Railroad Rate War Impending.

CHICAGO, 24.—The Tribune has the following: The indications are that another war on Nebraska, Colorado and Utah will break out before many days have elapsed. The pools and agreements on that business now in existence will terminate February 1st, if any of the roads give notice of withdrawal before the 1st of January. None of the roads have yet given the required notice of withdrawal, but it is understood that such notices will be forthcoming in due time, as nearly all the roads interested in that business were dissatisfied with their percentages. On Nebraska business, excepting ranch cattle, no pool now exists, and it is understood that rates are not now maintained. On business between Council Bluffs and Chicago it is claimed that rates are being seriously cut, and if this trouble is not soon adjusted it is quite likely to seriously affect rates from other Missouri River points. The great obstacle in the way of a settlement of these troubles is the dissension that exists between the lines forming the Western Trunk association. So long as the tripartite complications are not adjusted, no permanent agreement for the maintenance of Council Bluffs and Nebraska rates can be made. At present the Northwestern is not recognized as one of the tripartite roads by the lines forming the Western Trunk Line Association, and consequently the Rock Island, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and Wabash issue separate tariffs in connection with the Union Pacific, and the Northwestern also issues tariffs in connection with the Union Pacific. This shows that the Union Pacific is not very anxious to carry out the tripartite agreement, but is trying to maintain amicable relations with all its connections, including the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. As matters now stand, there are but two ways in which the troubles regarding western rates can be adjusted; either the Western Trunk Line Association has to be abandoned and a general pool formed, which is not likely to be done, as the Rock Island and the Milwaukee and St. Paul roads are determined to enforce the tripartite contract; or the roads in the Western Trunk Line Association must permit the tripartite contract to be taken into consideration in the formation of new pools for the maintenance of Council Bluffs and Nebraska rates, and this the Burlington road refuses to do.

The Times prints the following: The following paragraph appeared in the New York Tribune on Saturday: "The trunk line executive committee held a short session yesterday, devoted to the consideration of route business. The request of the trans-continental association for the continuance of the present agreement to January 31, 1885, was not considered, as later advices received from Chicago, proposed another conference on the disputed question, over which the trunk lines and association are at variance. A conference will be held next Monday or Tuesday." It was impossible yesterday to find any Chicago officials who had been advised of another conference regarding California business. It is the general belief, however, that the Central Pacific people, who own the Sunset route, made such a proposition to the trunk line joint executive committee, and are probably now in New York for the purpose of further consultation with the trunk lines. All that is required to arrange existing troubles is an understanding between the Sunset route and the trunk lines. East and west lines between New York and San Frandisco, except Central Pacific, are united in the demand that the Sunset route pool its California business. No Advices of the conference in New York either yesterday or Monday, have been received.

St. Louis, 24.—The grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who have been in secret session here for several days, have waited upon Colonel Hoxie, third vice-president of the Gould system, to know the intention of the roads in regard to reducing wages. It is understood that the Gould system wishes passenger train engineers to lay off certain trips and permit freight engineers to take their places, so the latter, whose pay has fallen off considerably under the depression of business, may earn better wages. This suggestion has caused trouble. Chief Engineer Arthur will arrive here to-night from Cleveland, his presence being necessary to solve the difficulty. The railroad authorities say there will be no strike, but the engineers say one is very probable, as they claim that their wages are to be reduced January 1st.

Christmas Below Zero.

WASHINGTON, 24.—The National Republican will print to-morrow extracts from the diary of Lieut. Lockwood, of the Greely Arctic colony, describing the manner in which the starving party spent their last Christmas at Cape Sabine in the Arctic region. Lieutant Lockwood kept a diary in short hand which has been transcribed by a member of his family, and he appears to have made a full record of everything of importance which happened in the daily life of the party. The extracts which the Republican will print relate how, as Christmas drew near, officers and men joined in talks of home and planned grand feasts for the time when they should reach the civilized world, and how they made preparations for the feast on the approaching Christmas by setting apart small portions of their daily rations. On December 21st, Lockwood writes: "By a great effort I was able to save one ounce of my bread and almost two ounces of butter for Christmas. I shall make a vigorous effort to abstain from eating it before then." He adds that he put it in charge of Binderbeck, as an additional safeguard. On Dec. 22nd he wrote: "We look forward to to-morrow and Christmas, and I offered to give any one a roast turkey on reaching home for a single dog biscuit now, but no takers." He says on the next day: "I saved nearly all my hard bread for Christmas, though I need it sorely," and that to make the Christmas dinner grander, he made a tremendous effort and went without his rum, in order have it left for Christmas to add with the punch.

