RUSHFORD WAGON

MANUFACTURED BY THE

WINONA WAGON COMP'Y.

Our General Manager, H. M. KINNEY, has spent two seasons in Utah, for the special purpose of learning the needs of the Territory in the Wagon line; and now after carefully preparing to meet them, we offer the Rushford Wagon to the trade. It is made of thoroughly Seasoned Timber, of the best quality, strongly ironed, and we know it will stand. We fully appreciate the severe climate and roads of this market, and have made a Wagon with special reference to them. A full assortment can be found with our General Agent, J. W. LOWELL, at Salt Lake City and Ogden. Hoping to merit the patronage and confidence of the trade of this country, we are

EVENING NEWS.

Monday. - - June 19, 1882.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The regular Sunday services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints were held in the Tabernacle, yesterday afternoon, commencing at 2 p. m.

The choir sang the hymn on the 143d page:

O my Father, thou that dwellest,
In the high and glorious place.
When shall I regain thy presence,
And again behold thy face.

Prayer was offered by Elder David O. Calder.

The choir sang the hymn on the 160th page:

Gently raise the sacred strain,
For the Sabbath's come again.

The Sacrament was administered by the Priesthood of the Seventh Ward.

Elder Joshua Taylor, recently returned from a mission to the Southern States, was the first speaker. He had been identified with the church 22 years, but had very seldom addressed a public congregation. He had desired to go on a mission that he might make amends for previous neglect. He went to Tennessee a year ago last April. The speaker gave some details of his labors as a missionary, a brief sketch of which appeared in the NEWS at the time of his return home, rendering it unnecessary to repeat here.

Elder Rodney Hillam next addressed the congregation. He lately returned from a mission to England, and while in that country labored in what is known as the Leeds Conference. A short time since a statement of his labors appeared in this journal, and therefore it is not needful to reiterate the details at this time. He also expressed his good feelings in the work of the Lord, and his determination to be faithful in his adherence to the principles of the Gospel. He bore testimony to the restoration of the ancient gospel in this age, by a holy angel.

President Joseph F. Smith was the next speaker. We are called mortal beings because the seeds of death are in us. We are really immortal, for in us are also the germs of eternal life. Man is a dual being. There is the spirit—the intelligent part of man—and the body, in which are the germs of death. There is also a species of spiritual death, which exists when man is under the influence of Satan. That is the death which, as it is written, is indicated when the Great Judge shall say to the wicked, "depart ye," etc. There is redemption from the temporal death, or the death of the body, and also from the first spiritual death, which is being shut out from the presence of God, but from the second death there is no salvation. The second death is the result of the sin against the Holy Ghost, for which there is no forgiveness in this life nor the life to come. The second death is the death of the spirit, but not after the manner of the death of the body, for the death of an immortal being is an impossibility. Those who are condemned to that hopeless fate through sinning against light and intelligence will live in a species of spiritual death to endure the consequences of their conduct. There are three classes of beings in heaven—the spirit of man in a pre-existent state, before coming to earth; the spirits of righteous men who have undergone a probationary state and await their re-union with the bodies they inhabited. There are also those who have been on earthly probations, and received their bodies at the rising of Christ, when many of the Saints arose from their graves and were seen of many. Christ himself is the type of this class, having his body of flesh and bones, as He exhibited Himself to His disciples. This class of beings dwells in heaven also.

