WASHINGTON.

The premature publication matter—Appointment and resignation, the Senate was called before the Senate committee of the House to answer

in relation to a charge against members of the House, which he had made in the New York Tribune, but which he declined to answer, on the ground that he would violate his professional honors. The only reason given for the refusal of this law was that the Senate could not hold a witness in custody after its adjournment, the power of the House and the Senate being inadequate to punish. They then made refusal to answer a criminal offense, would it be better to turn White and Ramsdell over to the law than to exercise doubtful power of detaining them.

Sherman said that in 1857, J. W.

Sumner was called before the Senate committee of the House to answer

in relation to a charge against members of the House, which he had made thing to a great height, threatening the country for miles around. Human aid is useless, and the only hope is that the night will remain calm.

The Prussians have fired on and driven back the insurgents flying from Paris.

The court martial commenced its sitting on Monday.

There is a rumor that Delescluse and

Paul have been shot.

The insurgents imprisoned in the docks attempted a rising to make their escape. Several of them were shot before the uprising was quelled.

New York, 27.—Judge Dowling today sentenced the prize-fighters, Collins and Edwards, to the penitentiary for twelve months each, and to pay a fine of $1,000, the sentence to continue in default of fine, for another year.

When Collins and Edwards were being remanded a demonstration of sympathy was evinced, but was quickly suppressed.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Coal mines on fire.

PITTSBURGH, 27.—The West Pittston shaft, owned by the Lehigh Valley

Railroad, and worked by Blake & Co., of New York, is burning; there is only one shaft left. Part of the men have been saved; no particulars have yet been obtained, but it seems that it will be a repetition of the Avondale catastrophe.

PHILADELPHIA, 27.—A Pittston dispatch, dated 25th p.m., says a shaft of one of the mines is on fire, and all the miners are inside; none can escape.

MINNESOTA.

A bridge falls.

WINONA, 27.—The new drawbridge across the Mississippi, at this place, fell into the river at 2 p.m., to-day, with a train of ten cars loaded with stone.

Two brakemen were badly injured.

The first passenger train crossed the bridge only last Thursday.

FOREIGN NEWS.

CREAT BRITAIN.

Carlist movement. The dead in Paris—

A Carlist movement is imminent.

LONDON, 27.—The Daily News says the Carlist movement is imminent.

A dispatch from La Osa says the Carlist movement is imminent.

It is calculated that upwards of 50,000 corpses are in houses and cellars.

Many women and children, it is said, have been perfectly furious. There are constant executions. The destruction of property is excessively great. One fourth of Paris is destroyed.

LONDON, 27, p.m.—The total amount of bullion in the bank of England is 24,500,000 pounds. This amount is unprecedented in the annals of the bank.

FRANCE.

Insurgents fire recklessly.

ST. DENIS, Thursday night.—Affairs are somewhat quiet. Conflagrations are decreasing.

The workshops of the Versailles railway are burned.

The insurgents are dislodged at Charonne and surrounded at Belleville and Montmartre.

PARIS, 28, noon.—Fighting in the east and north is less violent. The Ver-