On Christmas evening he added to his scanty savings for the next days feast half his bread and his piece of lemon, and he wrote in his book —"to-night is Christmas Eve. And my thoughts were turned towards home. God preserve me to see this day next year and enjoy it at home with those I love. To-morrow it is to be pretty much a repetition of thanksgiving. I have saved up my rum and bread. I think of my children at home, the Christmas to-night, and the toys, etc., but my fingers are too cold to write any more. I picture to myself my dear father and mother, sisters, Harry, my niece, and brothers-in-law —all sitting around the table to-morrow. Turkey and mince pies are strewn on the table. Many thoughts are turned towards me and where I am at this moment."

The entry for Christmas day is as follows:

"December 25.—Barometer 29.93, thermometer 27.5. Christmas. We have all been talking and waiting anxiously for the hour, and now it is here, and now (5, p.m.) nearly gone. Our breakfast consisted of a thin soup of peas and carrots, with a little blubber and some spoonfuls of potatoes. This we had at 6 o'clock. At 1 p.m. Long lighted up for the event of the day—dinner! Dinner consisted of a fine rich stew of all seal meat, peas, onions, a little blubber, potatoes and bread crumbs. After this we had, in the course of an hour or so, a fine, nice stew with raisins and a little blubber and milk. These were pretty much as Thanksgiving, but the cooks made a great deal on that day, and the meals seemed better. The cooks are now preparing some fine chocolate, and that will be followed by a punch of one gill of rum to each man. The party have been in fine spirits today. Cheers were given after breakfast for Lieut. Greely, Corporal Ellison, Rich and the two cooks. It was agreed that we would give each of the two Esquimaux fifty cents from each member of the expedition, to be kept for next Christmas. Kislingbury was kind enough to make for each of the party a cigarette. Many of us are now out of tobacco entirely.

On the day after Christmas he writes as follows: "Yesterday has passed, but I find my notes of yesterday very imperfect.

Cowboys Rob a Train of Peanuts.

SAN ANTONIO, 24.—Yesterday evening, as the east-bound passenger train on the Southern Pacific was nearing the bridge crossing Pecos river, a number of torpedoes were exploded on the track, causing the engineer to stop the train, whereupon six cowboys boarded the train with drawn revolvers and compelled the conductor to stop at Langtry, the next small station. At Langtry, 20 more cowboys boarded and took possession of the train. They were all more or less under the influence of liquor, and amused themselves by shooting out all the window lights and lamps, and terrorizing the passengers generally. As the train passed by some of the small stations the cowboys would shove their heads out of the broken windows and shout and yell. A passing freight train was saluted in the same manner. Several hundred shots were fired. The roofs of the cars were riddled. They robbed the train boy of his stock of peanuts and candies, but so far as known, nobody was shot. Judge Falon, United States District Attorney Evans and Sheriff White were among the passengers, but thought it best not to make their identity known. The gang left the train at Uvalde, after riding over 60 miles.

Improving.

CLEVELAND, 24.—The Iron Trade Review will publish Saturday responses received from a large number of manufacturers of machinery and other branches of the iron trade in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Connecticut and other States. In regard to the past year's business, 11 firms report it better than in 1883; 24 found it substantially the same; 5 experienced a good trade during the first half of the year and dullness the remaining six months, and 14 say they had a worse business year than in 1883; 36 have run continuously during the year; 9 over time; 11 nearly full; 12 say they have received about the same prices as in 1883, and the remainder report lower prices, ranging from 5 to 30 per cent. below those of 1883. Concerning the general iron business in their respective cities, nearly all report it dull, or upon reduced time during the year. As to the outlook, there is a gratifying majority on the favorable side. Only 10 think the prospect bad; 14 are undecided, but hopeful for the best, and 13 think the business situation growing promising, some believing the upturn has already begun, and none putting it further off than April.

Burned.

CINCINNATI, 24.—The Masonic Temple, a large building fronting on Third Street, was partially burned this morning.

The Temple is the property of the Nova Cæsarea Lodge of Masons; was built at a cost of $200,000, and is insured for $125,000, much more than enough to cover the loss on the building. The principal item of loss is that of the Scottish Rite, whose property was on the third and fourth floors. Their loss is estimated at $50,000 to $75,000. E. T. Carson's Masonic library, worth $10,000, and containing many works impossible to replace, was wholly lost, but was insured. The losses to other lodges are not so heavy.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, 24.—The House with only fifty members present, adopted the Senate amendment, which provides that a recess shall begin to-day (Wednesday) and last until January 5th, and then adjourned until Jan. 5th.

The Senate, after a short executive session, also adjourned to the same date.

