

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

On Thursday night Dr. and Mrs. McEnery were guests of honor at a delightful dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb. The table was decorated entirely in green and white, large white chrysanthemums being used with smilax, and green candelabra shades. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker, Mrs. Lila James Read, Miss Macomber, W. J. Leonard and John F. Moyer.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. George W. Snow entertained at dinner at the Commercial club, in honor of friends who are visiting here from Denver. The private dining room was used, and the table effectively decorated in white chrysanthemums and plumosa, covers being laid for E. Mrs. Snow's guests were Mrs. E. J. Yard, Mrs. Storer, Mrs. Hatfield, all of Denver, Miss Wheeler of Kansas City, Mrs. Thomas Marionaux, Mrs. Deardorf and Miss Thompson.

Mrs. Grant Hampton was this afternoon a guest of honor at an exceedingly pretty luncheon given by the Misses Nason at the home of Mrs. Bancroft. The table and rooms were charmingly decorated in autumn flowers and the affair was in all ways delightful.

On Tuesday Mrs. George L. Nye will give an elaborate luncheon at the University club in honor of Mrs. Hampton.

Miss Salisbury entertained the Bridge club at her home on Thursday of this week, and Mrs. Channing will entertain the club at its next meeting.

Mrs. Hoyt Sherman entertained a few friends informally at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. George M. Downey was hostess at an informal supper on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle entertained a number of their friends delightfully at their home on Thursday night, the amusement being euchre. The rooms were effectively decorated, and refreshments were served.

Count Leon Laborde and Phillip Livermore were guests of honor at a dinner given by Lewis McCormick at the Country club last night.

The reunion of the Wells family on Thursday night was a notably pleasant affair, about a hundred of the descendants and relatives of the late D. H. Wells being present to commemorate his nineteenth birthday anniversary. The rooms were beautifully decorated, and there was a program of songs, recitations and tableaux.

The Thistle Social club gave one of the most enjoyable Halloween entertainments of the week, the affair being delightful throughout.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was that given yesterday by Mrs. James E. Jennings in honor of Mr. Morrow, of London, who is here visiting Mrs. Justus Jungk.

An enjoyable Halloween party was given last night by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, the affair taking place in the church basement.

The first of the season's hops were given last night at Fort Douglas, and was a most elaborate and enjoyable affair. A number of people from the city were present to enjoy it. The hosts and hostesses who received the guests were Col. and Mrs. Lockwood, Capt. and Mrs. Jamerson, Capt. and Mrs. Morrow, Lieuts. Beebe, Allen and Smart.

Mrs. M. H. Kriebal was hostess at a double function on Tuesday, including a pretty luncheon followed by a bridge contest.

An innovation on the usual reception was the chocolate tea given yesterday by Mrs. Duncan McVie, her hours being from 11 to 2 o'clock.

One of the largest and pleasantest events of the week was the afternoon euchre party given by Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle at her home on Wednesday. The rooms were brilliant with chrysanthemums in various shades, and five tables were played.

Prizes were won by Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. A. H. Peabody and Mrs. Emma Ellerbeck. After the contest the hostess gave a number of harp selections which were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Jungk entertained informally at dinner on Wednesday in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Morrow.

Mrs. Victor Clement entertained a few friends informally at dinner at the Country club on Wednesday.

Miss Kate Williams is still receiving congratulations for her victory in the tennis contest in which she won the Newhouse silver tea set.

The ladies of Unity circle gave an enjoyable Kensington on Wednesday, at Unity hall, and during the afternoon Rev. Mr. Fish read "In a Balcony," which is to have dramatic representation next Monday evening by a number of ladies of the circle.

Mrs. Jeannette Ferguson entertained informally at dinner on Monday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Sharp. The table was prettily decorated, and covers were laid for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Buckle celebrated their crystal wedding anniversary in an impromptu way on Monday night, a number of their friends descending upon them unexpectedly, and enjoying a delightful evening.

