The body of the Chinaman who was buried in the snowdrift at Alta has not yet been found.

The funeral of Dr. Crookwell was held to-day at 1 o'clock, in the Ninth Ward meeting house.
SAMUEL ENGLISH has lost a pocket-book containing Tithing office orders drawn in his favor. See advt.
The sale of tickets for the opera of "Patience" commenced this morning. Appearances indicate a full house.
The Second Quorum of Seventies will hold their meeting in the Fifteenth Ward school house on Monday evening next, at half past seven o'clock.
OCCIDENTAL friend, Brother Geo. Goddard went north yesterday to attend the funeral of a fourteen-year old grandson, who has just died in Logan.
As a result of the mine cave at Frisco, the Utah Central Railway will, on Tuesday, the 24th inst., take off our freight train between this city and Sandy Station.
The box office to-day looked like the delivery of the post office on St. Valentine's day, and tickets for "Patience" to be presented on Monday evening, are going off rapidly.
Mr. GEORGE BROWN, of the firm of Barber & Son, Logan, came to our city last evening. To-day he is resting on business connected with the firm, and returns north in the morning.

The home of Brother Robert L. Anderson, which was so badly burned at the recent fire on his premises, is in the process of being repaired. Considering how badly the animal was burned, it has progressed quite remarkably, reflecting credit on Dr. Bridges whose treatment has greatly benefited the animal's recovery.
The Sixth Ward Assembly Room was crowded last evening by an appreciative audience, to witness the entertainment given by the Ward Sunday School. The programme consisted of music, songs, recitations, etc., and a very well rendered, the concert portion being especially good. The careful manner in which the children performed their parts reflects credit on themselves and those under whose care they have been trained.

LOCAL NEWS.

Home Missionaries.—The regular meeting of the Home Missionaries of this State will be held next Wednesday, the 25th inst., at the usual time and place. They will please govern themselves accordingly.
Incorporation.—Secretary Thomas to-day issued certificates of incorporation to the Mill Creek Mining, Milling and Smelting Company, with its principal place of business at Salt Lake City. The capital stock is $40,000, and the number of incorporators are: T. Lynch, I. Cottrell, P. M. Bishop, S. E. Underhill, J. R. Foster, A. L. Thomas, J. H. Ridge and M. J. Thomas.
A Prosperous Trip.—Brother Andrew Jensen returned on Thursday evening from a trip south in the interest of the Utah Post and Messenger, of which periodical he is one of the proprietors and editors. He traveled through Sanpete and Sevier Counties, and though he found money in that region very scarce, he is highly gratified over the success which he met with.
Commissions Issued.—We are indebted to Secretary Thomas for the names of the following officers, recently elected, to whom the Governor issued commissions yesterday.
Anti-City—Mayor, Wm. Luke; Aldermen, F. R. Kenner, C. P. Larsen.
Spanish Fork City—Mayor, William Greer; Aldermen, Edwin A. Wilson, Geo. G. Hales.
The Deserted Village.—Alta is now completely deserted, as the last of its inhabitants—eight persons in all—arrived in this city last evening. Mrs. Keist, the lady who was so badly burned and bruised when the fire struck the house, stood the trip very well, notwithstanding she was considerably tired in a somewhat critical condition before she left the city. She is now at the City House, and quite comfortable.
The party of rescuers have worked with commendable diligence and energy, and deserve a substantial manifestation of public appreciation. The body of the Chinaman had not been found, although diligent search for it has been made.
The Temple.—The laying of stone on the Temple in this city will not begin as early this spring as usual, on account of changes which will have to be made in the holding apparatus. As the walls are all up to the square, the stone work will be mostly confined to the towers, which will necessitate the removal of all the derricks to other positions. The rest of the stone work, in proportion to its mass, will be much more slowly accomplished than when building the walls. Much of the stone for the towers and pinnacles have to be cut into peculiar shapes and dressed by skilled workmen, and takes a great deal of time. Eighty hands are employed on the Temple block, a large percentage of whom are competent stonecutters, and the work is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

THE GRAND JURY ADJOURNED.

