CONTESTED ELECTION,

TERRITORY OF UTAH.

Geo. R. Maxwell vs. Geo. Q. Cannon.

Argument of Halbert E. Paine, Counsel for Sitting Member.

(Before the Committee on Elections of the House of Representatives of the United States, Washington, D. C., 1874.)

The proceedings will be found on page 5447 of the 80th volume of the Globe.

In the 40th Congress, Simeon Corley, of South Carolina, P. M. B. Young and Nelson Tift, of Georgia, and R. R. Butler, of Tennessee, and in the 41st Congress, Francis E. Shober, of North Carolina, members of the House, were relieved of their political disabilities long after their election; and yet, when so relieved, were admitted to their seats in the House. All were ineligible when elected, and yet in no case was the election treated as void.

In the case of Joseph C. Abbott, in the Senate of the 42d Congress, the doctrine asserted by the counsel for the contestant was fully considered, and was repudiated by the Senate.

It is probable that there never was and never will be, in this country, another discussion of the subject so exhaustive as that which it received in this case. The English authorities were all presented, and very few, if any, of the American decisions, whether judicial or parliamentary, escaped the scrutiny of the Senators who submitted the majority and minority reports, which you will find printed together in Senate Report, No. 58, of the 2d session of the 42d Congress.

I now ask your attention to the case of the sitting member.

In order to meet, at the threshold of the discussion, the grave constitutional question involved in this case, disregarding the strictly logical order of the argument, I will at once proceed to inquire whether Mr. Cannon possesses all the qualifications which are prescribed in or can be prescribed under the Constitution of the United States, for the office which he now holds. I will afterwards consider the questions of his election and return to the contested seat.

It is charged that Mr. Cannon is a polygamist, and has taken the so-called endowment oath of the Mormon church; and that he is, for these reasons, ineligible to a seat in the House. It is not charged that he has been indicted for or convicted of either of these offences.

Now, let it be assumed at this point, for the purpose of argument, that these charges are—as I shall in due time show you that they are not—sustained by the proof in the record of this case. I do not believe that polygamy, either before or after indictment and conviction, can be held a disqualification for Congress either by this committee in the consideration of the pending contest, or by the House in judging of the election returns and qualifications of its members. Whether it is or is not a valid ground for expulsion by a two-thirds vote, under the constitutional provision applicable to that subject, is a question foreign to this case.

The qualifications of Representatives in Congress are prescribed by the 2nd section of the 1st article of the Constitution of the United States.

They are—1st. That they shall have attained the age of twenty-five years. 2nd. That they shall have been seven years citizens of the United States. And 3rd. That they shall, when elected, be inhabitants of those States in which they shall be chosen. No other qualifications are prescribed in the Constitution.

If the Constitution of the United States had vested anywhere the power to prescribe qualifications of Representatives in Congress, additional to or different from those prescribed by the Constitution itself, it is obvious that this power would have been conferred either upon Congress or upon the House alone or upon the States.

In the history of our Government it has never been claimed that the House of Representatives, acting alone, possessed the power to add to or change the qualifications of its members. The vain attempt made by Mr. Randolph, in the case of Barney v. McCreery, in the 10th Congress, to vindicate a claim of that kind in favor of the States, signally failed, and has never been repeated in the House. It has been claimed that Congress possesses the power to provide that ineligibility to the House may be, by sentence of court, inflicted as a punishment for crime, upon trial and conviction of the party charged. While I am not satisfied of the validity of this position, I shall not controvert it on this occasion, because it is wholly immaterial to the pending case. No such statutory provision exists. No charge of indictment, conviction, or judgment, under any such statute, is preferred against the sitting member.

Records! Records!

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for BRANCH and WARD RECORDS, of a new and improved form, which has been approved by the presiding Bishopric and others.

We shall make them of four, five and six quires each, holding 2,040, 2,560 and 3,090 names each, respectively, and the price will be for four quires, $12.00, five quires, $13.00, six quires, $15.00. Each book will contain a suitable Index, and be well bound in Cloth and Russia Leather, with ornamental lettering pieces for name of the Ward on the side. The book being of a large size, we do not think it advisable to make them over six quires.

Specimens can be seen at the Office, and orders received for size of book required.

Bishops in the Country desiring Records can order by mail, and we will make accordingly and forward to them.

EMPIRE KILNS.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. I HAVE just opened a New Limestone Quarry, which makes a Superior White Lime. It makes more and better Cementing Mortar than any other offered to the public. It is equal to the California Lime for every purpose—Plastering, Cornicing, Rock and Brickwork. The latter look nicer white between the bricks. Very cheap for cash. Just call at my

Depot, City Market Square,

And see. Try it for yourselves.

I will deliver it to any part of the city, or by car load to any part of Utah.

DIRECTORY

Salt Lake City and Utah Territory.

A WORK OF THE CHARACTER INDICATED BY THE ABOVE TITLE IS URgently demanded by public necessity. A twelvemonth ago, when the undersigned announced their intention of issuing such a work, another Directory was presented to the public, and they immediately withdrew their advertisement. There being no proposition to publish a Directory from any other quarter at present, and the importance of Salt Lake with the growing industries of the Territory calling for one, they propose issuing, on or before the 1st of April, a

DIRECTORY of SALT LAKE CITY and UTAH TERRITORY,

Compiled and arranged by

EDWARD L. SLOAN,

Whose former DIRECTORY of Salt Lake gave so much satisfaction.

THE DIRECTORY OF SALT LAKE CITY AND UTAH TERRITORY FOR 1874, will contain

A General Directory of Salt Lake City; a Business Directory of Salt Lake City;

A Business Directory of Ogden, Provo, Corinne, Alta, Bingham and Ophir; with

An Official Directory of every County and Municipality in Utah.

It will also contain a Chronological History of the Territory; a description of the various Mining Districts, with much interesting and reliable information relative to the leading mines and their development; and to the Agricultural, Manufacturing and Industrial resources of the Territory.

☞ Canvassers soliciting Subscriptions and Advertisements will call upon business men and others in a few days.

[It is respectfully requested that every facility be extended to the canvassers for the general and business directory, by furnishing them correct information as to names and residences.]
