THEATRE.—There was a pretty large and a thoroughly appreciative audience last night, and their classic playing has never been witnessed in this city, those present being apparently enraptured with it. The play, "Damon and Pythias," is one in which Messrs McCullough and Adams have fine scope for their histrionic abilities, and to say that these gentlemen did justice to their respective roles would but poorly convey our opinion of their superb acting. As is well known to the public here, the former gentleman possesses many eminent qualities as an artist of the highest order, and they were displayed to advantage last night, his Damon being a finished and classic impersonation. He has the faculty of throwing into his voice great intensity of feeling, and he exercised this power with much effect throughout the performance, many in the audience during the rendition of the more touching scenes of the play being much affected, especially during the interview with his wife and child, and in the last scene, where he rushes upon the stage and learns that he is in time to save his friend.

It would be next to impossible to speak too eulogistically of the Pythias of Mr. Edwin Adams. The style of this eminent young actor in point of finish, richness and originality, we believe, to be scarcely surpassed. His voice is of that clear, mellow, intense nature which so electrifies and entrances the listener, and his easy and graceful manner lend a charm to his acting which is really remarkable. We do not think we have seen an artist who so thoroughly carries out the advice of Hamlet to the player. In the scenes where Mr. Adams threw into the character a whirlwind of conflicting, surging passions and emotions, there was in every outburst a current of moderation. Instead of deteriorating from the effect of those scenes it gave them an intensity which mere wind and noise never produce.

Miss Ellen Tracey's Calanthe was a fine rendition of that character. This lady plays unconsciously, yet effectively. She has the unusual gift of displaying internal emotions without showing much external vehemence of voice or gesture. The part she enacted last night, however, was not of that nature to bring all her fine abilities into action.

Carrie Carter has never played a character of which she has a truer conception, or which she has performed so well here as Hermion. She seemed to put her whole soul into the part, rendering it with much force and effect.

We have occasionally alluded to Mr. Thorne as a careful and progressive actor, who is steadily gaining in the profession. His growth since making his début at the Theatre has been noticeable to all who have watched his course. He bids fair to become a fine dramatist, there are none, however, in any of the pursuits of life who have not some faults. His conception and rendition of Dionysius, last night, were very good, save in one particular; his two rapid utterance. This caused many of the sentences enunciated by him to be lost upon the audience, through not being able to catch the words. One of the greatest beauties of acting is clear and distinct utterance. We make allusion to this point with the kindliest feelings towards Mr. Thorne, who is an excellent gentleman and a good actor, and we are satisfied that by correcting this defect he will rise still higher in public esteem as an artist.

Messrs. Coggeshall, Marden and others performed their parts very commendably.

Altogether the performance, last night, was one of such dramatic excellence that it will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed it.

FIRST COMPANY IN TO-MORROW.—The following telegram was received this morning:

LARAMIE, July 10th.

Prest. B. Young:—The company with missionaries are well, and will arrive at Ogden on Wednesday at 2.35 p.m.

R. F. NESLEN.

INCREASED ATTRACTION AT THE CIRCUS.—To-night there will be an increased attraction at the Atlantic and Pacific Circus, and before the time of the regular entertainment the terrific Niagara Leap, an equestrian feat of the most daring character will be performed outside, open to the public. A large platform has been erected, at a cost of two hundred dollars, and from this a leap of sixty feet will be taken. The performers will be those unequaled equestrians Messrs. Romelli and Lehman. This great feat is set for six o'clock this evening, and again to-morrow evening at the same hour. Remember everybody, it will be performed before the public free of charge to all who wish to behold it. This company only give four more of their inimitable performances, Friday evening being positively their last appearance. On Saturday morning they will leave this city, and will take the following route:

American Fork, 15th and 17th of July; Provo 18th, Springville 19th, Payson 20th, Eureka, 21st, Ophir 22d, Ogden 24th, Wasatch 25th, Evanston 26th, Green River 27th, Laramie City 28th, Cheyenne 29th, Denver 31st, August 1st, 2d, 3rd, 4th, Golden City 6th, Idaho 7th, Georgetown 8th, 9th, Central City 10th, 11th, 12th, Boulder 14th, Burlington 15th, Evans 16th.

