Further Particulars of the Wreck of the "Huron."

NORFOLK, 26.—After the survivors of the Huron arrived here, several seamen were interviewed, and made the following statement: The vessel was heading her course south-southeast, the wind blowing strong from south-southeast. She was under after sail to steady her, and steaming along. There was no event to excite apprehensions of a disaster. Master French had the deck, she had alighted and passed Currituck Light, and orders were given to keep a bright lookout for Body Island Light. At 1.40 the vessel struck, when all hands rushed on deck. Capt. Ryan and officers acted promptly; the crew responded to all orders with alacrity. The vessel struck a boat was lowered, but immediately swamped. The vessel shivered, broke to the sea, which made a clear break over her, sweeping everything from the decks, and carrying the boats from the davits. Many seamen and officers were washed overboard and several killed by pieces of the wreck. Capt. Ryan and Lieut. Simmons were seen to go overboard, and were swept away. The vessel broke up fast. The surf became more and more furious making it beyond all human efforts to hold on. It was dark, signs of distress were made, but no response was received. No one knew where we were, and all that did get ashore were washed there by the surf. The wreck of the vessel is attributed to the local attraction of the compass, and the strong current setting on the shore, which made the vessel go further to the south-west than her compass course indicated.

Another Defaulter Arrested.

NEW YORK, 26.—Elijah Alliger, who has had charge of the branch office in this city of the Commercial Insurance Company, of London, and whose affairs recently created so much attention, was arrested to-day, and held in default of $150,000 bail.

Damage by the Floods.

RICHMOND, 26.—The loss to private property in this city by flood, may be safely estimated at about $300,000. Other losses will greatly augment this amount. The damage in Manchester, on the opposite side of the river, will reach $100,000. There is considerable suffering among the poor people. Many had to camp on the roofs of houses, and still shelterless. The damage to James' River and the Kanawha canal is not as serious as at first supposed.

LYNNBURG, 26.—The Amherst bridge, 900 feet in length, erected after the flood of 1870, was swept away on Saturday night, and with it two new iron bridges for the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Rivers, and the damage west of here is reported to be more serious than that of 1870.

Sharon's Absence from the Senate.

WASHINGTON, 26.—A number of cipher telegrams have recently passed between Senators Jones and Sharon, on the subject of the present crisis in the Senate. Jones is endeavoring to impress Sharon with the vast importance of leaving his business long enough to help his party out of the existing emergency. Sharon, however, has been received from Sharon, saying it is absolutely impossible for him to leave before December 20th at the earliest. In reply to the representations of ill feeling against him on the part of the republican senators on account of his absence, he has stated that if any considerable number of his associates desire it, he will resign in time to have a successor chosen by the new legislature of this winter.

The Scene in the Senate.

The Senate proceedings, to-day, were witnessed with intense interest by more than 1,000 spectators, who filled the galleries and occupied all the available space on the floor. Many members of the House and distinguished visitors from abroad were among those who sat or stood behind the galleries, and the desks of the Senators. Judge Davis, the first speaker, was listened to with close attention, and his remarks for immediate action on Butler's resolutions were received with great satisfaction by the Democratic side of the chamber.

Extension of Telegraph Lines.

DENVER, 26.—The Western Union telegraph lines have been extended to Denver, Colo., on the south side of the Rio Grande. Their extension is the first one of the system that has crossed the river, and telegraphically connects Denver and San Juan mining region with the commercial world. Two railroads will soon complete the communication.

Sentenced for Forgery and Bribery.

COLUMBIA, 26.—Judge Townsend to-day, rendered judgment adverse to the motion in the case of Small and Cardozo, and sentences were passed as follows: Francis L. Cardozo, ex-treasurer of South Carolina, for conspiring to defraud the State, two years' imprisonment in jail, and $4,000 fine, and one year's imprisonment added if the fine is not paid at the expiration of the two years. Small, member of Congress, for accepting a bribe of $5,000 while member of the State senate, three years at hard labor in the State penitentiary; and Cardozo, formerly proprietor of the Columbia Daily Union, for forgery, in raising amounts for publishing laws in his paper, two years in jail and a fine of $1,000. Appeals will be made in all the cases.

Trick to Lure a Negro.