The members of the committee on rivers and harbors, who will remain here during recess, have been authorized to continue consideration of the appropriation bill for the rivers and harbors, so it may be reported to the House as soon after the reassembling of Congress as possible. It is expected that the bill will be completed by January 12th, and that the appropriation will amount to about $10,000,000.

Sharon Objects to Sharing his Estates.

W. H. L. Barnes, leading counsel for ex-Senator Sharon in the Sharon divorce case, says of Judge Sullivan's decision: "It is an entire surprise to the profession, both as to law and to facts. The judgment, if it stands, will not be a serious pecuniary injury to Sharon. I don't think he has $10,000 worth of property which could be made subject to the decision. Mr. Sharon is greatly annoyed by the present decision, but has not the slightest ideas of submission, and of course will appeal, and we are confident of reversing the decision. The suit brought by Sharon in the United States Circuit Court to have the marriage contract declared invalid will be prosecuted."

Plaintiff's counsel in the Sharon divorce case will make application for counsels' fees and $3,000 per month alimony for the 14 months since the beginning of the case.

Northern Pacific Blockade.

PORTLAND, Oregon, 25.—From the present outlook, the blockade on the Northern Pacific will not be broken until Saturday, and then only providing no new snow falls. Between Wallula Junction and St. Paul trains are running nearly on time. A large number of passengers are detained at Wallula. No mails have been received from the East since the 15th inst. Losses on stock ranges are believed to be heavy. No particulars, owing to lack of telegraphic communication with stock regions.

CHRISTMAS DISPATCHES.

Championship Bicycle Race in Chicago.

CHICAGO, 25.—The Hermes Bicycle Club gave a series of amateur races at various distances in the Exposition buildings this afternoon. The track is seven laps to the mile. The racing was the best yet seen here. In connection with the day's sport was a race for the professional championship of the United States of 15 miles for $100 aside between J. S. Prince, champion of America and Wm. Woodside, champion of Ireland. The race was contested every inch of the way, neither participant allowing his opponent to secure a decided lead at any point and they were going at each other throughout the race. On the last lap Prince took the lead and won by six feet, time 52 minutes 9¼ seconds. Woodside's time was a quarter of a second slower.

Another Telegraph Company - Capital $30,000,000.

CHICAGO, 25.—Local telegraph circles are agitated by reports of the formation of a new and powerful telegraph syndicate, which it is reported will enter during the early part of the new year actively into opposition to the Western Union. The John W. Mackey Postal Co., Robt. Garnett, of the Baltimore & Ohio, James Gordon Bennett and the bondholders of the Bankers and Merchants Co., are said to be the moving spirits in the enterprise. These combined interests will include over 200,000 miles of wires now in operation, representing a plant valued at about $30,000,000, which, by the addition of some new working capital and stock watering process known to the organizers of syndicates, will swell the nominal capital of the organization to $70,000,000.

Col. Clowry of the Western Union, was seen regarding the reported organization of the syndicate. He thought it was much easier to organize syndicates on paper than to procure business for competing lines. Even if such a combination should be perfected it would not effect any sudden reduction in Western rates. The policy of the Western Union had been the gradual reduction of rates as the earnings of the company increased.

SHOT DEAD BY MADAME FRANCEY.

THE POPE CENSURES THE PROTESTANTS.

A MURDERER'S TARDY CONFESSION.

Summary Vengeance.

PARIS, 24.—A tragedy, similar to the Hugues-Morin affair, occurred at Tennere. An architect named Brisbard visited the house of a merchant named Francey, and soon afterward rushed from the house, pursued by Madame Francey. Blood was streaming from his body, and he fell, shrieking and exhausted. Madame Francey fired two shots into his prostrate body. She had been insulted long enough, she said; she then gave herself up. Brisbard is dead. He was a bachelor, 40 years of age, and reputed to be a libertine. He was of pleasing appearance and devoted his time to forging his attentions upon married ladies. Madame Francey is a fascinating woman, about 25 years of age.

Brisbard, a short time ago, visited Francey's house and awaited the return of the latter from the theatre. Madame Francey showed him to the door, and threatened, if the visit was repeated, she would shoot him. On the second visit—also made during the absence of the husband—Madame Francey shot Brisbard.

The Pope's Reply.

Rome, 24.—The Pope, replying to the Christmas congratulations of cardinals, deplores the abnormal position of the Papal See, vigorously censures the Protestants for their machinations, condems the general impunity allowed by the present state of the laws and the unworthy insinuations of the liberal press when the foundation of the cholera hospital by the Vatican was announced, and denounces the divorce law submitted to the Chamber of Deputies.

Too Late.

Moscow, 24.—A Frenchman confesses to the murder of Sarah Becker, the Jewish girl for whose murder a man named Milonowitch was, last week, sentenced to seven years' imprisonment at hard labor, and his supposed accomplice, named Bezak, exiled.