ARRIVALS.—The Hon. S. S. Cox, M. C. from New York, and who formerly was a Representative from Ohio in the Federal Legislature, arrived in the city last evening. Mr. Cox has a national reputation in the literary as well as in the political world, being both a brilliant writer and politician. He is a Democrat, and as such has been brought in contact with the Republican leaders in Congress, especially with Hon. B. F. Butler, who found in Mr. Cox "a foeman worthy of his steel."

M. M. Pomeroy, Esq., whose La Crosse Democrat gained him plenty of money, and reputation as an editor, also arrived in the city last evening. "Brick" Pomeroy is a name that is very familiar to all who have the least acquaintance with newspaper literature.

These gentlemen are en-route for the Pacific.

THE STAR COMBINATION.—The enterprise of the management in placing such superb dramatic entertainments before the public should be encouraged, and, doubtless, it will. The bill for to-night should draw a crowded house. Othello, with Mr. John McCullough as the Moore, Edwin Adams as Iago and Miss Ellen Tracey as Desdemona. Who could desire a greater Shakespearian treat than this? The entertainment will conclude with "the Fairy Fount or, the Waters of Love."

REACHED HOME.—Messrs. Joseph A. Young and John W. Young arrived at home last evening from their visit to the East. They are in excellent health.

WEBER COUNTY.—H. Hamilton writes, under date of the 7th, from Hooperville. He says:

"The crops here look well, especially the fall grain. Some of our Spring grain is suffering for want of water. Our wheat harvest began as early as June 30th. The Fall wheat and the barley is generally ready for cutting. The grasshoppers made their appearance here June 22nd, but not in large numbers. I have seen a few occasionally since, but not enough to do any damage, there only being enough to keep us in remembrance of the pests.

The people here generally feel well. We have one day school in session. Our Co-operative store does a pretty good business and we are satisfied that the principle is the road to success.

HOME AGAIN.—Elder John Taylor arrived in this city on Sunday evening, from a journey to the eastern States. He is in the enjoyment of tolerably good health,

THE KANAB.—Elder Levi Stewart left his home in the Kanab country on the 28th ult., and reached this city last night. He reports the Indians all quiet, and the settlers well in health and feeling well, though their prospects for bread are slim on account of the drouth, and a poor harvest. The Indians say the drouth has been more severe than has been known for many years. Bro Stewart advises any who may contemplate going to that country to settle to take along their seed grain and bread enough to last them until they can raise more. Their saw mill was in operation, and doing a good business when he left.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A gentleman named H. M. Goodman, who arrived in this city from Virginia city, Nevada, on the 7th inst., died suddenly at the Townsend House, at about half-past ten this morning. A post mortem examination of the remains of deceased was held this afternoon, Dr. Hamilton being the examining physician, the result of which we have not yet ascertained. Mr. Goodman was, we are informed, about 35 years of age, and was engaged in the mercantile business in Virginia. A Coroner's inquest will be held this evening in the office over the store of Messrs. Taylor & Cutler, by H. S. Beatie, Esqr.

THE PROVO MINE.—A fine lump of ore, weighing two hundred and thirty pounds, from the Provo mine, Kelser's Peak, Big Cottonwood, is to be seen at Wells Fargo & Cos. The body of ore in this discovery, we are informed is very large, being twenty-four feet wide, and up to the present no wall rock has been found. Assays give $227,70 in silver to the ton, with 69 per cent lead. It is owned by Messrs N. R. Hawkins and Major Meeks. Twenty-five tons are already on the dump, and it is the purpose of the owners to commence the shipment of ore as soon as their trail is finished, which will be in about two weeks. A force of twenty men is now being employed. We received the above information from Mr. Hawkins, one of the owner

GOES EAST.—Mr. Hawkins, who came to this country as financial agent for Jay Cooke in the business of the Northern Pacific Railroad, leaves in the morning for the East. He expects to return here in the course of a few months. Those persons who may have business with the Northern Pacific, or who may wish information respecting it, can be attended to by calling upon Mr. Tracey, at Wells, Fargo & Co's.

NEW REFORM.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsaparilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of a Temperance Reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country. The natural condition of man is a thirsty one, and it has long been an established fact that water will not quench thirst. The question then arises, can we find a substitute as harmless in its effects, and more delicious in taste than anything yet discovered? We find it in Day & Co.'s Soda and Sarsparilla. If every one would sign the Pledge and drink nothing but this Celebrated Beverage, much degradation, misery, shame and crime would be prevented in the world. If any one doubts the truth of our remarks let them step into the first place they come to and try it. It will vouch for itself. en(170)tf
