, the sweet singer of Zion was she, One, oft in these valleys has she blent you and me! One whom the angels will watch in her rest, One, who is safe in the realms of the blest! HANNAH T. KING. Salt Lake City, Feb. 20, 1882.

Caught and Committed. — Last week, James Johnson and Frank Lindquist, of Almy, went to Evanston to dissipate. While Johnson was drunk, Lindquist robbed him of his money and started west on a U. P. train. He was caught at Echo, and taken back to Evanston, where he was committed, in default of $500, to await the action of the grand jury.

That Accident.—The full name of the carpenter mentioned in Saturday's News, as having broken his neck by falling from an ice house, the roof of which he was shingling, at Wagener's brewery, was Fritz Kammerl. An inquest was held on Saturday evening by Coroner Taylor, the verdict being in accordance with the facts. The body was conveyed to the First Ward and confided to the care of the wife and family of the deceased. He was 52 years old, and a native of Germany.

DRUGGISTS AND PHYSICIANS.
 A physician, complaining bitterly about dull times, went to his drug-gist to find out the reason why, at this season of the year, his practice was not so extensive as formerly; also, to find out what medicines his brother druggist offered to attract away his patients. He was startled when his druggist answered as follows: Doctor, coughs and colds are very prevalent, but every one is purchasing Hale's Honey of Horse-hound and Tar, and recover so rapidly that there is no necessity for calling in a physician. Again, the reason that Dr. F., on 14th Street, is having so many patients is owing to the frankness he adopted in prescribing in every case of Coughs, Colds, etc., a bottle of Hale's Honey of Horse-hound and Tar, and finding it successful, he has concluded in future that all his patients when troubled with any disease of the lungs, shall immediately commence taking Hale's Honey of Horse-hound and Tar.

The druggist's advice was snatched, and the almost discouraged physician now is considered a successful practitioner. His patients are bound to Hale's Honey of Horse-hound and Tar, which in all cases is Hale's Honey of Horse-hound and Tar. Sold by all druggists. Price 30 cents and $1. Large size much the cheaper. MEDALS AND TESTIMONIALS.

IT IS A MATTER OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE that many houses have relied for their reputation, in their several lines of business, upon the obtaining and advertising of medals, diplomas and testimonials, and that the obtaining of the same has become an affair of management, intrigue and often of downright bribery, rather than a question of intrinsic merit, is well understood by those who have had even the smallest amount of personal experience in competitive contests; and the fact that the awards obtained are made the subject of the can but be apparent to the general public, the thinking portion of whom understand and appreciate these matters at their true value. The many direct and indirect charges of fraud, favoritism and collusion in reference to the awards at our late and the very general method pursued by the majority of exhibitors, successful and unsuccessful alike, in regard to the value of awards distributed, afford only further corroboration of the views long held by many of our most advanced thinkers, that the whole system of competitive awards is radically wrong, and that instead of its being a fair test of the merits or qualities of the articles in competition, it is but a source of

JEALOUSY, CORRUPTION AND FALSEHOOD.

This principle now so generally understood has been recognized and acted upon by GEORGE WOODS & COMPANY from the beginning of their business career; and they have

and for similar reasons have never solicited or published a testimonial from professional musicians. That they have acquired such an enviable reputation without the aid of such efforts as many of their competitors have found necessary to adopt, can but be considered as not only an indication of the superiority of these instruments, but of the

CORRECTNESS OF OUR VIEWS UPON THIS IMPORTANT AND OFTEN MISSED QUESTION.

We sell these Instruments for Cash and on Installments, at remarkably Low Figures.