The '65 class of the University gave its initial ball for the season last night, and enjoyed the usual good time. The chaperons were Mrs. T. Kingsbury, Mrs. W. M. Stewart, Mrs. Byron Cummings, Mrs. E. G. Gowan, and Mrs. J. E. McKnight.

Mrs. W. H. Cummings and Miss Woodward were hostesses at the Country club on Monday.

Miss Dorothy Kinney entertained informally at luncheon at the Country club on Monday.

Mrs. Alice Home who, as delegate attended the Women's congress at Berlin, has been the recipient of a pretty compliment from Fraulein Dora Ruesler, professor of languages in the University of Vienna. In a recent letter she says that Mrs. Home was "one of the brightest women of the congress (a sentiment endorsed by many people) and also one of the liveliest and ablest women I have ever met."

The Christensen informal soiree Wednesday evening was quite well attended, and a very enjoyable affair. Fred Wood of the "New Southern" entertained a number of his guests comparatively.

The employees of F. Auerbach & Bro. will attend next Wednesday evening in a body.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. H. D. Styer of Logan is in the city for a few days, a guest of her mother, Mrs. Edmund Wilkes.

Mrs. Howard S. Stowe left this week for a visit of some time with friends in Madison, Wis. On her return trip she will visit the fair.

Mrs. D. E. Moore and Mrs. Edward Drake left this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Reed of Denver.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace and Mrs. R. P. Ferguson have returned from a trip to St. Louis and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury left yesterday for St. Louis.

Mrs. C. A. Wherry of Ogden, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Wherry at 666 Second street, has returned to her home.

Judge and Mrs. E. F. Colborn have just returned from St. Louis and will leave about Nov. 1 for California.

Mrs. Mary S. Klopenski left yesterday for St. Louis, Chicago and other eastern cities.

Mrs. M. J. McGill of Park City has returned from a several months' visit in Pennsylvania.

Charles F. Bollemere has returned, after spending a month in the eastern states.

Miss Antoinette Berry returned today to her home at Alameda, Cal., after a three-months' visit with friends in this city.

Dr. A. D. Melvin has returned from Arizona, where he has been for several weeks past.

Mrs. Fritz Miller and the Misses Blanch Miller and Ruby Heidal left on Monday evening for St. Louis and Chicago.

Mrs. K. O. Keyes of 1564 Brigham street, is entertaining the Misses McFall of Shoshone, Ida.

Miss Jennie Thompson of Springfield is the guest of Mrs. Simon Bamberger.

Miss Allie Peterson of Provo is spending a few days in the city with friends.

Miss Laura Sherman left Thursday for a month's visit with friends in the Pacific northwest.

Miss June Bantz leaves early next week to spend a portion of the winter with friends in California.

After a very enjoyable visit with friends in the east, Miss Mary Wightman has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott is home from a visit of several weeks in California.

Mrs. Will L. Ellerbeck has returned from Boise, where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Clifton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Judson are home from California.

Mrs. A. Fred Wey and daughter, Miss Louise Wey, left for New York on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Jennings and Miss Olive Jennings have moved from the Keith apartments and will be at home for the winter at No. 1, Louise flats.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Taylor of Ogden are visiting in Salt Lake for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. John De Gry Dixon have returned from a visit of several weeks with friends in Bingham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser have returned from a visit of some weeks in California.

Mrs. A. W. Meek has returned to Ogden after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. M. B. Whitney.

Mrs. Mary Ingham has returned after an absence of several weeks in New York.

Mrs. R. E. Provost of Pittsburg, Pa., Mrs. S. Silcox and Mrs. H. A. Hurd of Grand Junction, Colo., are in Salt Lake.

Miss Dolly Bonis is home, after an extended visit of several weeks' duration.

Mrs. Union Worthington has returned from Philadelphia and will resume her Thursday at home for the winter.

