FARMERS' ASSOCIATION MEETING. At the meeting of the Farmers' Pro-tective association held last evening the committee which met with the Sugar company committee, as reported in yesterday's "News," reported the result of the conference. The associa-tion by vote decided to accept the terms of the contract as proposed by the Sugar company for this year, and that Field Superintendent Austin or the Sugar company be notified of the action of the meeting; and also that the farmers in other towns, who had united with the association in the request to the company for an increased price, be notified of the action of the meeting. The question of improving the road near the Lake View crusher was dis-cussed, and the board of directors were instructed to petition the Provo city council and the board of county com-missioners for appropriations for that purpose. Members of the association pledged themselves to donate one half of the work necessary to make the contem-plated improvements.

The question of obtaining farm imple-ments for the members of the association at reduced prices was referred to the board of directors, to be reported on at a future meeting. The time for holding the annual meeting was fixed for the second Monday in January of each year. The meeting ad-journed till February 10. GARDEN CITY NOTES. FOUGHT THIRTEEN ROUNDS.

MEXICAN PETE.

Peter Looked an Easy Winner in the First Three Rounds-It Was A Singging Match.

A few straight left hand tabs to the aw, a right hand wallop and "1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10," and all was over. Mexican Pete was laid low and out in the thirteenth round of what was to have been a twenty round hout between Jimmy Burns, of Spokane, and Pete Everett, known as Mexican Pete, at the Salt Lake Athletic club last night. It was a slugging match from start to finish and ooked easy for the Mexican for three ounds. Burns was in perfect physical condition, and in this he had a decided idvantage over his antagonist which old as the fight progressed. The result was a big surprise to two-thirds o those present, and but few looked for the go to last over three rounds. I was preceded by two of the holtest preiminaries ever given at a fistic argu ment in this city. The program was witnessed by over six hundred sports and that they enjoyed the bout goe without saying. They all felt they go their money's worth and no compl were heard.

The first preliminary was between the Condle brothers-George and Roy. The way they went at each other in the third and sixth rounds was not call ulated to convince one that the two were brothers. They punched for al they were worth and went at each other like a brace of Kilkenney cats. Roy announced his willingness to meet Larry Gleason, of Spokane, at 133

The other hout before the main event was between Young Terry Davis and Kid Heuser. It was for four rounds and pleased the crowd greatly. Terry was awarded the decision for his ag-gressiveness. The pair were speedy and each got in some good punches. At the conclusion of their go, Heuser ac-cepted the challenge of Phil Green to light at 126 monde fight at 126 pounds.

THE MAIN EVENT.

At 9:35 Jimmy Burns entered the ring followed by his brother, George Law ler, Roy Condie and Sammy Clark The entrance of the Spokane man wa greeted with a round of applause, 1 appeared to be in splendid form an smilled confidentially. He was shortly followed by Petc, Jim Hays and Jin Francis. The Mexican took thing, cooly and evidently thought he had an easy mark. In short order they go down to work. Referee Tom Benne called the men to the center of the ring and gave them their instruction The bell rang and the men squared Pete went after Burns from the st and landed no less than a dosen the with his right on Hurns' wind. Spokan man made no attempt to p teet himself and did not counter dur the round. Those present looked him to go down and out before round ended and doubtless Pete

No class of professional men are more conservative, more careful in giving advice or more painstaking in finding out the real facts than clergymen. Their recommendation in matters with which they are conversant is trustworthy. When clergymen of known repute not only recommend, but also take home, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy for their own and for use in their families, there can be no doubt of its high standing in the eyes of professional men in general.

Rev. Theodore Hunter, pastor Presbyterian Church, Greensburg, Ky., writes : "It gives me much pleasure to state that I have received great benefit from the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Sond time ago I had a severe attack of kidney trouble, but a few bottles of Favorite Remedy has entirely removed the malady and I am now all right.

Rev. I. W. Hill, of Corning, N. Y., writes :

"Some years ago I was suffering with a cancer of long standing on my lip, and finally concluded to have it removed. About three weeks previous to having the operation performed I purchased Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and continued taking it for some time after the cancer was removed. Special Correspondence.

Roy, Weber Co., Jan. 10 .- On Wednesday, Jan. 8, Richard Jones passed away. On the 5th of May next he would have been 80 years of age. was one of the very best men in the community. From a theological stand-point he was a thorough "Mormon." He never had the chance or opportunity to acquire even a common school education; but when it came to work he was as industrious every day in the year as the busy bee in summer. When it came to a question of good judgment upon farming or market gardening in Bountiful or Woods Cross, he was without a peer. At the Farmington fair, avis Co., in 1861, he raised almost everything that obtained the first prizes, when he was working W. T. Muir's farm on shares. It is near fifty years since I first knew him and his first wife in Birmingham, England. I have been quite intimately acquaint-ed with him for over forty years, I can in truth assert he was an honest man, a good husband, and father, a kind, loving neighbor, a true friend to his friends, even when they could not see as he saw.

Richard Jones was born at Sutton, Colesfield, near Birmingham, England, May 5, 1822. Married at Aston Church, in 1848, to Sarah Jeffcott Pearson, who was buried at Bountiful May 4, 1883. He was baptized Jan. 27, 1856, and came to Utah in Capt. Rowley's hand cart train in 1859, with his wife and her oldest daughter, F. Elizabeth, now Mrs. F. E. Bridges of Montpelier, Idaho. The youngest daughter married Ed-ward F. Munn at Sweet Water Bridge, Nebraska, when crossing the plains, and now resides at Hooper.