LOUISVILLE, 26.—The negro McGhee, who attempted to outrage the daughter of the preacher at Columbia, Tenn., was brought back to-night. A crowd tried to lynch him, when Miss Templeton refused to identify him. If he is identified death is certain.

WESTERN.

Will Break up the "Constitution."

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—It has been decided to break up the Pacific Mail steamer Constitution, recently damaged by fire and scuttled in the Bay.

Needed.

John E. Day, late Vice-President of the Kearney faction of workingmen, has seceded from that organization. It is believed that this will have a strong influence in breaking down the incendiary wing of the movement, and result in the organization of a new labor party of a respectable character.

Preparations are going on actively for Thursday's parade. A large turnout is anticipated.

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

Critical Situation.

PARIS, 26.—Reliable information leaves no doubt that President MacMahon intends to ask the Senate to dissolve the Chamber of Deputies. It is believed the Senate will assent, as it disapproves of the recent vote of censure in the Chamber of Deputies. It is expected the matter will be settled during the week. Anxiety is felt by all classes over the situation of affairs.

WEST INDIES.

Revolution—Newspaper Offices Destroyed.

PANAMA, 17.—Revolution has broken out in Ecuador against the government of President Viquez, who is at Guayaquil, and in danger of being cut off from Quito. The offices of the newspapers El Comercio and El Nacional were sacked by a political mob on October 29th.

Wine Adulteration and Some of its Consequences.

Several wine dealers in Germany have recently been heavily fined. At Warzburg, a wine merchant named Wanfried, was fined 1,000 marks and costs, and condemned to eight months' imprisonment, for selling wine adulterated with extraneous matters. The legal papers are very long, and show what care is taken by the authorities to have the public protected. The judgments are based on the following grounds:

(a.) That it has been proved that August Wanfried has a mixture in his cellars of water, spirits, tartaric acid, with an addition of essences and with tannin and sugar; and this without any further fermentation, has the appearance of wine.

(b.) That this preparation was then mixed in different proportions with natural wines, and sold to customers under different names of wines.

(c.) That Wanfried bought other artificial preparations and disposed of them to customers.

The German trade is beginning to cry out about the continual sale of adulterated wines. It hurts the sale of their wines, and the French, and gives a loophole for dishonest customers to avoid the payment of their bills. Several cases of the kind have already occurred in the Rhine district. It is very easy for a customer to say that the sample submitted to analysis is the identical wine he purchased. There is in this, as in other branches of trade, two kinds of houses—the reliable and the unreliable. The reliable dealer is the victim of dishonest dealers, but in scarcely any other business does a good name and a good brand so soon and so brilliantly become their own reward and vindicate themselves.—Wine and Fruit Reporter.

Everybody who has visited San Francisco knows Woodward's Gardens, with its fine collection of animals, birds, etc. The proprietor is famous for selling at every fair that comes in his way, and it was with emotions of intense delight that he recently received a note from a friend just returned from the east stating that he had brought with him for the Gardens a fine specimen of ground hog.

An expressman was sent for the animal, and he arrived with a large box; a company of scientific men assembled in the proprietor's room to view the prodigy; the lid of the box was carefully raised, and there was disclosed to view—a huge sausage.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

TERRITORY OF UTAH, EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

Another autumnal season, with its abundant harvest, reminds us of the continuing goodness of Divine Providence, and places us under renewed obligations to Him who has so generously carried us through the past year, and now, as we are drawing to a close.

The national custom of celebrating the gathering in of the annual crops, and giving thanks to the Lord of the Harvest, is an ancient and beautiful practice, which teaches us gratitude, benevolence and hospitality, as well as to rely more fully on the promises of God. I therefore, in conformity to this usage, and in accordance with a proclamation of the President of the United States, designate, Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November, A. D. 1877, to be observed throughout the Territory, as a day of public thanksgiving.

The people are requested to abstain from their usual avocations on that day, and to assemble in their accustomed places of worship, and there to engage in exercises appropriate to the occasion and acceptable to God, for His special care and protection over them during the year.

While we rejoice in the prosperity vouchsafed, and derive new courage for the future, let us not forget the needy poor in our midst, but endeavor to make the day appointed one of joy and thanksgiving to this class of our fellow-creatures as well as to ourselves.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Territory to be affixed. Done at Salt Lake City, this thirtieth day of November, A. D. 1877, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and second.

By the Governor: LEVY P. LUCKEY, Secretary of the Territory.