THE HUNGRED OBJECT OF THE "NEW MOVIE."

The grand jury, after grinding out an indictment found under United States laws, to-day, have adjourned until the 10th of March.
A report is current on the street that this is a stroke of policy on the part of Mr. Dickson and his fellow crusaders, and that its object is to give "Mormons" who have gone off on visits an opportunity to return and resume their business operations. It is also hinted that by the time the grand jury resumes there will be a good chance for the "sneaks," "spotters" and deputies to make another sortie and take the persons for whom they have such an abiding solicitude by surprise. In other words, Mr. Dickson is credited with merely letting his hold go to give him time to spit on his hands and take a fresh grip. Whether the absentees will take the tempting bait, and return right away to their wives, children and business remains to be observed.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN.

HOW HE RECKLESSLY PURSUED THE ROAD TO RUIN.

On Wednesday last a telegram was received in this city, stating that Clarence Lee, once a resident of Tooele City, had died suddenly from heart disease, at Butte, Montana, February 17th, and that the body would be sent to Salt Lake.
Some four or five years since, the deceased, who is the son of ex-Senator Wm. H. Lee, of Tooele County, went with his father to Butte, taking with him his young wife. For some time the father and son were engaged in hauling wood for the Walker and other mines in the vicinity, and were very successful, financially. Young Lee soon fell into bad company, where he contracted the habits of gambling and drinking; his wife and sister used their utmost endeavors to stop him in his downward course, but the love of vice, and his own weakness were disregarded, and every effort to reform him seemed to have no tendency to further deeds of shame. Things went on from bad to worse, until his wife, no longer able to remain in the deplorable condition in which her husband's recklessness had placed her, returned home to her mother in this city, bringing her family of three children. Lee's sister, hoping to still reclaim her fallen brother, remained in Butte, but Lee paid no attention to her pleadings, having become so degraded that all decent respectability seemed to have disappeared, and in this condition he passed from this life at about 27 or 28 years of age. His body was taken charge of by his sister, parties in Butte furnishing the means for transportation, and brought to this city, arriving at the Utah Central depot last evening. This morning, Mrs. Lee and family, and some relatives of the deceased, accompanied the remains to Tooele City, where they will be interred. The following is a brief account of his death, and the real cause:
"Night before last, while calling for his mail at the postoffice, Clarence Lee, a young man well known in Butte, was taken with spasms and fell to the floor in an unconscious state. His friends assisted him to his feet, but upon recovery the young man failed to recognize the fact that he had fallen. He was accompanied to Moore's billiard hall where he proposed to play a social game, when he was again taken suddenly ill. Dr. Bishop was called and discovered at once that the young man was suffering from internal hemorrhage, caused from the bursting of a blood vessel. A carriage was procured and the fever taken to his room on Granite Street. Dr. Bacon was called and confirmed the verdict given by Dr. Bishop. Mr. Lee died in a few hours. After the doctor examined the corpse and rendered the same opinion as that given by Doctors Bishop and Bacon. The appearance of the body after death indicated the prime cause. The fact is now made known that Mr. Lee was stabbed in the back just before the point of the blade never found. The point of the blade may have worked its way downward, and in all probability reached the heart, where it cut through to some vital artery."

