grounds. Manager S. J. Kelley of the Shamrock A. C., who successfully engineered the long-to-be-remembered contest between Battling Nelson and Spider Welch, announced last night that Eddle Santry, exfeatherweight champion of the world, and Louie Long, the boxer who beat Herrera recently, had agreed to come here for a twenty-round contest on the 20th of May, and that he would bring them here if the game is permitted to run.

The record of both boys is well known, Santry is the only man who ever defeatsantry is the only man who ever deteat-ed the English champion, Benny Jordan, He is a 128 or 132 pound man. His recent bouts were as follows: Knocked out Mickey Riley, in six rounds, at Milwau-kee; beat Jack Dougherty, at 132 pounds, and beat the tough Kid Sayers in two rounds. His only defeat in recent months was at the hands of the Mexican, Her-rera. He beat Dick Green at catch weights in five rounds since then.

The club has another match on for June 13th, that while be of interest to devotees of the "manly art." It is between Bat-tling Nelson and Charlie Neary. The first contest is to be in the Salt Palace theater and the other in the saucer track, Manager Murphy and Nelson left for 'Frisco last night, where the Battler is to meet Martin Canole on the 20th. Murphy said last night: "I look for Canole to show more clever-ness than Battling, but I expect my man to wade in so hard and relentlessly that Canole's cleverness will do him no harm. I believe he will beat Canole as he beat Welch." The club has another match on for June Tozer, one of the pitchers signed by the management of the Sait Lake basehall team, is expected to arrive here in a day or two and report for duty. He is well known to the fans here, and will doubt-less prove a tower of strength to the Sait Lake nine. Tozer had a position in St. Louis, and at first stated he would not come here. But it seems as has changed come here. But it seems he has changed his mind, and has notified the manage-ment that he would soon be here.

alarge, but the performance was cap-ably presented. It was distinctly Mr. Sosso's night. He had the part of Rizardo, and he made the most of it. The applause he got was generous, frequent, and merited. Mr. Frank Wyman, who has been conspicuous around the box office hitherto, as the acting manager of the company, had a rather succulent though not desirable role in the impersonation of Gaspard Dobre. He surprised his friends most agreeably by the faithfulness of his interpretation. James Corrigan as Jack Bealby was good, but in the "Lion's Heart" he has a streak of lean. Miss Elliott gave us the best exhibition of ability she has yet displayed. She had a dual role, that of the runaway mother, and later that of Marion Lorimore, the daughter. In both she gave very satisfactorily several of the strongly emotional scenes, Myrtle Selwyn as Bessie Lorimore was as chic and pretty as ever, while the remainder of the cast did very fair work.