Charles Read and daughter, Miss Emily, have returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rose and baby are here from California for a month's visit with the McGrath family on East South Temple street.

Mrs. Emma L. Kelley of Pasadena, Cal., is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cain, her nephew and niece.

Mrs. W. E. Lawson, Mrs. Kate Lawson and Miss Clara Lawson have moved from 134 F street to 39 F street.

Miss Beas Chandler has returned from a visit of a month in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings have returned Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Parry on Twenty-third street.

The Modern Woodmen of America entertained Tuesday evening at the K. of P. hall. The early part of the evening was pleasantly spent in listening to an excellent program of music and speech-making, after which an elaborate banquet was served to the members of the order and their many friends who were present.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor entertained Tuesday evening about 100 guests. The evening was spent at music, games and feasting.

PROVO.

The afternoon autumn party given last Tuesday by Mrs. D. T. Clark and daughter, Mrs. Arthur Sutton, was, in every way delightfully arranged. In each room, throughout the house, autumn leaves were arranged in most artistic design. The decoration of the invitation and table cards carried out the autumn thought. Cards furnished the amusement during the afternoon. The prize was won by Mrs. Jones. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests were: Mrs. John Twelves, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Leon Bachman, Mrs. Jesse Knight, Mrs. Corfman, Mrs. Reed Smoot, Mrs. J. J. Knight, Mrs. D. D. Houtz, Mrs. Ed Lease, Mrs. Aird, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Roylance, Mrs. McEwan, Mrs. Ben Bachman, Mrs. E. D. Sutton, Mrs. Havercamp, Mrs. Robert Irvine, Mrs. Grant Bagley, Mrs. Phil Speckart, Mrs. Thomas Yates, Mrs. J. J. Nunn, Mrs. E. L. Jones, Mrs. Sinter, Mrs. Westwood, Mrs. King, Mrs. George, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Edith Martin, Mrs. Wood, and Misses Flora Twelves, Beulah Bachman, Carrie Sutton, Lena Bachman, Hattie Burg of Denver, and Mrs. J. D. Hobergs of Sprague, Wash.

President and Mrs. Joseph F. Smith were guests of Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Phoebe Y. Beattie and daughter Hazel were guests of Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dougall of Salt Lake City spent Sunday and Monday in Provo, guests of Mr. George S. Taylor and daughter, Hazel.

Mr. Murdoch and Mr. Jensen of Heber spent Monday visiting friends in Provo.

The observance of Founder's day by the students and faculty of the Brigham Young university proved a most interesting and profitable affair. A Provo, as well as the student body, with class banners, class colors, and the university white and blue, the procession of students, 1,200 in number, presented a most picturesque sight. The exercises were held at the tabernacle, presided over by President G. H. Brigham. Visitors occupying seats on the stand were: President Joseph F. Smith, President A. H. Lund, Apostle Reed Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dougall, and Mrs. B. Y. Beattie.

Miss Annie Pike has been in Provo spending a few days, visiting her sister, Mrs. Florence Woodhouse.

Apostle Hyrum Smith spent Sunday in Provo.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. King was the scene of a happy event Wednesday evening. A musical given in honor of their many Democratic friends, which was uniquely planned and pleasantly carried out. Fall flowers were arranged throughout the house. The musical numbers given were: Piano selection, Miss Pearl Taft; recitation, Bula Stores; piano selection, Effie Howe; recitation, Mrs. Beat Yates; piano selection, Mrs. Rob Irvine; song, Miss Hazel Taylor; piano selection, Prof. Lund; bass solo, Mr. W. D. Roberts. After the program a dainty luncheon was served. The guests present were: Mrs. Lizzie Gillespie, E. S. Playner, May Farmer, May Knowlton, Lillie Twelves, Diantha Worsley, Jennie Thomas, Bessie Williams, Mary Holdaway, Celestia Strong, Teenie Thomas, Ear Yates, Phil Speckart, Rob Irvine, E. Partridge, J. L. Brown, Harris, W. D. Roberts, Frona Twelves, William M. Roylance, W. K. Henry, W. H. Brown, Mattie Beebe, Mattie Brown, Taylor, T. N. Taylor, O. H. Berg, Hannah Jones, David Openshaver, Hyrum Jensen, Harper, George E. Howe, Alice Newell, George Stores, Mattie Williams, C. O. Newell, Lydia Holdaway and Misses Lena Bachman, Lydia Jones, Etna Holdaway, Mary Henry, Rula Williams, Bertha Nelson, Emma and Annie Newell, Flora Berg, Bula Stores, Jennie Dusenberry, Pearl Taft, Effie Howe, Hazel Taylor, Birdie Cluff, Flora Twelves, Flora Moore and Nellie Holden.

