FINAL ECHO OF BOUNTY FRAUDS Holders of State Warrants Representing Fake Claims To be Paid. GOOD NEWS FOR THE BANKS.

Prominent Institutions Cashed the Warrants and They Were Innocent Holders When Exposures Came.

It is probable that the appropriation bill of this legislature will carry a clause appropriating money to pay the fraudulent bounty warrants of 1904. The news will be welcomed by banks of Commission a Success—Manager Harris of the M. & M. association iso in receipt of a letter from Secy Dumn of the Florida rallroad commission at Tallahassee, stating that the commis-sion in that state is a success. money in the treasury that could be applied to paying the warrants was ex-hausted, and the remainder it is pro-posed to allow in a special appropria-hausted, and the remainder it is pro-posed to allow in a special appropria-tion. The entire matter was investigated by the state board of equalization, which has submitted a report to the legislature covering the matter. The report follows: "To the Legislature: By an act of the legislature of 1905, designated chap-ter 109, the state auditor and the state board of examiners were required to examine into the validity of outstand-ing certificates for the payment of bounties issued under the provisions of chapter 137, laws of Utah, 1901, and chapter 137, laws of Utah, 1903, for de-termining the liability of the state therefor and authorizing the payment of such said certificates as are ascer-tained to be valid, making provisions for such as are ascertained to be in-valid, and directs said board to make a report of its proceeding to the legisla-ture. "Section 1 of the above act requires Dakota where he was made register of the land office. On the building of the Northern Pacific he was one of the Northern Pacific he was one of the contractors, but removed to Idaho in 1881 where he became reg-ister of the land office at Boise, be-coming later, territorial secretary. In 1884 the capital was chosen delegate to Congress. He went out of politics after the expiration of his term to engage in mining. He removed to Utah where he located several claims at Park City, and organized the Amer-ican Flag Mining company. The de-ceased was a member of the Alta and Commercial clubs, and was well known throughout this western coun-try as a respected and valuable citi-

"Vernak is booming." said Represer tative John N. Davis in response to the query of a "News" man today. Mr. Davis is an old Salt Lake boy, having been born in this city 43 years ago. He spent the first 23 years of his life in Salt Lake, but went to Uintah county 20 years ago to engage in the stock business; and now he returns to the capital the duly accredited representative to the seventh state legislature of the people of the Twelfth district, known age of 61. The captain leaves a wife, and one daughter, Mrs. George F. Ratham of Sioux City. Ia. About two years ago he fell and hurt his knee, and the injury develop-ed into local tuberculosis which spread over his body. Capt. Singiser went to Chicago to be treated by Dr. J. B. Murphy, the noted specialist, but it seems that the disease was too deeply seated, and two weeks ago there was a relapse with fatal results. The burial will take place at Me-chanicsburg. Pa., the early home of the deccased. Capt. Singiser enlisted at the age people of the Twelfth district. Known as Uintah county, of which Vernal is the capital. "Since the opening of the reserva-tion," said Mr. Davis, "it is no uncom-mon occurrence to see a hundred teams tied to the hitching posts in the streets of Vernal. It is the commercial center of a large area of productive country, and every line of business here seems to prosper. The influx of people has been great since the lands have been thrown open to settlement, and the in-coming settlers are in a great majority, chanicsburg. Pa., the early home of the deccased. Capt. Singiser enlisted at the age of 15 in a Pennsylvania regiment, during the Civil war, and served through the battles of Anticiam, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg and other noted fights. He was promoted for meritorious conduct, becoming cap-tain of his company at the age of 18, and in one battle was in command of the regiment as acting colonel. After the war, Capt. hand are evidences of permanency and growth that are very gratifying. "Our great drawback, in common with many other districts in the state, is our enforced isolation. The nearest station on the Rio Grande railway, which is Mack, Colorado, is 100 miles distant, and the nearest station on the Union Pacific is Rock Springs, Wyo-ming, which is still farther away. From our summer sheep ranges, however, we can reach the railroad within 8 miles, and we ship cattle and sheep at a profit under these conditions.

COUNTRY WELL WATERED.

"Our country is exceedingly well wa-tered. There are eight or ten rivers and creeks running through the valley, from which many canals have been and are being taken out for irrigation of the surrounding lands. During the last season we experienced an extraordinar-ily heavy fall of snow which raised the rivers to such an extent that most of our bridges were washed away. On account of the financial condition of the county, we feel that the state should CHILDREN. In buying a cough medicine for children, never be atraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and reilet is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but when given as soon as the croup, but when given as soon as the croup, but when given as directed. THE ORIGINAL.

THE ORIGINAL. Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a threat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and pop-ularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.
