

SULLIVAN TAKES STEPS TO APPEAL

Secures Voluminous Transcript of Evidence Taken During His Trial.

DONALDSON ALSO ON LIST.

Convicted of Complicity in McWhirter Scandal, He Seeks Redress in State's Highest Court.

The first step towards an appeal to the supreme court in the case of Joseph Sullivan, convicted murderer of Policeman Charles Ford, and for which crime Sullivan is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary, was taken yesterday by his attorneys, Bailey & Vickery. Mr. Vickery secured an order from Judge Armstrong, before whom the case was heard, for a transcript of evidence in the case, which is necessary to present to the supreme court as a basis of appeal.

Sullivan has no money and the state will have to pay for the transcript. This will be a voluminous document, as the taking of evidence consumed six days and it is estimated the cost to the state will be in the neighborhood of $50.

Samuel A. King, attorney for James Donaldson, convicted of complicity in the McWhirter robbery, has filed the transcript, together with the bill of exceptions on appeal, in the district court yesterday in behalf of his client. The case may not be reached by the supreme court until late next fall.

VERDICT IN SHEETS CASE.

Jury Finds for Widow of the Victim of Mysterious Tragedy.

The jury in the case of Ella M. Sheets against the Preferred Accident Insurance company, after being out three hours, yesterday afternoon brought in a verdict in favor of the widow of the victim. The verdict awards the plaintiff the sum of $2,500. The suit grew out of the attitude of the insurance company in refusing to pay the insurance on the death of Kephil L. Sheets who was found shot dead on the sidewalk near the City and County building one night in December, 1906. The friends and the family claimed that he was murdered while the insurance company held to the theory of suicide. The mystery has never been solved and no new evidence was brought forward in the latest trial held in the United States district court.

WIFE AGGRAVATED HIM.

David Lewis Hoped Coffee Would Poison His Spouse.

David B. Lewis has filed an answer to his wife's suit for divorce, and from his statement it appears Lewis has also had troubles. Mrs. Lewis is suing her husband on the ground of cruelty, and alleges that he threatened to beat her, "knock the devil out of her," and on one occasion expressed the hope that the coffee she was drinking would poison her. In his answer, Lewis admits that he did express the hope that the cream in his wife's coffee would poison her, but says he was greatly aggravated at the time, from the fact that he suggested, according to his answer, that some of the said cream be converted into butter to help enrich the family exchequer, and this so aggravated him that he made the statement indicated. The balance of the charges of cruelty Lewis denies. He says he is 32 years old, and at times cannot do hard work on account of rheumatism in his hands, but works hard when he can. For eight years past, he alleges, his wife has not worked with him, and has taught his children to disrespect, and for them not to assist him on the farm unless they are paid for their work. He also alleges that his wife left him four times for short periods within a year, although he claims he has always been a kind and loving husband.

TRANSFER OF COURSES.

Actions were filed in the Third district court yesterday, on removal from the Second district court at Ogden, as follows:

Lorenzo Rowbottom vs. the Union Pacific Coal company, to recover $29.28 for injuries received in a coal mine accident at Cumberland, Wyo., Oct. 27, 1906.

WESTERN MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 5.—Larger cattle receipts last week brought a decline in prices, but western fed steers lost only 5 to 15 cents during the week. Cows and heifers remained steady, and stockers and feeders gained 10 cents, which put the latter at the best point since first of the year, and 25 cents above last week. Run is lighter today, 9,000 head here, and moderate elsewhere, and the market is 5 to 15 cents higher. The last shipment of the Lockhart steers for the season sold at $8.85 today, highest price at which they have sold here this year; they started in at $5.25 for the first shipment, two months ago. Other Colorado steers have been selling recently at $5.75 to $6.00, some hay fed steers at $5.75, Montana feeders $5.50, Utah feeders $5.50, western stockers $4.50 to $5.50, some New Mexico stock calves, 372 pounds, at $5.40. In times of careful meat buying by the public, light cuts are always more readily disposed of, and the big heavy cuts are slow sale, which makes handy weight cuts such as good sellers, as compared with heavy weights, and accounts for the stuff holding up strong. The supply of 34,000 head here last week will likely not be equaled again till grass cattle move freely.

The old complaint of slow sale for the mutton was used effectively to depress prices last week, in conjunction with the liberal supply of $5.00 sheep which arrived, and the market declined 15 to 25 cents. There was a slight improvement Friday, and the liberal supply of 12,000 head of Utah sheep, and receipts of Colorado are rapidly diminishing, clipped lambs today at $6.30 to $7.15, woolled lambs $6.20 to $6.40, clipped sheep with $4.75 to $5.50. A number of shipments of Texas muttons are here today, the Ferguson & McKenzie 100-pound weathers selling at $5.45, Prosser 96-pound, $5.45, Hamilton 104 pounds, $5.45. Medium low class Texas stuff sells at $4.25 to $5, some of the Hart ewes late last week at $5.10, goats today at $3.80. Considerable feeding stuff is going out, lambs at $5.50 to $6.25, sheep $5.50 to $6.00.

FAT FOLKS FAVOR

Hone Mixture That Takes Off the Fat Rapidly—Causes No Wrinkles—No Stomach Ills and Requires Neither Dieting Nor Exercise.

Too much fat is both uncomfortable and dangerous, but usually fleshy people prefer to put up with its inconvenience rather than punish themselves with the tiresome exercising usually prescribed, or endanger their health by taking the so-called "cures" and patent fat "reducers."

This self-sacrifice of comfort and health to obtain a more slender figure is entirely unnecessary, however, as Mrs. Luella Bigger tells us there is a home receipt that is far superior in every way to anything money will buy for reducing superfluous flesh. It is said this simple mixture will take the fat off of men or woman at the rate of at least a couple of pounds a week without even causing wrinkles. Moreover it does not disturb the stomach, but is a good thing for the system, clearing away pimples, and, best of all, it does not interfere with the diet. You can use it and at the same time eat whatever you like. This receipt is as follows: 1/2 ounce Marmalade, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3/4 ounce of Syrup Simplex. Get these ingredients at any drug store, mix them together at home and take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Mrs. Bigger, as is well known, is a famous beauty expert, and whatever she recommends is sure to be found eminently satisfactory.

This afternoon Miss Lorene Leary is hostess at a tea in honor of Miss Sadler and Miss Singley, the rooms being decorated in white daisies and white roses, and about 40 being entertained. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Leslie Savage, Miss Terrill and Miss Mildred McMillan.

Mrs. J. F. Dunn entertained informally at a bridge tea this afternoon, her decorations being in the spring flowers and a few intimate friends assisting. About 50 were present.

Miss Leah Parr entertains her Sewing club today.

Mrs. Elwood Brown entertains informally this afternoon.

Mrs. A. W. McCune and Mrs. Ward will leave today for California, for a stay of some time.

Mrs. Sarah McChrystal and Mrs. E. C. Parsons have returned from California.

Miss Edna Farnsworth was one of this afternoon's hostesses, entertaining at a bridge tea. The rooms were bright with flowers, and about 20 guests were present.
