Captain Greeyewald of the National Guard Signal Corps, is an active and enthusiastic worker, and a firm believer in the idea of whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well. With this thought in mind, and as an ever ac. tuating motive, he long ago succeeded In bringing the men under his command we to a much more than ordinary stand. and of efficiency.

The Signal varys has accomplished some very excellent feats in the way of communicating information from distant and difficalt points by means of the flash light, its ablilty in this direction was widely recognized two years ago, any about a year ago it tooked as though there might be a chunce for the poys to be sent in a body to the Philippipes, and an offer to that effect was tendered the war department at Washington, which, however, could not see its way clear to accept the patrictic tender.

In order that it might he able to discharge any day that might suddenly come upon it, practice work has been constantly kept up in a small way. Business and other engagements, of course, prevent the boys from doing as much work as they would like. But on Thursday evening next they will be divided into sayada, under the direction of Captain Gryenewald and sent into different and sentiates of the sur-rounding moutians and valley, and will signal mossages back and forth. None of the synds is to know where other squade have been sent and the first information they will have of their location will be when their heliographs begin their operations.

Battalion drill was held last Wednes-day night. Major H. M. H. Lund com-manding. A company was commanded by First Lieut. Forsiund, company B by Capt. O. H. Haysing, and company C by First Lieut. Jayses Terry.

A committee consisting of Col. John D. Ford and Major H. M. H. Lund met at the State arniory last Thursday night to decida upon suggestions to Add. Gen. Builds regarding ordnance stores needed for the equipment of the National Guard.

The board of graminers met last night to pass upon evanifications of the com-missioned officars.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."]

Manti, Utah, July 14 .- Yesterday afternoon, while Oscar Freling and family were attending the funeral of Lola Tuttle, daughter of Frank Tuttle, his home, the Rlo Grande Western boarding house, and most of the houseboarding house, and most of the house-hold belongings, were totally destroyed by fire. Ellis Westenskow, a domestic, who was at home at the time, was so badly burned that it is hardly prob-able she can recover. Just how the fire started could not be learned, but it is burned the variance outflow as curling started could not be learned, but it in thought the young lady war curling her hair and accidentally upset the lighted lamp, the flame of which ignited some gaseline near by. The first inti-mation neighbors had of the conflagra-tion was when the young woman came rushing out of the house with her clothes all ablaze. She fell prostrate on the lawn and willing hands soon did all they could to relieve her terrible sufferings. The building is said to be insufferings. The building is said to be in-sured for about eight hundred dollars. Miss Westenskow is a daughter of our esteemed fellow-citizen. Peter West-

John Nelson Still Uncaptured.

St. Louis, July 14.—The police have not yet captured John Nelson, the al-leged train robber, who escaped from their clutches yesterday. Requisition papers for Chas. Barnes are expected Sunday, and health hear the state of the second Sunday, and he will be taken Monday to Wickliffe, Ky, to stand trial. At the instance of Percival Adams, his St. Louis attorney, Barnes has refused to sign the supposed confession he made to Chief of Detectives Desmond impli-cating Nelson and Conley. He now says that he was not implicated in the robbery at all and he made the statement to the chief of detectives merely to allay the fears of his wife for the time being. Mrs. Nelson has been re-leased by the police and has disap-peared from her boarding place. The condition of Merry, the Illinois Central detective, who was shot by Nelson, is improving. It is probable that he will be able to resume his duties in a few days.
