

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Judge Willard Crawford, District Attorney for the Third Judicial District of Idaho, is in the city.

We learn with regret of the illness of Sister Zina Williams, at Provo, from an affection of the lungs.

His friends will regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Mark Croxall, of the firm of Croxall & Croxall.

Yesterday was the 60th anniversary of the birthday of Sister Margaret Pierce Young. The occasion was celebrated by a pleasant little party at the Lehigh House.

We received, this afternoon, a detailed account of the anniversary meeting of the 20th Ward Primary Association. It came to hand too late for insertion to-day.

A certain doctor of divinity said every blade of grass was a sermon. The next day he was amusing himself by clipping the lawn, when a passerby said, "That's right, doctor; cut your sermons short."

Brother Ezra F. Martin, who was called and appointed to go to Great Britain is very ill at his residence in the 20th Ward. He wishes us to say that he would like to see any of the missionaries who purpose leaving for Europe next month.

On Wednesday the annual meeting of the Twelfth Ward Primary Association was held. Sister Ellen C. Clawson presiding. Bishop Clawson and Sisters E. R. Snow Smith and E. B. Wells were present. It was a very agreeable occasion.

Old lady asks neighbor to look at picture by her son. "Come over," says Mrs. Smith, and see the new picture I've got in my room. It's a scene in Arran with a horse and a man. It's a fine picture, but I can't tell the man from the horse."

Attorney Dilley was fined $50 yesterday for the trial of his wife. This amount with the $10 imposed for contempt, and the costs of the case, runs the amount up to the neighborhood of $75, which had not been paid up to this afternoon.

There was a very pleasant meeting of the Twelfth Ward Primary Association yesterday. Sister Toone presiding. A large number of visitors were present. There was a nice special entertainment in the evening, which Sister Toone had a prominent hand in fixing up.

You've got to save your own soul first, and then the souls of your neighbors, if they will let you; and for that reason you must cultivate not a spirit of criticism, but the talents that attract people to the hearing of the word.—George MacDonald.

Dr. L. Roth, of Kitzingen, observed an epidemic of diphtheria in a flock of hens. It was caused by the slops from a room in which two children had been sick with diphtheria, being thrown upon the dung heap in the yard where the fowls were kept.

Yesterday, we received a call from Geo. B. Fletcher, Esq., attorney-at-law, late from Omaha. He has been stopping in our city most of the winter, and a short time since sent for his wife. Both are so well pleased with Utah that they have concluded to make Salt Lake their permanent residence. Mr. Fletcher purposes soon to put out his "shingle" and begin the practice of his profession.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Personal.—Mr. Albert T. Glas, accompanied by his mother, returned from California by the noon train to-day. Mr. Glas speaks in glowing terms of the bright future for California and Arizona, the copious rains having assured large crops of fruit and grain.

Death of a Little One.—We learn from President Joseph E. Taylor, that the infant child of Bishop O. F. Whitney died at the residence of President A. O. Smoot, at Provo, where Mrs. Whitney has been stopping. The deceased little one was born after the father left to go to England on a mission, so he did not have the privilege of seeing his child. Our sincere sympathy is with the parents.

A Lost Brother.—Mr. S. M. Preshaw handed us a letter, to-day, in which Miss Katie Wyche, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, requests this gentleman to make inquiries as to the whereabouts of her brother, Wm. Wyche, about whom his family are becoming very anxious, not having heard from him since last August, at which time he was employed on a ranch 40 miles distant from Ogden City. The missing man is tall and rather large, of light complexion and smooth face, and is about 22 years of age. He is quiet, sober and industrious. Any information of him will gladden the heart of a grief-stricken mother.—Ogden Herald.

Governor Hoyt Blind.—The Cheyenne Leader has the following about ex-Governor Hoyt of Wyoming: "Ex-Governor John W. Hoyt was brought home in yesterday's coach from the north suffering from snow-blindness. He left Cheyenne on Thursday, and on Friday traveled all day over the snow while the sun shone brightly upon it. The Governor suffered greatly from pain in the eyes in the evening, and at length became totally blind. He has not been able to use his eyesight since. His physician, Dr. Gray, expresses the belief that the Governor will recover his sight, but must be kept in a dark room for a week."

"Friend and Foe."—"Friend and Foe" is a striking and pleasant drama, with interesting situations and exciting incidents, enlivened with humor and touching songs. It is free from taint and will take well everywhere. Mr. W. J. Scanlan possesses a rich deep voice, to which he has adapted a number of simple melodies which he sings with much pathos. He makes a capital Carol Moore, his fine, winning countenance giving a great charm to his performance. His small taste of the brogue too is just enough to sound pleasantly on the ear, and he appears as a genuine, free hearted and honest son of Erin. The support was good throughout. There is quite a variety of characters in the play, and every one was performed well, and all who see it will like it. The Theatre was well filled last evening, and much applause greeted the many good points in the play.

SHIPPING RESPONSIBILITY.

ALLEGED NEGLIGENCE OF INDIANAPOLIS COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

This afternoon a tall, ill-dressed woman, giving the name of Ida May Rhodes, appeared at the City Hall. She stated that she hailed from Indianapolis, Indiana, where she had lived over twenty years, during the most of which period she had been an inmate of an insane asylum and the Indianapolis city hospital, having been occasionally insane and a victim of epilepsy.

Being a pauper she stated that the county commissioners of the city from whence she came paid her passage to Salt Lake City for the purpose of getting rid of the burden of sustaining her. He also stated that they informed her she would be better looked after by the community here than where she came from.