Court Proceedings.—Most of the time of the District Court to-day was occupied in the trial of William C. Hall, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. This case was called up yesterday by the defendant had stepped out of the court-room for a few moments, not expecting that it would come up until he would be back. Not answering to his name, a deputy was sent after him, but was unsuccessful in his search, so the Judge declared his bonds forfeited. He entered court in a few moments and was astonished to learn what had been done during his brief absence. This morning, however, the default and forfeiture were set aside, and the case was continued to the 10th inst. The indictment was then read to him and he pleaded not guilty to the charge. A jury was sworn, the case tried, and a verdict found of guilty of the charge. He will be sentenced on February 24.
The defendants in the case of the People vs. Henry Brock and John B. Hogan, the parties who stole liquor from Bechtel's saloon, withdrew the plea of not guilty and both pleaded guilty. Each was sentenced to two months' imprisonment in the county jail.
James McConnell entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of burglary. The grand jury brought in one indictment found under the United States laws.
In the case of Daisy Allen vs. John S. Barnes, the defendant was ordered to pay the costs of the proceedings, to answer the amended complaint, to answer.
Court adjourned until Feb. 24.

Kate Castillon Coming.—Our people will have an opportunity next Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee, at the Salt Lake Theatre, of seeing the famous and captivating Miss Kate Castillon, supported by her own comedy company which embraces a combination of comedians and vocalists that have established a great reputation for her. There is no lady on the American stage that has gained greater popularity than Miss Castillon and she has a peculiarly fascinating manner and style that cannot be imitated by anyone. The entertainment they will give here will certainly be one of the most pleasing that our citizens will witness this season. As the Theatre will be packed it is desirable to secure seats early. Prices as usual.
Italian Opera Company.—The sale of reserved seats will open on Tuesday morning at 10 a.m., for the performance of "Il Trovatore," on Thursday next, at the Salt Lake Theatre. Mme. Fursch-Madi, the great soprano, Mme. Scatchi, the best contralto in the profession, and Signor Cardinali, the finest baritone on the stage. Signor De Anna, the magnificent baritone, Mme. Cavallazzi, the renowned premiere danseuse with a ballet, is also accompanied. These with the large and well trained chorus, and the brilliant orchestra under the leadership of Signor Arditi, will give an entertainment such as is seldom witnessed in this city.

PERSONAL.

