LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Diphtheria in Franklin.—A brief extract from a letter written by Brother I. B. Nash, of Franklin, Idaho, brings the news of diphtheria having broken out in that settlement, and carried off three little ones. The people are hopeful of early deliverance from its ravages.

Seventies' General Meeting.—The Seventies will please take note that their regular meeting will take place on Wednesday evening next, the 21st inst., at 7 o'clock, at the Social Hall.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk, In behalf of the First Council of Seventies.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 19th, 1933.

The Carp Question Again.—Dr. J. D. M. Crookwell haunts in the following publication:

Col. B. F. Shaw, Fish Commissioner of Iowa, obtained 5,000 carp this season, which he has just returned from Chicago. They were furnished him by the United States Commission for public water and distribution. If we had a fish commission for Utah we would not be receiving small buckets of 10 to 20 carp to each application, as was the case last year, but would receive sufficient to do much good, not a little, as is our case.

J. D. M. CROOKWELL, Sept. Clear Lake Fish Farm.

Pleasant Call.—A brief call from Mr. Charles Egan Johnson, renowned as the manufacturer of the celebrated Johnson printing inks, was among the pleasures we were favored with to-day.

The gentleman, who has here for some years ago, represents four establishments, the main one in Philadelphia where he resides, and the others in New York, Chicago and San Francisco, to the latter of which he is now on his way to pay a visit.

He made the acquaintance when here before, of Hon. Geo. Q. Cannon, of whom he speaks in the friendliest terms.

He is delighted with the improvements made in Salt Lake since his former visit, and is interested in seeing the sights, some of them over again, which our city and its vicinity afford.

Mr. Johnson is of the third generation in the mammoth business which he represents. Eighty years ago his grandfather started it on the same spot where his descendant is now carrying it on, with the full intention that his sons shall in turn follow in his footsteps.

We wish Mr. Johnson a pleasant stay in our midst and a safe and prosperous journey to and from his present destination.

Home Again.—Elder Joseph W. McMurrin, of this city, who returned with the last company of Saints from Europe, gives the following report of his labors while abroad.

He left here on the 24th of October, 1891, and landed in Liverpool, November 10th, where he was appointed by President Albert Carrington to labor in the Glasgow or Scottish Conference. He was first assigned to the Ayrshire District, where he remained about nine months, and was then appointed to Edinburgh and vicinity, where he labored for nearly seven months, when he was called to succeed Elder David McKay, who had been released, in the Presidency of that Conference.

He held this office until his own release to return home with the October company. He much enjoyed his labors, was blessed exceedingly in administering the word of God, and performed throughout a useful and honorable mission.

He testifies that the promises made to him by his servants of God when set he was apart, although some of them seemed very improbable at the time they were uttered, have every one been fulfilled to the very letter, often in the most marvelous manner.

He is in excellent health and spirits, and warmly bid him welcome home.

APOSTLE CHARLES C. RICH.

SYNOPSIS OF A NOBLE AND WELL-SPENT LIFE.

Shortly before going to press on Saturday evening the news came over the wires of the death, at his home in Paris, Bear Lake Co., Idaho, of Apostle Charles C. Rich, who expired at half-past two o'clock that afternoon.

Coming at such a late hour, it was impossible to give more than a brief announcement of the event, and even now it is to be regretted the necessary data is not at hand nor the space at our disposal more adequate, for a synopsis in greater detail of one whose life and character were so pure and stainless and so worthy of extended chronicle.

Charles Coulson Rich was the son of Joseph and Nancy Rich, and was born on the 21st of August, 1809, in Campbell County, Kentucky. His grand-parents were Thomas and Ann Rich, and his great grand parents, Joseph and Sarah Rich. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, April 1st, 1832, in Tazewell County, Illinois, by Geo. M. Hinkle, and on the 16th of May of the same year, was ordained an Elder under the hands of Zebulon Coltrin, in Fountain County, State of New York.

He was a member of Zion's Camp, holding the position of Captain of Ten in the immortal 205 who in the month of June, 1834, went up to Missouri to redeem Zion. On the 13th of April, 1835, at Kirtland, Ohio, he was ordained a High Priest by order of the High Council, Hyrum and John Smith, officiating in the ceremony. In the year 1837 he removed to Caldwell County, Missouri, and in the following August, at Far West, was made President of the High Priests Quorum, being ordained by W.W. Phelps and John Whitmer.

During the persecutions of the Saints in Caldwell and Davis Counties, he was elected Captain of Fifty, and in the battle of Crooked River, which followed, was next in command to David W. Patten, who was there slain. Upon the death of the latter, Captain Rich took command and a few days afterward returned to Far West. On the arrival there of Governor Hoge, he was sent out to meet them with a flag of truce, and was fired on by Captain Bogard, a Methodist Priest, when about twenty feet distant.

On the first of November, 1839, by counsel of Presidents Hyrum Smith and Brigham Young, he fled into the wilderness north, in company with about twenty-five others whose lives with his own had been threatened. They bent their course towards the upper settlements on the Des Moines River, Iowa, and during the eleven and a half days intervening between then and their safe arrival at Quincy, Illinois, suffered privation from hunger and cold. He was chosen at the General Conference held in Nauvoo, October 6th, 1839, a member of the High Council, and on the 30th of March, 1841, was chosen and ordained a counselor to the President of the State, William Markes officiating.

