SMALL VOTE FOR MALONEY.

In His Home Town "American" Party "Patriot" Received Support of 260 Persons.

Democrat, Socialist and Labor Party Candidate for Assessor Got Highest Vote on Any of Three Tickets.

(Special to the "News.") Ogden, Nov. 7 .- The election in Ogden diy and Weber county resulted in a complete and sweeping victory for the Republican party, not a single man on the opposing tickets even coming close to election. While it is true that there was some bitterness in the campaign, the contest went off quietly. there being no particulor disturbance and no evidence of violence from any and no evidence of therefore from any side. The main issue in the campaign here was the one raised by the Democrats who charged the Republican party with graft. For their champion the penocrats selected J. D. Skeen for their candidate for county attorney. On the other hand, the Republicans pheed before the people the name of N. J. Harris. The voters, well knowing the issue raised, gave Mr. Harris, Re-publican, 1,399 votes more than to Skeen. The Republican ticket was led by

The Republican ticket was led by The Republican ticket was led by Sarif Sebring, who has been elected by 1.05 over Belmap, Democrat, Mr. Schrig's total vote was 4.301. The highest vote received by any candidate on the opposing tickets, Democrat, Socialist and Labor, was piven to Andrew H. Martin, for county assesser. He received 2,909. E. T. Hulaniski, candidate for state senator on the Republican ticket, re-ceived the lowest vote on that ticket, 1566

A nodecable feature of yesterday's intest was the small vote polled. It has been closely estimated that not mere than 50 per cent of the regis-terd vote was cast. There is great rejoicing in Ogden to-day. The celebration of victory began has evening, cantinued all night and is still going on with no indication of a let up. General good feeling prevails and all traces of bitterness and strife seem to have been obliterated by the iandshide of Republican votes.
