THEATRE.—"Bells" went better last night than it did the previous night.

There is a fine bill for this evening, on the occasion of Mr. Lindsay's benefit, a bill which ought to be sufficient to draw a large house. The programme embraces the popular sensation drama of "The Three Guardsmen, or Queen, Cardinals, and Adventurer," and the evergreen farce of "Box and Cox." The cast of the play is extensive and comprises a strong array of talent.

Mr. Lindsay appears as "D'Artagnan," the adventurer; Miss Walters as "Anne of Austria"; Mrs. Keay as "Lady de Winter"; Miss Simons as "Constance"; Mr. Morris as "Cardinal Richelieu"; Messrs. Graham, Margott, and Maguire as "Three Musketeers"; Mr. Dudley as "George Villiers"; Mr. Bowring as "Boniface"; Mr. Harris as "Pouch"; Mr. Thompson as "Captain De Trove"; Mr. Clegg as "Beau Bo Rochefort"; Mr. Milburn as "Chevalier De Tour."

The farce "Measles, Margaret and Graham will endeavor to send the audience home in the best humor.

For to-morrow evening, the last of the engagement of Mr. Lindsay, "Jack Cade."

On Monday evening Professor Bosco will astound the theatre goers with his wonderful illusory arts.

TWO DAYS' MEETINGS.—We are requested to remind the Saints living at Draperville, Big and South Cottonwoods, Fort Herriman and West Jordan, of the two days' meetings to be held at the first mentioned place for the purpose of ordination, and that all who are cordially invited to attend. The Elders having appointments to those meetings are requested to be punctual in filling them.

A GOOD CHANCE.—Our dispatches announce the recent arrival of numbers of Italian immigrants at New York, and speak of more coming. These immigrants appear to be poor and mostly destitute. Would not this be a good opportunity for Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Dakota, Wisconsin, or any other State or Territory which have been crying out for immigrants, to send to New York and fetch along these Italians? If the broad acres of the West are to be filled with hands arriving from Europe certainly needed.

In the West are the scores, in the East are the bands. Let them be brought together.

A NICE Muddle.—That is at New Orleans just now. Governor Warmouth and his legislature and the district court are trying to abolish Governor Pinchbeck and his legislature and the custom house, and Governor Pinchbeck and his legislature and the custom house are trying to abolish Governor Warmouth and his legislature and the district court. Governor Grant is disgusted with the whole affair, but recognizes and supports Pinchbeck, so that he is likely to triumph and Warmouth and his legislature are likely to be beaten. It is in very bad taste, just at the juncture when we were told that all was peace everywhere but in Utah, for Louisiana to be raising such a noise as this, and Alabama and Mississippi and Georgia another. The North Carolina Republicans behaved much better by voting heavily for Merrimon and thus solving their little local temporopolitical problem.

NEW MEETING HOUSES.—We learn, from M. A. Speirs that the Tenth Ward new meeting house is rapidly nearing completion, and that it will be sufficiently advanced for a social gathering to be held in it on Christmas evening.

The new school and meeting house of the Fifth and Sixth Wards is also progressing.

It is a two story building. The first room is to be devoted to school purposes and the second to meeting houses.

The first public meeting will be held in the building a week from next Sunday, but it will be in the lower room, as the upper one will not be finished for some time.

WANTED A LAMP.—A large and suitable lamp or some such distinguishing object should be placed in front of the post office, in order to give that place more conspicuity at night. Difficulty is experienced in finding a lamp unassociated with the exact locality of the post office in finding it in the evening.

WILLARD CITY, Box Elder Co., Dec. 18, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir—Two years ago a new school house, two stories high, 48 x 27 feet, to be built of rock, was designed, based on a vote by the tax payers, of three per cent, and, at a subsequent meeting of tax payers, another three per cent was afterwards voted to the same object. The school committee has pushed the building to completion, and to-day it was dedicated for the object designed.

At that time, a week ago, the lower room was well filled by the officers and their friends from Brigham and Ocean cities, and the Bishop and his wife, and Bishop G. W. Ward called the meeting to order, offering a few remarks explanatory of the object of the meeting.

The choir sang "God moves in a mysterious way," Benediction by T. W. Brewerton and the ceremonies closed.

The room was decorated with maps, banners, and two fine steel engravings of President Brigham Young, a present to the school by the Anti-Slavery Patriotic Marine Institution," also, Miss G. Wright, Sec., our principal school teacher. The lower room is 11 feet in the clear, with 30 doors and windows, and a floor of stone from St. Louis, Mo., a cost of $6,250. The upper room is 124 feet clear. Both rooms are well lighted, the walls reflecting great credit on the business managers and all connected with the enterprise.

In the evening, a meeting was held in the upper room. All in attendance seemed to enjoy themselves.

T. W. BREWERTON.

A FIGHT.—There was a row in Metz's saloon last night, and some of the participants were having an interview with Justice Clinton this afternoon.

BILL.—Professor Bosco's placards are attracting a good deal of attention. If the real performances are equal to the illustrations, they will be likely to draw immense. He appears at the Theatre on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

THE PALISTINE PARTY.—A cablegram from Elders Paul A. Bohettler and Fernotz Little was received in this city on Wednesday. It was dated at Amherstburg, Ontario, where those gentlemen were born. None of the other members of the party were mentioned, but it is presumable that all of them were at the above place at the time the cablegram was dispatched.

RE-OPENING.—Mr. James Dwyer announces in our special notice column that he will be about re-opening of his store, opposite the post office, tomorrow night, when he purpose making a fine display. His show window will be decorated and embellished in beautiful style, suitable to the season. It is worth while to pay a visit to his new store. If Peter Mallon is still there, he will take their little ones and let them have their pockets well lined, as the attractions in the shape of toys are not only interesting but absolutely dazzling. There are lots of things there that, when wound up, run the Risk of the Joneses, and the like, a pretty good Jeville idea of Utopia.

EASTERN NOTES.—

Beavers are damming the mill streams in Kansas, and the people are serving the beavers the same way.

The Waverley Magazine was burned out at Boston, and 10,000 copies are now without an organ. A gloom is cast over the continent that is appalling.

A monogramist to the late General Meade is proposed in Philadelphia.

Some one has remarked that when an eminent American dies, the first thing his grateful countrymen do is to resolve to build a monument to his memory, and the next thing they fall to do is to sell it.

One of the noblest of all the nobles performed on the night of the Boston fire, was that of a poor tinsmith who removed the goods of a hard-working widow, without charge, when the work was done, and if he had not been so honest, profited him more than that of a whole year under ordinary circumstances.

At the last Sabbath service we had the privilege of attending, Mr. Lindley says the Congregationalists, the fine quartette choir sang an impressive opening piece. It was the Solo: "Behold that fairer is meekness; an blow upon an infant iniquity." Chorus: "Cah me now, way," etc. We mention the same, as some other choirs, quartette and solo, are performing the music and perform the same.

The effect on the worshipper is peculiar.

The indictment against William M. Tweed makes a large volume. It contains one thousand and odd fifty pages, and is the longest indictment ever found in the history of the law.

It is to be submitted to the grand jury on Monday, December 18th.

CARL BOSSO, ILLUSIONIST.

ILLUSIONIST.

BOX OFFICE open for tickets of 10c each on the day of performance at 11 o'clock.