Mrs. Corfman spent Sunday and Monday in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson and daughter Irene of Logan have been the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Osmond during the week.

Mr. Art Gates of Salt Lake City spent Sunday in Provo.

Mr. James Sprunt was a Provo visitor on Tuesday.

President A. H. Lund spent Sunday and Monday in Provo visiting Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Lund.

The Sorosis club met at the home of Mrs. Rob Irvine Wednesday afternoon. An interesting report of the meetings of the federation, held in Logan, was given by Miss Beulah Bachman. Mrs. Headquist gave a review of the current events, an dthe club adjourned to meet at the same place in one week.

The Nineteenth Century club held its Friday meeting with Mrs. Havercamp. Mrs. Marwick's paper on "Kink Lear" was followed with the closest attention and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Sutton's selection of readings were very choice, and proved most interesting.

Mr. Irvine Emmett has spent the past week in Provo.

Miss Alice Kirkwood entertained Monday evening in honor of Miss Dot Vincent, who left this week for the purpose of attending college in Ohio. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with fall leaves and flowers. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Don Gee, Mr. and Mrs. John Carter, Misses Eva Ward, Catherine Riley, Bertha Burles, Liza Jones, Edna Nelson, Sadie and Nellie Gray, Blanche Kirkwood, Mr. Acel Gee, Alvin Nelson, Alvin Bower, B. H. Bower, Roy Bower, Bert Bailey, Milt Kirkwood, Charles Bailey and Dr. Henselman.

The ladies of the Sixth ward are giving

You may be thinking of using an artificial food for your baby. Try Mellin's Food; it is a proper food suited to the baby's condition. It is not a medicine but a true food. Let us send you a sample to try. MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

TITLED AMERICAN RETURNS TO THIS SIDE.

Lady Cook, better known to Americans as Tennessee Clafin, arrived in this country on the Celtic October 22. It is Lady Cook's intention to take up a permanent residence in this country, as she has tired of England.

ing daily serving parties, preparing for the bazar which will open Dec. 5. Enthusiastic gatherings were held at the homes of Mrs. A. J. Stewart and Mrs. Clayton Monday and Wednesday afternoons. The proceeds will go to help pay for the new meetinghouse.

At six o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Strong occurred the marriage of their daughter Helma to Mr. Thomas Massey. The ceremony was performed by Bishop T. A. Taylor, after which a reception and elegant wedding supper was given the family and near friends. The bride is one of Provo's most talented young ladies, and looked beautiful in her wedding gown of white silk with pearl trimmings. The table decorations were carnations and brides' roses, the house being decorated with a profusion of fall flowers. The guests were Mrs.

The reception given by the Ladies' Republican club Monday evening proved, intellectually and socially, a most successful affair. The ladies received at the Republican headquarters which had been artistically decorated and conveniently arranged for the occasion. Many guests from Salt Lake and other outside towns were present. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Halloween party given Friday evening by the Young Ladies' association of the Fourth ward was a most

SALT LAKE CITY'S EXCLUSIVE FURRIER,

I. C. Glosz,

270 MAIN. 270 MAIN.

THE GLOSZ GUARANTEE is a good thing to bear in mind. It is a symbol of quality, not empty trade phraseology. It guards you against any possible dissatisfaction. It means that the FURS must give satisfaction or we—the manufacturer—will supply the remedy.