R. S. Wires, business manager of the Kate Castillon comedy company, is in town, and called upon us this morning.
The revival of "Patience" by the youthful and talented company which has for some time had this charming opera under preparation, bids fair to be numbered among the notable events of the season. The piece has been carefully rehearsed, and the combined managerial efforts of Prof. Krouse and Mr. White, in the musical and dramatic departments, have borne legitimate fruit in the admirable state of proficiency to which the performers, most of whom are entirely new to the stage, have attained. This was particularly manifest at last evening's rehearsal, witnessed by representatives of the city press and a chosen few of the many friends of the company.
The cast of the opera is excellent. Miss Nettie Thatcher, a star just dawning on the lyric horizon, but one fated, we believe, to shine with lustre, has the part of "Patience" to enact. This young lady has a voice that, with proper cultivation, would make its own known far beyond the sphere she now moves in, and displays dramatic ability as well as beauty of person. Will be sure to please. Mrs. Leberg is a typical "Lady Jane," and besides being the possessor of a fine voice, shows that she has every appreciation of the splendid comedy role in which she will appear. Much of the merriment created and the enjoyment furnished, will be by this talented lady. The characters of "Lady Saphir," "Lady Angela," and "Lady Ella," three astute chameleons, will suffer nothing in the hands of Miss Leberg, Wells, Mrs. Birdie Cummings and Miss Edna Russell. All three ladies are well known to the public, the first for a beautiful contralto voice, which has often charmed the musical entertainments of a special or semi-private nature, the second for her connection with the Home Dramatic Club and its performances, and the delicate but telling strokes of comedy which form one of the best features of her acting. She also has a voice of sweetness and power. The third has charmed the public ear from childhood, as she is destined to enchant both eye and ear from this time on. The male principals are Mr. J. D. Spencer, the liberated juryman, who makes a splendid "Bunthorne;" Mr. J. T. White, equally good as "Grosvenor;" Messrs. G. D. Pyper, T. C. Crawford, J. N. Harris and Fred Clayson as "Duke," "Colonel," "Major" and "Solicitor," respectively. The chorus is full, strong and capable, the beauty of the ladies and the necessarily overshadowed attractions of the gentlemen, forming a brilliant and varied picture. The group of vaudeville artists, though in some places attended to rather timidly, very good indeed, and the costumes and scenery will no doubt contribute to the splendor of the entertainment.
Mr. Krouse, as we have intimated, leads the orchestra and directs the opera from the front, and Mr. White, in his capacity of stage manager, has all his native ability and acquired experience. The orchestra is composed of a dozen or fifteen of the best musicians of the city, with Mr. Joseph McIntyre as pianist. Tickets are selling to-day, and a crowd of house may be looked for on Monday night, for performance will certainly deserve it.
Dramatic.—The entertainment given in the Tenth Ward schoolhouse last evening by the Fourth Ward Dramatic Association, was witnessed by a large audience, who were very much pleased with the performance. Considering that the company are amateurs, the entertainment reflects great credit upon its members, and the acting called forth frequent and hearty bursts of applause.
Next Wednesday evening the same company, assisted by Prof. E. Stephens, Miss Ida Hitecheek, James Crawford and other persons of well known talent, will give a musical and dramatic entertainment in the Seventh Ward meeting house, for the benefit of the Fourth Ward Sunday School. This performance will begin with a grand olio and end with the original three act drama, taken from real life, entitled, "Mishka." Excellent music will be in attendance, and a good treat is anticipated on that occasion.
From Franklin.—We received a call this morning from Brother S. R. Parkinson, the enterprising manager of the Co-operative Store of Franklin, in the northern part of Cache Valley. We learn from him that there is considerable more snow in that region than here, and it will be some time yet before plowing can be commenced even if the warm weather continues. The Latter-day Saints of Nevada County, who are well known, were the victims of the grossest frauds at the time of the election last fall, and against whom the recent disgraceful efforts of the anti-"Mormon" maniacs of legislators were specially directed, are now regarding with considerable interest the quarrel which is going on and the recriminations which are being indulged in among the office-holders of Idaho. When roguery falls out there is some chance for honest men to get their dues; it is to be hoped it will be the case in this instance.
Sargent's Trouble Increases.—Mr. James Walts, one of the county commissioners of Custer County, Colorado, arrived in our city yesterday for the purpose of taking charge of Sargent, the embittered.
From the account given by Mr. Walts it seems that Sargent has served two terms as treasurer of Custer County, and that when vacating his office in 1883, there was a discrepancy of between $3,000 and $4,000 in his accounts, which he was obliged to pay. He had not been out of office long, however, before, in presenting bills, numerous tax receipts were encountered for which no credit had been given on the books.
In this way Sargent has embezzled in the neighborhood of $30,000. A warrant was issued for his arrest when these developments were made, but he escaped the officers by leaving in the night, and nothing was heard of him until he turned up here in Salt Lake.
With regard to the part of Baldwin (whose proper name, by the way, is Hart), played in the affair was also explained by Mr. Walts. It appears he had heard of Sargent's theft and escape, and meeting him here, at once used the wiles to see what reward would be paid for the capture of the embezzler. He was offered $500, and Governor Eaton mailed him a requisition for Sargent. He had, however, arrested the latter before receiving any authority to do so, and had him confined as we have previously stated. Negotiations were almost completed between the captive and captor, where by the former was to pay the latter $1,000 to be liberated, but the proceedings were stopped by the timely intervention of the habes corpus issued by Judge Zane.
Mr. Walts presented his credentials and gave the above explanation to Governor Murray, who expressed himself entirely satisfied with the genuineness, and the defendant was delivered over to that gentleman, who leaves for Colorado to-day with his charge.

"PATIENCE."

MONDAY'S EVENT AT THE THEATRE.

The revival of "Patience" by the youthful and talented company which has for some time had this charming opera under preparation, bids fair to be numbered among the notable events of the season.
