While at work on a high gravel bank, above the Church blacksmith shop, it caved in. They were caught by the falling dirt, knocked down and partially buried. They escaped with slight injury.

City Council.—The Council met last evening, Alderman Raleigh in the chair.

Louis Rogall was granted an auctioneer's license for one year.

The committee on claims, to whom was referred the bill of the Salt Lake City Gas Company, for supplies and work on lamps and lamp posts, from March 30, 1875, to December 31, 1877, amounting to $133 03, reported that they had examined the various items of said bill and believed them to be correct, and recommended that the amount be allowed and appropriated; adopted.

The same committee, to whom was referred the claim of Mark Lindsay, for remuneration for work done on the main and branch water ditches in the 19th, 20th and 21st Bishops' wards, during the cold weather of the winter, recommended that he be paid $12 therefor; report adopted and amount appropriated.

The committee on streets and alleys, to whom was referred the petition of William Fuller and others, residents of the Tenth ward; Richard Bringhurst and others, of the Fifth ward, and the verbal petitions of Councilors Sperry and Smith, in behalf of the inhabitants of the Third, Fourth, Sixth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Nineteenth wards, asking that they be permitted to work out a portion of their taxes on the streets and crossings in their respective wards, reported that they had considered this subject and deem that it is but just and equitable to allow a fair proportion of the revenue collected from any part of the city to be expended in public improvements for the benefit of those from whom it is collected. They therefore recommended that $200 be appropriated to each of the following named wards: Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventeenth, and $300 each for the Tenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Nineteenth Wards. They further recommended that the work in the respective wards be done under the direction of the street supervisor, and as far as possible to poor men who owe taxes and are unable to obtain the means to pay them. Report adopted and the amounts therein named appropriated.

The committee on public grounds reported back several petitions which had been referred to them, to go over to the licensing council as unfinished business.

The committee on municipal laws, to which was referred the petition of certain merchants and property owners, on the principal business streets of the city, asking that awnings and sign posts, signs and wooden awnings, be removed from the sidewalks, reported a bill for an ordinance upon the subject. The report was accepted and the bill laid on the table to come up in its order.

The [illegible] reported that they had under consideration the report of the committee on improvements and accompanying documents relative to numbering the houses of the city, also a communication from Dr. J. R. Park, in relation to the same, having completed their labors, returned also the papers and recommended that they go over to the next council as unfinished business.

Bills were presented for services as judges and clerks at the late municipal election, amounting to $70; also bill of John Hagell, for refreshments to special policemen and for canvassing ballots, amounting to $13.65. Allowed and appropriated.

A vote of thanks was tendered by the Council to the retiring members, for the faithful manner in which they have discharged the duties of their offices during their terms of office.

Council adjourned till next Thursday evening.

Theatre.—A very large audience assembled at the Theatre last evening in spite of sleet and mud. "The Danicheffs," illustrating Russian life and customs, and the barbarous system of serfdom from which she is emerging, is a fine play and it was splendidly performed. All who took part in it exhibited true artistic talent. The stage sets were admirably arranged and the result of thorough dramatic training was exhibited throughout the performance. Mr. C. Thorne, Jr., is a fine actor and his "Orlo" was a splendid impersonation. Mr. Frank Roche, Mr. H. B. Badley and Mr. J. W. Jennings are deserving of special mention, the Zakaroff of the latter was a fine piece of character acting. Miss Morant as the Countess Danicheff showed first class abilities and true histrionic talent. Miss Harrison and Miss Mortemar, indeed all the ladies, performed their respective parts to the life, and every member of the company who appeared filled their roles to a charm. It is a long time since we have seen a company so thoroughly perfect as the U.S.

To-night the attractive play of the Two Orphans will doubtless draw another full house, and to-morrow night, their last appearance, this excellent company will perform the celebrated comedy of The Pink Dominoes.