The family brought all the way from Birmingham to Salt Lake City the set of Scotch bagpipes Mr. Dunbar so often amused the people of Salt Lake City with. In 1860 Mr. Jones was in the em-ploy of President Brigham Young and cultivated the Babbitt block and lived in the Babbitt house. He moved to Sessions settlement, now Bountiful, about iwenty-four years ago; moving later to the Sand Ridge now called Roy, where he ended a very useful life. In 1864 he married Elizabeth Baker, who is the mother of four sons and four daughters. EDWARD F. MUNN SR.

that idea himself. But they did no eckon what kind of a man Burns is. He proved himself a glutton for pun-ishment. The blows landed in the region of his kidneys were enough to whip almost any man but Burns only smiled disdainfully and took his time in measuring his man. This sort of thing continued for three rounds. At the beginning of the fourth round every body looked for Burns to be knocked out. If he was injured at all no one but himself knew it. He began to re-turn the Mexican's blows, and with interest. Pete became a little anxious and made a desperate effort to land a friend. stiff punch and end it but Burns only grinned and said something about "casy money," and then he knocked Pete to the floor and the spectators began to wonder.

During the next two rou the men did little but fiddle rounds for openings without landing a telling blow. Each time they came up Burns was the more confident and fresh. The strain began to tell on the Mexican. Burns did not weaken in the least and had the strength at any time to land the finishing wallop, but could not get an opening. Pete fought determinedly and ducked cleverly many times. He occasionally led with a right to the wind, but the blows though hard, did not phase jimmy. Burns did not at-tempt to use his right but kept boring in with his left and sent Peter to the floor repeatedly. Once he went down for seven seconds and another time for five. When Burns landed, the Mex-lcan seemed to be unable to counter, It was apparent to all that Burns was his master and that he would soon be declared the winner unless he was disabled by a chance blow. In the latter part of the twelfth round Burns sent a hard left to the Jaw and his big antagonist went down in a heap, Referee Bennett counted him out but the noise was so great that he did not hear the bell.

The gong saved Peter for the round and he had one more chance. It was one chance in 10,000, He could never hope for a draw for now Burns was doing practically all the lighting, In the threenth and last round Burns came up frest as ever and grinned at the Mexican when the latter shot in a left to the wind. Jimm, concluded it was time to put an end to estivities and it was "biff, bang, hiff Peters knees made an effort to circle around each other, but he made a game attempt to stand his ground. Burns then shot in a couple with his left that landed on the jaw and as the Mexican lowered his head to avoid another. Burns countered with his right landing it on the right spot and all was over. Some said Bennett counted too fast, but whether he did or not, Pete was whipped and was out for a longer perlod than ten seconds. For half a min-ute after he got the right hook on the inw he could not hold himself up. It took him about five minutes to collect senses sufficiently to fully realize that in Burns he had met his master,

ALL FIGHTERS NOT BRUTES.

At Least This One Shows He Is Not of That Stripe.

That all prize fighters are not brutes was amply illustrated last week during the Jim Jeffries journey East. On the train from Kansas City to Chicago Jeffries was introduced to an unfortunate young fellow who was on his way to hi home in New York suffering from dis ease that had made him a physical wreck. The man was unable to sit up in his seat, and it was only through the kindness of the train crew that he was given a drink of water and a bite to eat at meal time. Jeffries, the greater part of the trip, stood by the unfortunate to cheer him up so that he might have a more pleasant journey. The rest of the Jeffries party were in another car, but Jim did not leave the side of the sick Jim did not leave the side of the sick man until the train reached Chicago. The following latter was received rom Billy Delaney this morning and treats about Jeffries. Among other things Delaney says: "I have just closed a contract with the Clip Club Burlesque company. Jim and his brother Jack will spar at every per formance of that company this sease with the exception of what time it will take for him to train for his fights with Sharkey and Fitzsimmons. I think it is a good plan to keep Jim busy. You know he is a big, strong fellow and simply can't be given too much work He opens with the company in Fall River, Mass. I will leave New York for 'Frisco and stop off at Denver for a day or so. There is no need of me traveling about, as he can do all his own business now. I will rest in Oak-land until it is time for him to begin training, when I will again go east and take charge of his affairs. I wish you I wish your would contradict those stories about his drinking. He drinks a bottle of wine every now and then, as yo know. But the big follow was never lusher and never will be. It's too had that a report of that kind should gain circulation."-Denver Post.

HAWRINS WINS.

Given the Decision Over Perry Queenan.

Seattle, Wash, Jan. Jan. 10.-In a twenty-round boxing contest at the Seattle theater tonight, before 2,000 people, Dai Hawkins was given a de-cision over Perry Queenan. The fight was one of the clearnest and best that has ever taken place on the coast. Both men had agreed that there should be a decision. At the end of the twentieth round both were on their feet and ready to fight, but the referee decided that Hawkins had the better of it. It was undoubtedly the hardest battle that Hawkins ever fought, and several times it looked as though Queenan had him going.