If this tale be true, and it has that appearance, the matter should be sifted and the responsibility of the commissioners exposed. If the facts are as appearances indicate, steps should also be taken, if there is any law relating to the subject, to have the responsibility of caring for the woman replaced where it properly belongs.

Able Journalists.—The Chicago News of which Mr. M. E. Stone, now in this city, is the editorial head, has had one of the most rapidly successful careers in the annals of journalism. It was founded by Mr. Stone only seven years since, yet its circulation is said to be second only to that of the New York Herald. It issues two daily editions, morning and evening. It is bright, enterprising, newsworthy, pungent and in the highest degree aggressive. Its news columns are multum in parvo, much attention being evidently paid to the important matter of judicious condensation, one of the leading aims of successful journalism.

The Inter-Ocean, whose editorial head, Mr. W. E. Curtis, is also in the city in a journal of great influence, being one of the most powerful organs of the Republican party, and is connected with enterprise and marked ability. We have had almost constant occasion for a considerable time to differ with what we consider its ultra and, from our standpoint, cruelly one-sided position on the "Mormon" question, but we believe it has been biased by misinformation from a notoriously venomous source in this city. We were pleased to receive an agreeable call from Mr. Curtis, for whom, as a pleasant gentleman, we have sentiments only of the most kindly character, independent of the expressions of his paper in opposition to what we consider to be the truth.

A Gigantic Land Scheme.—We find the following in the Reno (Nevada) Gazette of April 17th:

"Two of Utah's prominent business men have undertaken a very extensive and promising scheme in the way of stock raising and land reclamation in the Corinne valley. They have negotiated the largest land trade ever made in Utah and one of the largest on the coast. They have secured possession of over 50,000 acres of railroad land, running from the shore of Salt Lake north to the mountains, embracing all the lands owned by the Central Pacific Railroad Company in townships 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, in range three, west. The government lands they own will be made, and if Bear River and Salt Lake will secure the south end, the Malad river the east and the mountains the north. So that they will have a large tract of salt land and six wide, embracing all kinds of soil, from the salty shore to the rocky mountain side. There is a great deal of good scrubby land, which when fenced, will grow up to grass and furnish food for many thousands of head of stock. Wherever there are springs, alfalfa will be sown and hay stacked up to guard against hard winters. Wheat and barley can be grown in sufficient quantities to more than run the ranch. Careful surveys will be made, and if Bear River can be brought in, all the good land will be cultivated. The Malad River runs nearly the whole length of the tract, and furnishes plenty of water for stock. A fine flour mill is one of the conveniences of the place. It belongs to the company, who also have a store. Their large bands of cattle and sheep will go a long way to stock the range. The project is to be known as the Corinne Mill, Canal and Stock Company."

Copies of the Oldest Edition.—The notice in the News the other day about Brother Julius F. Wells having secured a copy of the first published edition of the Book of Mormon has brought several others to light. This morning we were shown one in possession of Brother John H. Freeman, which he obtained from Captain Lovejoy of Rochester New York, whose name is written on the fly-leaf. He states that the Captain obtained it on a steamboat, from the Prophet Joseph Smith, whose property it is claimed to have been, at one time. As an evidence of this it has been written upon it in pencil the name of Joseph Pierce, and we are informed the latter remembers having written it on a copy of a Book of Mormon of the Prophet Joseph's, while he was stopping at Brother Pierce's house.

Brother Thomas C. Griggs informs us that he also has come into possession of a copy of the first edition of the book, having obtained it from Brother James H. Wallis, who stated to him that it originally belonged to Oliver Cowdery, and was used in the Kirtland Temple, at the dedication of that building.

Outdoor Preaching Inaugurated.—By private letter from Elder Geo. C. Lambert we learn that outdoor preaching for the season in Liverpool and adjacent towns was inaugurated April 22, when a meeting was held on Islington Square, Elder Lambert addressing the people and President J. H. Smith following with concluding remarks. On the same evening a similar meeting was held in Birkenhead. It was peaceable at first, but finally a disturbance was created by the crowd, and the assembly ended in confusion and considerable uproar.

A couple of young fellows from New York are "taking the city" by taking photo pictures of business houses for advertising purposes.

Temple Bread Plate.—We have received from Little, Roundy & Co., the well known glass and china firm of this city, samples of their new, glass bread plate, made expressly for this market. It has a fine impression cast in the glass, of the Salt Lake Temple as it will appear when completed, and is tastefully ornamented on the margin and around it is the inscription, "Give us this day our daily bread." Every "Mormon" table will look the better for a "Temple Bread Plate."

Eye Removed.—About 12 years ago, Mr. Henry White, of North Ogden, lost the sight of his left eye, having been struck on his optic with a sheaf of wheat. Ever since that time, he has been suffering from neuralgia; of late, even sympathetic irritation set in, seriously endangering the sight of the right eye. A few days ago, the sufferer concluded to consult Dr. John Driver who, on Tuesday, went up to North Ogden, and performed the delicate and difficult operation of removing the eye, the patient having been put under the influence of chloroform. Mr. White stood the operation well.—Ogden Herald.

Wants to Hear.—A lady writes as follows:

My daughter left Liverpool with her five children in July 10th, 1882. I received one of her letters from her after she arrived at Salt Lake City, but have not heard from her for over 12 months. All our letters are returned to my address, saying she cannot be found. Her address was 15th Ward, Salt Lake City, Utah. She was then with her mother. I feel anxious about the children and herself. Any information will be thankfully received. Address, Mrs. Anne Beyrone, 7 Lexington street, Swansea, Wales. My daughter's name is Harriet Beyrone.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.
