DEATH OF MRS. ANDERSON.

The Kanesville ward of the Weber take is bowed down in deep sorrow on ecount of the unexpected death at that place Thursday of Mrs. Margaret L. Moyes Anderson, The deceased had been ill for some time with pneumonia, bit her loved ones and friends had very hope of her recovery and were restly shocked when the sad end came, deceased was the wife of Bennett Anderson and sister of James, William, John, Stewart and Alexander loyes. Her aged mother, who is now her eight-ninth year, survives her, and is a sister to Mrs. Eccles. She was the mother of 13 children, 9 of whom survive her. She was born in Scotland, Sept. 29, 1853, and came to Utah in the year 1866 with her parents and has made Ogden and Kanesville her home ever since. The funeral services over her remains will be held at meetinghouse Sunday at 12 o'clock. Interment will take place in the Ogden city cemetery.

MRS. NYE BURIED.

The last sad rites over the remains of Mrs. J. C. Nye took place yesterday moon at the family residence on Adams avenue. The weather was very beigner. but the attendance was have been present 24 hours previous to the discovery of the body. he other city officials, attended the uneral in a body. Rev. J. E. Carver the Presbyterian church and Rev. 8. Homer of the Methodist church, conducted the services, which were very impressive. Each spoke in the lighest terms of praise of the noble life of the deceased. A quartet, composed of Misses Mitchell and McDonald and fesser Milligan and Eastman, ren-leved some very choice music. The al offerings were numerous sautiful, bespeaking the love and esam in which the deceased was held in

He was a man of excellent qualities and has been useful in his life. He leaves a loving wife, one son and two daughters, and a host of friends to mourn his death. COUNTRY CLUB.

The Ogden Country club held a meet-ing last evening and elected officers for the ensuing year; John Hutchinson, president; H. M. Rowe, vice president; Del Gay, secretary, and S. H. Brown, treasurer. Fred Massa, Jack Browning and T. S. Hutchinson form the exerect a new club house was thoroughly discussed, but no definite action taken in the matter. The club is composed of about 30 of Ogden's prominent young men, principally for the purpose of playing golf and such sports.

DISASTROUS RUNAWAY.

Last evening a team attached to Ives' delivery wagon ran away on Twenty-seventh street, demolishing the wagon and harness. The delivery boy had just delivered some groceries to the home of Mr. Beghtol, picked up the weight and dropped it in the wagon. The noise frightened the horses and they dashed down the street, but had only gone a short distance when the wagon collided with a telegraph pole, and the force broke the horses loose, but they were soon caught. The delivery boy was thrown out of the wagon receiving slight injuries.