In March of the preceding year he had been elected captain of a militia company, and one year later captain of a company of the Nauvoo Legion. The same month, according to a record in his own handwriting, he became Brevet Colonel of the First Regiment, Second Cohort of the Legion, and in the following May, Colonel of said regiment. In September, 1841, he succeeded to the office of Brigadier General of the Second Cohort, made vacant by the death of Don Carlos Smith; in June of the following year he was elected Brevet Major General, and in August, 1844, Major General in the Legion.

He had previously been appointed, in the May of that year, (the month before the martyrdom of the Prophet and Patriarch) by President Joseph Smith, to preside over an electioneering campaign in the State of Michigan, when the Prophet Joseph became a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. In company with David Fullmer and others he held a convention in Jackson, Michigan, formed an election ticket for General Smith, and sent delegates to the United States Convention. On hearing of the murder of Joseph and Hyrum, he returned to Nauvoo. He had been a member of the City Council since March, 1841, and in February, 1845, he was elected an Alderman of that city.

For lack of necessary data, the events intervening the one last named and his entrance into Salt Lake Valley, cannot now be given. He was ordained an Apostle on the 12th of February, 1849, being one of four chosen to fill as many vacancies in the Quorum of the Twelve. The other three were Lorenzo Snow, Erastus Snow and Franklin D. Richards. The ordination of Brother Rich took place at the house of George E. Wallace. In this city, President Brigham Young began his mission. The same year he accompanied Elder Amasa M. Lyman and a colony of Latter-day Saints into Southern California and founded the settlement of San Bernardino, which was abandoned by the Saints on the breaking out of the Utah war in 1857. After peace was restored he was appointed on a mission to England and left for that foreign shore in company with Elder Lyman, May 1st, 1857. The two were associated, together with Elder George Q. Cannon, in the Presidency of the European Mission.

Returning from abroad, he was next appointed to pioneer and settle the Bear Lake region, and in 1863 located Rich County, Utah, a portion of which is now Bear Lake County, Idaho. On the 5th of April, 1865, he arrived in this city from the north to attend Conference, having traveled 40 miles of the journey on snow-shoes. On the 8th of June, 1872, accompanied by his son Joseph C., he left for the east to visit his relatives in Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois, and returned about the last of the following July, having gathered up information concerning his genealogy. Among many other important responsibilities, he was a member of the committee having in charge the erection of the Logan Temple.

His death was caused, by paralysis, with which he was stricken down about three years ago, since which he has been slowly sinking, as the public are all well aware from numerous items published in this paper from time to time, apprising them of his condition. Brother Rich needs no eulogium. He lived and died a hero and a saint, and after a long period of usefulness and unwavering integrity, has gone to rest, leaving to the world and a numerous posterity the illustrious example of a life consecrated and worn out in the service of God and his fellowman. The funeral services will take place at Paris, Bear Lake County, Idaho, on Tuesday, November 20th, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

The congregation at the Assembly Hall, yesterday afternoon, was first addressed by Elder Joseph W. McMurrin, who lately returned from a mission to Europe. He gave a very interesting account of his experience while abroad, bore a strong testimony to the truth of the Gospel, the prophetic mission of Joseph Smith, and the teachings he had received from his father and mother and the Priesthood of God, and exhorted the young people of Utah to give earnest heed to the wise counsels of those whose duty it was to instruct them in righteousness. He also directed some remarks to the strangers present, and testified that the Kingdom of God was upon the earth never more to be thrown down, and that however persecution might rage and opposition grow fiercer with its progress, it would never be overcome but would certainly triumph as God its founder and promoter had decreed.

He was followed by Elder W. A. McMaster, who after bearing testimony to the truth of what had been said, delivered a clear and interesting discourse on the Gospel principles, relating also some of his individual experiences in embracing and preaching "Mormonism" in the world.

Returned Missionary.—Elder John Willoughby, of the Eleventh Ward, one of the Elders who returned from Europe with the company that arrived last Thursday, called in on Saturday. He left this city on the 10th of last April and having been assigned to the London Conference of the British Mission, labored first on the Isle of Wight, in company with Elder Wm. H. Wright. At the end of two months he was sent into the County of Kent, where he remained for three months and was afterwards in Hampshire until released to come home. The cause of his returning sooner than he would have otherwise done was severe illness. He suffered an attack of typhoid fever, and was falling so perceptibly that President Smith deemed it wisdom to release him.

Neither mental nor physical labor can be accomplished satisfactorily unless the system is in order. When you feel tired, languid, wearied without exertion, the mind slow to set, and requiring great mental effort, you can rest assured that your liver is not acting properly, and that nature requires assistance to help throw off impurities. There is no remedy that will accomplish this so readily and yet effectually as "Frisch's Ash Bitters." A trial will satisfy you of its merits.

MAY FLOWER JAPANESE TEA.

A natural leaf of flavor, strength and aroma, and guaranteed to be absolutely free from deleterious chemicals, imported only in perfection to tea cases. SENIOR & RAND.

A CASE NOT BEYOND HELP.

Dr. M. H. Hinesdale, Kenosha, Ill., advises us of a remarkable cure of consumption. He says: "A neighbor of mine, a man of about 40 years of age, had a violent lung disease, and pronounced beyond help from Quack Consumption. As a last resort the family was persuaded to try Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. To the astonishment of all, by the time she had used one half dozen bottles she was about the house doing her own work. I saw her at her work and had no idea she could recover."

Watson's Kearsaig King.

This is one of the best remedies for Kearsaig ever invented. It is not a medicine, but a medicine to be taken internally, and cures by going right to the root of the disease.
