THE PRESIDENT.

He States His Reasons for not Visiting St. Louis.

A DIGNIFIED AND MANLY COURSE.

Mayor Francis' Letter and Cleveland's Answer.

HOT AND DIVERSIFIED OPINIONS INDULGED IN.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—It is practically settled that the President will not visit the west at all during the present year. The abandonment of his proposed visit to St. Louis has resulted in wholly changing the other plans he had made for visiting the western cities. It is stated at the White House this afternoon that the only plans the President has made for leaving Washington during the summer and autumn are those for his visit to Clinton, N.Y., on the 15th inst., which will proably not consume altogether more than a week's time, and for his visit to Atlanta in October next on the occasion of the Georgia State fair.

THE FOLLOWING

are copies of the letters relating to the President's proposed visit to St. Louis, which have not yet been made public. The first is a letter inviting him to be present at a meeting in St. Louis of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the second his formal letter addressed to the joint committee representing the municipality, the business men of the city and the Grand Army of the Republic:

ST. LOUIS, MO., February 26, 1887.

Grover Cleveland, President of the United States:

Sir—The National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in this city during September next, from the 27th to the 30th inclusive. It promises to be the

LARGEST GATHERING

of veterans of the late war ever seen. The organization was never in so flourishing a condition and the membership never so large as at the present time. It will be the first encampment located near the centre of the country, and the first ever held in a southern state. Our people are sparing no effort to insure for the assemblage a welcome of unusual warmth and a reception the most hospitable. The undersigned are a committee appointed by the general committee on arrangements for the purpose of extending to yourself and esteemed wife a cordial and urgent invitation to be present on that occasion and to accept the hospitalities of the committee and their city. Every exertion will be made by our citizens, as well as the 10,000 veterans then to be congregated here, to render your

VISIT PLEASANT

and your stay interesting. It is rumored that you are planning a tour through the west and south, and we sincerely hope that you can be in St. Louis during the time above mentioned. Allow us to suggest that no compliment more fitting could be bestowed on the valiant defenders of a common country by the chief executive of a restored Union, and none would be more highly appreciated than that conferred by his presence at such a time and place, enlisted my feeling and interest. More recently indications have been disclosed that show, however correctly you expressed the prevailing sentiment in the Grand Army, there are members of some posts of that body entertaining different feelings in respect to my acceptance, and that my acceptance of your invitation would lead to discord in the organization as well as an interruption of cordiality at the coming encampment, and without entering of these opinions and unmoved by any feeling, although I deeply regret the condition, I can but regard my duty to refrain from contributing by my action to so undesirable a result. Nothing can be of greater importance in connection with the encampment than the free and unrestrained manifestation by its participants of that patriotic feeling suggested by the selection of the place of holding it and which is at once the proof of complete success of their aims, and the highest glory of our veteran soldiers. I am constrained therefore to withhold my purposed acceptance of your invitation. In doing so, I assure you of my unfeigned hope and sincere wish that in the agreeable entertainment prepared for them by the hospitable people of St. Louis the veterans of the Grand Army may enjoy the most pleasant and profitable and useful reunion in their history.

INTO DISCUSSIONS

Very truly yours,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

ST. LOUIS, July 7.—A special from Washington says: The President has given up all hopes of visiting the west this fall. He will visit Atlanta in October, and after that his whole time will be given to preparing his message. It was his original intention to make a long trip in September, after he visited St. Louis. Now he will not

VISIT THE WEST.

The President's letter to Mayor Francis withdrawing his acceptance of the invitation of the people of St. Louis to visit the city during the Grand Army of the Republic encampment, has stirred up a hot and diversified expression of opinion. The committee that took the invitation to the President feel their labor has been in vain and are strong in the denunciation of the men who were instrumental in the defeat of their plan. Their friends are equally displeased especially so as the citizens generally of St. Louis had made a great effort to induce the President to make the visit. The chagrin was so great with many that they wished to organize immediately to invite the Grand Army to find

ANOTHER PLACE

for their encampment and some promised a very icy reception to the gallant soldiers. There were many others, however, who saw the wisdom of the President's course and were displeased that the city has been humiliated and are indignant about it, but agree that the Grand Army's encampment will be a glorious success and that at some other time the President shall have a reception in keeping with the high office he holds. A committee was then appointed to draw resolutions to be submitted to a mass meeting of citizens that will be called to assemble at the Merchants' Exchange to morrow afternoon. These resolutions will embody an invitation to the President to during fair week early in October, or at some other time that may suit his convenience, and will promise him an enthusiastic reception. A citizens' committee will then be appointed to again visit the President and endeavor to induce him to come.

VISIT THE CITY

MADISON, Wis., July 7.—When approached by a representative of the Associated Press to-night relative to the letter of President Cleveland to Mayor Francis, of St Louis, declining to visit that city on account of the G. A. R. difficulty, Commander-in-Chief Fairchild declined to express his views, regarding it as inconsistent for him as commander-in-chief to do so.

Rolf, the champion bicyclist of Australia, recommends St. Jacobs Oil.

DYSPEPSIA

Up to a few weeks ago I considered myself the champion Dyspeptic of America. During the years that I have been afflicted I have tried almost everything claimed to be a specific for Dyspepsia in the hope of finding something that would afford permanent relief. I had about made up my mind to abandon all medicines when I noticed an endorsement of Simmons Liver Regulator by a prominent Georgian, a jurist whom I knew, and concluded to try its effects in my case. I have used but two bottles, and am satisfied that I have struck the right thing at last. I felt its beneficial effects almost immediately. Unlike all other preparations of a similar kind, no special instructions are required as to what one shall or shall not eat. This fact alone ought to commend it to all troubled with Dyspepsia.
