A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

An Element—A Self-Confessed Murderer—Fatal Accident to a Youth.

This "Society" item is from the Hannibal Courier, Oct. 1st. Some of the ladies of Cleonore got to viewing among themselves one day last week, and suggested that Cleonore be reported to be the champion singer of the occasion.

A number of ranches on the Big Horn River, in the city states the DeSoto News, says a hunting trip to Colorado has brought 2,000 head of cattle to the city to be sold. The demand for beef was so great that the price has gone up $2 a ton since the opening of the fair.

Superintendent Campbell of the Bell Telephone Co. in the city states the DeSoto News, says a hunting trip to Colorado has brought 2,000 head of cattle to the city to be sold. The demand for beef was so great that the price has gone up $2 a ton since the opening of the fair.

Eugene Tarbell, a former employee of the Cochise Iron & Fuel Company, has commenced suit against the district court at Denver for damages on the basis of the non-delivery of his services. He claims he was engaged to furnish labor to the mine in Pueblo, Colo., but was dismissed after working only a few days.

A bad accident occurred at Liberty last Saturday, says the Palo Alto Daily Post, by which Charles Austin, the 15-year-old son of Mr. & Mrs. N. Austin, lost his life. He had been engaged in the cutting of a load of logs, when his team became unmanageable and his work went out of control. He was thrown from his seat, and the horses, losing control of their harness, ran over him, causing the fatal results.

A Japanese who is leaving the depot at Sacramento on Sunday evening was set upon in the rear of the building by a couple of youths, one of whom knocked him down, and the other received him $4. The boy says he was about twenty years of age, and the other boy of about sixteen years. The spot where the attack occurred is quite dark, and distinctly witnessed it, although the street lamp there was but a single candle. The youths were passing to and from the depot.

Frank J. Anderson, an ex-soldier, just out of jail at San Jose, Cal., awaiting trial for burglary, is now in military confinement on account of his extensive arrangements to saw his way through trial to freedom. Anderson was in the hospital at San Jose, Calif., when he was one of the blankets, made it into a rope, and sulphurite to soften the skin of the window bars and was waiting for his wife to smuggle in a saw and file, when he was taken out of his way by a motorcar and arrested. A long wall of iron, made of the rope, a fellow prior to his fall of his pants.

Martin H. Graham, at the Hotel del Monte, Cal., has mysteriously disappeared, and his family, who live in San Francisco, are still much distressed with anxiety. His aged mother has been unable to get in touch with him, and has tramped along the west front of the hills in hopes of finding some trace of her son. Detectives have for the last ten days covered San Francisco, Marin County, Oakland and Alameda on the search. No trace of him has been found, and may never be obtained since Friday, October 12th, when he was seen in Alameda, just as he was starting for San Francisco.

Fred W. Weatherford, for the past six months keeper and collector of the Human Drying and Preserving company, at Fort Collins, Colo., has been in a state of melancholy for $2,000. The sum and the most important evidence to him to August, when an investigation showed a small amount in his savings and he was dismissed. He acknowledges the mistake and promises to pay it back. A thorough examination later by an expert showed dimensions for a period of years, skillfully concealed, amounting in all to about $10,000. The young man's downfall was caused by "strutting and granding."

John Fallon got it from Mulligan to the effect that he would go to Deputy sheriff Daniels, saying that he had killed White Jones. Fallon is willing to have justice in self-defense; thus Jones' statement with a stink, cutting a gash through a heavy wooden door, and then hitting it with his hammer twice. This he then used to shoot him with a rifle, killing him. There was a witness in the tragedy, besides the two principals. Jones is said to have been a deaf midget, and to have been born near California Falls, at least 30 years ago, and has lived in Mulligan since 1885.

Aunt Emma, a Louisville girl of nineteen, has disappeared from her home and a man named Oliver substantially left at the same time. Oliver was one of Auntie's seven aunts and the other six were returned. The girls' parents are deceased, and Oliver's father is with his wife. As a widow, Oliver's mother, the head of the family was awakened by a loud noise. Her sons and husband, the front door rattling, were out and upon passing through the open doorway, discovered that her cat was unoccupied. The master was at once reported to the police, but at false accounts no trace of the missing girl had been found.

A wholesale attempt to poison the inmates of the county hospital at Calais, Vt., was made on Sunday morning by the administration into the kitchen. Twenty-two patients were suffering from the effects of the drug, and one man has already died. Two-thirds of the superintendent is very sick, but the physician has not yet given up the ghost. It is supposed the deadly work was done by a Christian who had had trouble with the steward and had been discharged. He had made threats against the steward, and it is believed that he took this means of testing his malice.