Why should the pure spirits descend from purity and God and take upon them the impurities of mortality? It is that they may be conformed to the image of Christ and become like Him. Otherwise they cannot become, in the full sense, the sons and daughters of God. The Saints who become like unto the Redeemer shall judge angels, for when they become like Him they are Gods. This is the destiny of those who receive their bodies again through sanctification and the blood of Christ. Man in his pre-existent state is imperfect. No being can be perfect in that state. Who is God? An authority which we recognize says: "The Father has a body of flesh and bones, as tangible as man's, but the Holy Ghost has not a body of flesh and bones, but is a personage of spirit. Were it not so the Holy Ghost could not dwell in us." (Statement of Joseph Smith in Book of Doc. and Cov., page 460.) The Bible might be quoted to show that Christ was in the express image of His Father's person; therefore Father and Son resembled each other, and man was created in the image of his Maker. The Son passed through similar ordeals to those His Father had endured, that He might become like unto the Father, and we have to endure as He did that we may become like unto the Son. When Christ was expiring on the cross He exclaimed: "It is finished." This referred merely to that important phase of His great mission. Had His work been finished as a whole, His disciples might have returned to their vocations, and His body remained in the grave. His work and mission continue until death and hell and he who holds the keys thereof are subdued, and life and light are established by the resurrection. After His passion He conferred upon His disciples the Holy Ghost. Had Peter received the Holy Ghost previously, or at the time he denied his association with the Savior he would have sinned against the Holy Ghost, and could not have been forgiven.

The teachings and examples of Jesus Christ constitute the religion of the Latter-day Saints.

The choir sang an anthem.

Benediction by Elder Joseph E. Taylor.

Correspondence.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 10, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

I am at present traveling alone; have visited my old friends in Minnesota, both Saints and sinners. I have been well received and have great reason to rejoice. I have traveled some with President Palmer, and visited the conferences in Monticello, Wright Co. In Burns, Anoka Co., and in Danielson Meeker Co. At Monticello we organized a a Sunday School with Elder George W. Riggs to preside, with about 20 members, teachers included. We had a good time. There were 11 Utah Elders present and eight baptisms and one rebaptism at this place. We had also a good time in Burns.

In Meeker county we had a very large audience of attentive strangers all Scandinavians; there were many there who at some future day will obey the mandates of heaven. There we also organized a Sunday school and appointed Priest P. G. Fernelius to preside. They have some very fine children.

Last Sunday I visited the Sunday school in Monticello, administered the Lord's supper and read with them in the Book of Mormon class, and heard the children answer questions very satisfactorily. I also told them some of my own experience in Sunday schools from the year 1866 up to the present, and gave some instruction pertaining to their future welfare and prosperity, also about order, obedience, punctuality, etc.

I am now trying again, with the help of the Lord, to break new ground in the State of Wisconsin, hoping that I may have the faith and prayers of the Saints that I may be an instrument in the hands of the Lord to do some good in this part of His vineyard.

I am healthy and feel well, and am happy under the circumstances, trusting in God the Eternal Father for support.

If any of the Saints have friends or relatives in this State, please inform me at the above adress.

B. P. WULEFENSTEIN.

"I found it all that could be asked," said Mr. W. F. Hetherington, editor of the Emporia (Kan.) Sentinel, in speaking of St. Jacobs Oil for rheumatism. The remedy caused the pain to entirely disappear.

TUTT'S PILLS!

AS AN ANTI-BILIOUS MEDICINE, are incomparable. They stimulate the TORPID LIVER, invigorate the NERVOUS SYSTEM, give tone to the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, create perfect digestion and regular movement of the bowels.

AS AN ANTI-MALARIAL They have no equal; acting as a preventive and cure for Bilious, Remittent, Intermittent, Typhoid Fevers, and Fever and Ague. Upon the healthy action of the Stomach and Liver depends, almost wholly, the health of the human race.

DYSPEPSIA.

It is for the cure of this disease and its attendants, SICK-HEADACHE, NERVOUSNESS, DESPONDENCY, CONSTIPATION, PILES, &c., that these Pills have gained such a wide reputation. No remedy was ever discovered that acts so speedily and gently on the digestive organs, giving them tone and vigor to assimilate food. This accomplished, the NERVES are BRACED, the BRAIN NOURISHED, and the BODY ROBUST. Try this Remedy fairly and you will gain a Vigorous Body, Pure Blood, Strong Nerves, and a Cheerful mind.
