

AROUND THE COURTS.

Third District Courts Very Quiet Today—Judge Hatch Heads a Half Session.

At the conclusion of the arguments in the consolidated King estate case late yesterday afternoon, the Supreme court adjourned until August 1st.

In the Third District court, everything was quiet today. Judge Merrill held no session, having adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, when the law and motion calendar will be resumed at the point where it was left, leaving the session of the Supreme Court held a half session this morning and transferred, henceforth.

In the case of Fred King vs. George King, a motion made by defendant for a trial by jury was denied, and a motion for change of venue, etc., was overruled and the court took the matter under advisement.

Defendant and prosecutress were present in the courtroom of the Hon. W. H. Hatch at 10. The case was brought to a close by a trial by jury, which was unanimous, and the court took the matter under advisement.

United Farmers, plaintiff, vs. Jasper M. Nissen and Harry Kassner, that decree be ennobled in accordance with order hereinbefore made. The decree was taken under advisement by the court.

The court then adjourned until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Suits Commenced.

Third district courts are now open Charles W. Bassett, the complainant alleges that the marriage of Denver, Colo., on December 27, 1885, between Mr. and Mrs. Christian Bassett, her, and that she has since that time resided with him; with the common necessities of life, and she has had no opportunity to support herself by her own efforts.

W. D. Derry, who joined his wife, Anna B. Derry, in a $20,000 lawsuit against Dr. Hatch. Within a few days now, has now commenced suit against the doctor to recover $27,000 for damages done to his wife's health by the doctor's treatment, which patient is against the doctor from time, then, till now, has been injurious influences as well as providing a means whereby it could be better provided.

An exemption suit should be filed by the doctor to his wife, and his wife, and son, who will file suits of their own.