CHRISTMAS DISPATCHES.

Franco-German Treaty.

LONDON, 25.—A Berlin correspondent says there is a secret convention between France and Germany in accordance with which France is allowed unlimited colonization in Morocco and Tonquin, and Germany, while respecting the French possessions in Africa, is at liberty to annex territory anywhere not affecting French interests.

Bismarck's Business.

The morning Post's Berlin dispatch says: It is impossible for Bismarck to leave Berlin or Varsin at present. He personally controls all the business and will not trust any of the ministers to act on their own responsibility. A direct wire connects Bismark's office with the foreign office at Vienna. It is no exaggeration to say he controls Austro-Hungarian politics.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

The President has recognized Edmond Carey, Coasul of France, at San Francisco.

There was considerable disturbance during the elections in Panama, and several persons were killed or wounded.

Ingall, Phillips & Co., of London, wharfingers, have failed. The liabilities are $200,000. The assets exceed that amount.

The 80th birthday of Prof. Leopold Von Ranke, historian, was recognized by testimonials from all parts of Germany.

The French Chamber of Commerce protested against the proposed increase of corn duties by France, and declared itself in favor of free trade.

Grimm, body physician of Emperor Willism, is dead. Dr. Grimm was the originator of the sanitary system of the German military authorities.

Chicago, 24.—Warrants are out for the arrest of Charles E. Stephens, cashier of the Chicago, Wilmington and Vermilion Coal Company, who has been missing since last Friday. It is asserted that Stephens is short in his accounts to the extent of about $20,000. Gambling is said to have caused his downfall.

New York 24.—The Direct Cable Company and the French Company made a reduction this morning to Great Britain, to 40 cents per word, meeting the cut made by the Mackay-Bennett Cable Company—40 cents per word for general business messages to Great Britain and France; 10 cents for plain press messages transmitted in regular order; 10 cents for "deferred" press business.

Chicago, 24.—W. H. Catton, of St. Louis, who beat McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, 3,000 points, straight rail billiards, in this city last week, to-day received a challenge from Rondolph Heiser, of New York, to play a balk line match in New York next week for choice of table. Catton says he will allow his choice of tables, play him for $1,000 a side, and take $250 for expenses to play in New York.

New York, 24.—Amelia Voss, sister of Herman E. Voss, 342 East Sixteenth Street, has been arrested on the charge of appropriating $100,000 in cash and bonds belonging to her brother, and which she took from a box in the Trust Company's office. The brother had intended to buy two houses—one for himself, and the other for another sister than Amelia. This so incensed the latter that she seized the cash and bonds, preventing the purchase.

San Antonio, Texas, 24,—United States District Attorney Evans returned from Fort Bliss, whither he was sent by the Governor to look into the title to that property. Judge Evans thinks the title to the property and about $30,000 worth of improvements are in great danger of being lost to the government. He says he will be compelled in his report to reflect severely upon upon the action of certain United States army officers who located that post some years ago.

HE MADE IT ATTRACTIVE.—"I hear you want to hire a good window-dresser?"

"Yes, sir," replied the dry-goods merchant. "Can you make a window attractive?"

"Attractive! I sh'd say I could. I can dress it so a woman can't git by it 'thout looking in."

"Very well, sir, you may try."

In half an hour the sidewalk in front of the store was crowded with women, all waiting to get a chance to peep in. The merchant could not understand it, since nothing but a solid piece of black velvet was hanging in the window.

I didn't know a simple piece of plain velvet was so attractive."

"Tain't that said the new clerk. "They ain't lookin' at the velvet."

"What then?"

"Why, don't you see, that black background makes a capital mirror.'

Things Worth Knowing.
There are a great many such things One is, that there is no use having dyspepsia unless you really like it and want it. It is an established fact that Brown's Iron Bitters will conquer this disease in short order and completely. Mr. Daniel L. Nickam, Springfield, Ohio, says, "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of dyspepsia, nervousness and wakefulness."

M. L. Cummings, opposite David James & Co., will give 85c for Jurors' and Witnesses certificates and Auditors warrants.

H. B. BARTON, J. B. TORONTO. I. BARTON, A. S. GEDDES.
Have you called on Barton & Co. within the last week? If not you should not fail to do so and examine their styles and prices on underware, as they are closing out their stock in that line and have reduced their prices to the lowest figures. They also have an elegant line of fur and sealskin caps which they are quoting very low. And as to their elegant styles of clothing and furnishings, you need only examine their stock and prices to be convinced that they are dealing fairly with the people, and are desirous of establishing their firm on the most legitimate business.