We originate Ideas,
Create Distinctive Effects, and Constantly Produce Novelties
In all kinds of FURS.

Orders taken from selections of Russian Sable, Ermine, Chinchilla, Eastern Mink, Broadtail, and other valuable Fur Skins, for Garments, Neckpieces, Muffs, etc.

Redyeing and Cleaning
Repairing, Remodeling, Of FURS!

Prompt Attention Assured All Mail Orders.

ANY SMALL DEPOSIT SECURES YOU YOUR FUR UNTIL YOU ARE READY TO WEAR IT.

I. C. Glosz,
270 MAIN STREET.

"Never mind, my boy," said the Pot, "wait until kettle supplies me with fresh bolling water and I'll do my part. I'm old fashioned but you can't improve on me. Let Cook keep me clean,
give me one tablespoonful of Golden Gate for each cup, one for myself and boil five minutes—satisfaction!"

Nothing does with GOLDEN GATE COFFEE but satisfaction. No prices—no coupons—no crackers, 1 and 2 lb. aroma-tight tins. Never sold in bulk.

J. A. Folger & Co.
Established half a Century
San Francisco

THIS LOOKS "DRESSY."

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Oct. 29.—The leading social event of the week was the wedding of Miss Ella Conroy to Mr. C. R. Broughton, which took place Wednesday morning at the Catholic church, Rev. Father Cushman officiating. There were present to witness the ceremony only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. After the ceremony the wedding party retired to the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Conroy on Lincoln avenue, where a sumptuous wedding repast was served. The happy young couple left on a wedding tour of California. The bride is a charming and accomplished young lady, sister to Dr. Conroy. The groom is a well known railroad employe. Mr. and Mrs. Broughton will make Ogden their home.

The early part of November Miss Dot Pitt, one of Ogden's most popular music teachers, will leave for Germany, where she will take up a course of piano study with one of the music masters of Berlin. Miss Pitt has a host of friends throughout the state who will be pleased to learn of her intention to advance in her chosen profession.

At the Mound Fort hall Thursday evening a farewell benefit ball was given in honor of Charles Shaw, who departs Nov. 6 on a mission to Australia. The ball was well attended and all present had a very pleasant evening.

Ernest E. Bertram and Miss Myra Crites, two well known young people of Ogden, were married this week.

Miss Cora L. Sullivan, who has been on a three months' visit to the world's fair at St. Louis, and other eastern places of interest, returned home much delighted with her trip.

Jake C. Van Zwoeden and Miss Mary E. Gibbs were married this week. They are both popular throughout the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bratz spent this week in Salt Lake City visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Piles, two well known and highly respected residents of Ogden, who have lived happily together as husband and wife for a half century, celebrated their golden wedding Tuesday at their cozy home on Grant avenue. They received a number of their friends, who extended congratulations.

Dr. J. S. Gordon and wife are expected home in a few days from a month's visit at the world's fair.

The W. C. T. U. was pleasantly en-

WEDDING BELLS

Miss Blanche Miller and Mr. Charles Campbell were married on Wednesday at the bride's home, Dean Eddie of St. Mark's officiating. In the presence of both families, a reception was held, and an enjoyable evening spent, the rooms being handsomely decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home here.

Another of Wednesday's weddings was that of Miss Maud Emsley and Roy Watrous, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. P. A. Simpkin. A wedding supper followed, and a reception was held, a large number of friends and relatives filling the prettily decorated rooms.

Wouldn't You like to be spared half-a-day's work each week? Fels-Naptha cuts wash-day in half.

Fels-Naptha Philadelphia