A New Klondike Company.
New York, July 31.—The Times says:

A new Klondike gold mining company, the Klondike Gold mining company of 55 Wall street, is incorporated under the laws of New York, with a capital of $100,000.

Frederick G. Corning, consulting engineer, is vice president and manager, and Thomas J.
Hartley, a member of the mining exchange, is secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Hartley stated yesterday that the scheme of the company and started for the Yukon river can be seen by the company's name and they will arrive at the Klondike before the river is frozen over.

He says the entire enterprise will be carried out by the proposed railway and telegraph lines are constructed.
In twelve months time I expect to see all difficulties of travel overcome.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Ex-Mining Recorder Monk Is Fined $100 by Judge Cherry.

REFUSES TO OBEY RECORDS

Court Gives Him Until Monday—City of Mount Pleasant Loses The Griffin Case—Court Orders.

For refusing to obey a writ of mandate issued by Judge Cherry on Monday last and now returns this morning, James T. Monk, ex-mining recorder for the Big Cottonwood district, was this morning fined $100, and unless the order of the court is obeyed by Monday, he will in all probability be sent to jail.

According to the demand of the district in court today, there can be little doubt but that he would prefer imprisonment, in delivering the mining records as is alleged to be in possession of over to County Recorder James C. Jensen. Mr. Jensen, J.
A. Williams, deputy recorder in court today, that he had advised his client to turn over the books, but that he had refused to do so. Attorney Williams said that he would like to test the constitutibility of the law upon which the order of the court was based, and for that reason asked that Monk be imprisoned, so that he can carry proceedings against him, and the court of last resort pass upon the question.

Attorney Putnam, who represented Recorder Jensen, contended that, according to the statutes, a fine shall be imposed in the first instance, where a warrant has been issued for the arrest and imprisonment should be left to obey the second time. Judge Cherry then imposed a fine of $100, whereupon Attorney Williams said he would stay or execution, in order to allow him to take other steps as may be necessary to test the question.
Attorney Putnam objected to this, and Judge Cherry ruled the motion.
The court then made a further order, in the effect that Monk be given until 10 a. m. Monday to comply with the order of the court.
