GAVE THREE NAMES AND THEN DIED.

Was Tortured Beside Murdered Tragedy at Leadville, Colorado—Big Barhouse at Denver.

Howard Russell of Delta, Colo., is to revive the Grand Junction Daily Star Times, recently published by C. Bob Nichols, once of Salt Lake.

C. W. Wooster of San Francisco is planning to go into the Klondike by Behring sea. The prospect to use the big balloon made for the Chicago World's fair, which was not used, and he will be accompanied by James Thompson of Cincinnati, A. Andrews of Chicago and E. Kinsley of Pittsburg, all experienced aeronauts.

A man named Johnson was fatally wounded at Thompson Falls, Mont., Tuesday by a constable who had been called upon to arrest him for putting a revolver on a boilerman of the Smith-Ryan mine. Johnson refused to eject him from his room. Johnson died 15 minutes after being shot, the bullet passing through his heart.

At Leadville, Colo., Tuesday night, a tragedy occurred resulting in the killing of Mrs. Annie Smith by her husband, W. H. Smith, a contractor, being the man who did the shooting. He fired two bullets into the woman's body and then killed himself. Smith was an admirer of the Smith woman and had been associating with her before the marriage of Smith between her and her husband. When he learned they were to be reunited he grew insane and did the shooting.

A sensation is anticipated today in connection with the lynching case at Genoa, Nev. Three witnesses have been subpoenaed who it is expected will reveal the identity of at least two more members of the lynching party. At an earlier stage of the investigation several witnesses testified that Constable Greg had stated that he recognized the leader of the mob and several of the lynchers. Tuesday Grey was a witness to contradict this testimony.

An unknown elderly woman was discovered by Policeman William Gaynor of San Francisco, at the corner of Leavenworth and Ellis streets, about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, suffering apparently from a fit. She was taken to the receiving hospital, where at noon o'clock she died. Dr. Fitzgibbon says either from the effects of strychnine poisoning or epilepsy he is unable to determine which. Being urged repeatedly to give her name, she said she was Mrs. Emily —— and stopping at that, would say no more. Later on, in response to the questioning of a hospital attache, she said her name was Mary Williams, and to Dr. Fitzgibbon just before her death said her name was Jennie Webster, and aged 34.

Further particulars regarding the agreement recently entered into by the Japanese, the Pacific Mail and the Occidental and Oriental steamship companies, are now at hand. Arrangements have been made to bear in equal proportion all the expenditures that may be incurred by the three companies, although the distribution of profits shall be subject to the amount of the receipts gained by them. Under the agreement the Occidental and Oriental and Pacific Mail are said to reduce their number of steamers to three, although they now run four at present. The agreement will be carried into practice as soon as the steamers of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha are being built in England, arrive in Japan.

Coroner Robert Baldwin, of Oakland, Cal., is positive that Joseph H. Hasside, the fortune hunter, who disappeared in making every possible effort to penetrate the mystery surrounding his death. At his request Inspector Armstrong Charles E. Snook has detailed County Detective Henry Herbert to the case, and the latter is now cooperating with Constable Jack Conlin and his deputies in the work of investigation. The officers have interviewed a number of witnesses for the adjourned inquest, and it is expected that the murder theory will be the one to be established. A number of the friends of the dead man are lending their assistance, and the circumstances of the case are sure of a searching investigation.

Preparations for the Golden Jubilee of California—the fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of the yellow metal—are making rapid headway. The celebration will begin on Sunday next and continue during the week. It will embrace many entirely novel features, nearly every county in the state contributing to render the affair a notable event in the annals of California. In connection with the jubilee a mining fair will be held, which promises to be one of the most complete exhibits of the kind ever known in the West. San Francisco is already gaily decorated in anticipation of the opening next week, and visitors are arriving in large numbers. Gov. Budd has declared the opening day of the jubilee a legal holiday, and during the week of festivity the public schools will be closed. Seldom before has state pride been aroused to a greater degree, and it is already evident that all former popular demonstrations of the kind will be eclipsed.

The committee of arrangements of the National Stock-growers convention, at its meeting in Denver Tuesday, adopted the report of the committee having in charge all preparations for the barbecue and ball. The feast will be historic, for the reason that it will be the last time in America where wild buffalo, bison or buffalo beef will be served. The menu will consist of buffalo, elk, antelope, deer, bighorn, four bears, forty sheep, ten calves, 200 opossum, ten barrels of pickles, half a ton of cheese, four barrels of sweet potatoes, 3,000 loaves of bread, and 400 kegs of beer. W. F. Anderson of the Union Stockyards and Transit company, who represented the Denver stock-growers' association at the recent meeting in Omaha, at which Denver secured the appointment of a large delegation to this meeting from that city, was present at the meeting and large delegations would be in Denver next week from Chicago, St. Paul, St. Louis and Kansas City. Many hearty thanks was extended to Mr. Anderson for the good work he had done.
